The Hidden White House Robert Klara, 2013-10-22 The little known story of the White House s gutting and renovation during the Truman presidency Delightful and informative plenty of entertaining drama Publishers Weekly In 1948 President Harry Truman enjoying a bath on the White House s second floor almost plunged through the ceiling of the Blue Room into a tea party for the Daughters of the American Revolution A handpicked team of the country s top architects conducted a secret inspection of the troubled mansion and after discovering it was in imminent danger of collapse insisted that the First Family be evicted immediately What followed would be the most historically significant and politically complex home improvement job in American history

While the Trumans camped across the street at Blair House Congress debated whether to bulldoze the White House completely and the Soviets exploded their first atomic bomb starting the Cold War Robert Klara reveals what has until now been little understood about this episode America's most famous historic home was basically demolished giving birth to today's White House Leaving only the mansion's facade untouched workmen gutted everything within replacing it with a steel frame and a complex labyrinth deep below ground that soon came to include a top secret nuclear fallout shelter The story of Truman's rebuilding of the White House is a snapshot of postwar America and its first Cold War leader undertaking a job that changed the centerpiece of the country's national heritage The job was by no means perfect but it was remarkable and until now all but forgotten Includes photographs Captivating From bathtubs to bomb shelters Klara leaves no piece of crumbling sandstone unturned and is as astute a storyteller as he is a dogged researcher Denise Kiernan New York Times bestselling author of The Last Castle     Bunker Bradley Garrett, 2021-08-03 Thought provoking and eerily prescient bunker offers a whirlwind tour of prepper communities around the world In the United States alone nearly twelve million people are prepared to Survive for thirty days without access to food water or power Millions more have started prepping for the sorts of emergencies blackouts wildfires civil unrest that they hear about in the news every day Bradley Garrett crossed four continents to meet preppers building panic rooms and backyard survival chambers stockpiling supplies stuffing go bags hiding inflatable rafts rigging mobile bugout vehicles and burrowing deep into the earth He's taken the pulse of a new global movement and returned with a brilliant original and deeply disturbing diagnosis of the way we now live Whenever social and political systems fail to produce credible narratives of stability Garrett argues prepping is a rational response And those who live in dread of the next pandemic of nuclear brinkmanship or of an accelerating climate crisis are responding to it predictably reasonably even by hunkering down Book jacket     Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 2011
