

Long, Bony Fingers

Bert's memories from childhood were few. An accident when he was four years old caused the extraterrestrials to temporarily discontinue any intense meetings with him. They did, however, continue to track him. Just prior to the accident at age four, during one meeting with him they had placed the tracking device into his nostril and also placed the monitor into the back of his head.

Eventually we were told by the extraterrestrials that they were Andromes (pronounced an-drom'-ease) from Andromeda. The Andromes try to install the tracking device and monitor as early as possible in the human child. The variables are the physical condition of the child, the Andromes' schedule and the opportunities to access the child.

After Bert's accident at age four, the Andromes watched his medical progress throughout his recovery in the hospital but didn't attempt to have a meeting with him. Doing so could have caused further stress to his already weakened condition.

The Andromes who tracked Bert were not from the same ship that I knew from childhood. They were another group of Andromes stationed in another Androme ship. We now know that there are several of these ships assigned around Earth.

When Bert was about seven years old he was involved in a short meeting with them. During the meeting he recalled watching an Androme female while she was holding another human child, a young girl, above her and talking to her as an adult sometimes does with a child. Bert remembered how the black eyes of this rather short lady fascinated him. The kindness that she showed to both the little girl and Bert was almost like that of a mother. The meeting itself seemed to be simply a sharing of time, perhaps so that they would remain in his memory, perhaps for other reasons of which he was never made aware.
