Harland's Complete Etiquette Marion Harland, Virginia Terhune Van de Water, 2021-05-19 Marion Harland's Complete Etiquette presents a compelling tapestry of social customs and norms intricately woven together to reflect the evolving standards of behavior during the late 19th and early 20th centuries. This anthology captures a rich array of guidance on navigating the complexities of social life from intimate gatherings to public engagements. By blending practical advice and moral considerations, the collection not only highlights traditional etiquette but also reveals the subtle shifts in societal values. Standout pieces in the collection address topics such as dining decorum and the nuances of hospitality, each offering a unique view into the expectations of a genteel society. Collectively penned by Marion Harland and Virginia Terhune Van de Water, two influential figures of their time, the anthology showcases their profound understanding of social mores. Harland, renowned for her insights into domestic life, and Van de Water, a keen observer of cultural shifts, contribute essays that illuminate the anthology's theme. Their works reflect the Progressive Era's growing awareness of individual roles within the societal framework, capturing the zeitgeist of an age where tradition and modernity frequently intersected. This collaboration enriches our appreciation of the historical trajectory of social propriety. Marion Harland's Complete Etiquette is essential for anyone eager to explore the intricate dance of social interaction through the eyes of period experts. This anthology is not only an educational trove of historical practices but also a mirror reflecting the ongoing dialogue between past customs and present-day etiquette. The reader is invited to immerse in this expansive narrative, discovering the complex interplay of voices that challenge, affirm, and expand the understanding of courtesy and social dynamics, offering a nuanced perspective that continues to resonate today.

The Joys of Being a Woman, and Other Papers Winifred Margaretta Kirkland, 2021-05-18 In The Joys of Being a Woman and Other Papers, Winifred Margaretta Kirkland explores the multifaceted experiences of women in early 20th-century America, intricately weaving together essays that reflect both the personal and the societal. Through a blend of autobiographical reflections and cultural critique, Kirkland employs a clear yet evocative prose style, demonstrating her keen observational skills and a deep understanding of her era's gender norms. The collection captures a transitional moment in American literature where voices advocating for women's rights emerged, highlighting the joys, challenges, and complexities of femininity against a backdrop of burgeoning social change. Winifred Margaretta Kirkland (1865-1956) was a pioneering figure in the women's movement and a committed educator. With extensive experience in academia, she was acutely aware of the constraints placed on women and sought to articulate their joys and struggles through her writing. Her academic background and personal experiences rendered her a powerful advocate for women's opportunities, enabling her to offer insights that resonate with both her contemporaries and modern readers. This collection is essential for anyone interested in feminist literature and the historical context of women's rights in America. Kirkland's eloquent prose not only invites readers into the world of early 20th-century women but also encourages them to reflect on the progress made and the challenges that remain. Discover the authentic voice of a woman who celebrated life's joys while challenging the status quo.

The House That God Built Zebedee King, 2016-02-27 By looking at the nightly news and simply observing for themselves the denigration of homes and communities across our country many would agree that family foundations are cracking and shifting out of place This has resulted in untold devastation within the home and our other social systems therefore many households and lives have simply given way and collapsed under the weight of a host of societal pressures Many believe that a generation of social experimentation along with our cultures fixation at redefining virtually every foundational institution especially the first human institution marriage are responsible for placing the family and society on very shaky ground indeed leaving a very dubious moral and economic legacy for successive generations When cracks begin to appear upon the walls of a house it may indicate a shifting or damaged foundation which may indicate poor foundation work As a result builders typically reexamine the blueprints the master plans to determine the manner and materials with which the house and foundations built in order to pinpoint and repair a weak or damaged foundation It is the authors conviction that in many households within society weak or faulty spiritual and moral foundations have been laid resulting in the cultural cataclysm we witness throughout our land In his book The House that God Built Gods Master Plan for Marriage and His Blueprint for Blessing Book One of his Strong Foundation for Strong Families series the author discusses the need for a RE Vision of marriage and the family but not by redefining replacing or removing these honorable foundations and pillars which have supported societies from the beginning of time Rather by employing the word RE Vision he calls for a refocus a fresh new look at Gods original design for the marriage and family This plan is found in Gods Holy Word specially the first two chapters of the Book of Genesis because this he feels is where marriage family and social systems began Therefore the book is a thorough exposition of the first chapters of Genesis which explore the motivations and the methods through which God Himself built His house the heavens and the earth This study provides keen spiritual and practical insights as to how we can build our homes according to Gods plans so as to receive His best blessings upon our homes and upon our communities
