Secret Manipulations Anne Storch, 2011-08-08 Secret Manipulations is the first comprehensive study of African register variation polylectality and derived languages Focusing on a specific form of language change deliberate manipulations of a language by its speakers it provides a new approach to local language ideologies and concepts of grammar and metalinguistic knowledge Anne Storch concentrates on case studies from Nigeria Uganda Sudan the African diaspora and 16th century Europe In these cases language manipulation varies with social and cultural contexts and is almost always done in secret At the same time this manipulation can be an act of subversion and an expression of power and it is often central to the construction of social norms as it constructs oppositions and gives marginalized people a chance to articulate themselves This volume illustrates how manipulated languages are constructed how they are used and how they wield power

Dalí, Surrealism and Cinema Elliott King, 2007-09-28 One of the most widely recognized and controversial artists of the 20th century Salvador Dal was also an avant garde filmmaker collaborating with such giants as Luis Bu uel Walt Disney and Alfred Hitchcock Influenced by the Marx Brothers Buster Keaton and Stanley Kubrick Dal used the cinema to bring the dream subjects of his paintings to life providing the groundwork for revolutionary forays into television video photography and holography From a moviegoing experience that would incorporate all five senses to the tale of a woman s hapless love affair with a wheelbarrow Dal s hallucinatory vision never fails to leave its indelible mark while his writings continue to be relevant to discourses surrounding film and surrealism

Human Conflict from Neanderthals to the Samburu: Structure and Agency in Webs of Violence William P. Kiblinger, 2020-10-20 This book examines human conflict throughout history the reasons behind the struggles and why it persists The volume delves into the causes of human conflict and what can be done about them Based on detailed descriptions that support insightful interpretations the book explores significant historical events in the course of human history By pursuing a web of violence approach it raises and answers questions about the sources of conflict and how it may or may not be resolved through investigations into human agency and practice It evaluates lessons learned concerning human conflict violence and warfare To illustrate these lessons the book presents a broad geographical and temporal set of data including research on the time of Neanderthals in Europe 20 30 thousand years ago the Late Neolithic civilization on the Mediterranean 6 8 thousand years ago medieval Ireland contemporary history of the Western Dani peoples of West Papua and finally recent issues in Brazil Congo and Kenya Documents authentiques annotes. Les papiers secrets du second empire ,1871 Book News ,1917 Speaking with Vampires Luise White,2023-04-28 During the colonial period Africans told each other terrifying rumors that Africans who worked for white colonists captured unwary residents and took their blood In colonial Tanganyika for example Africans were said to be captured by these agents of colonialism and hung upside down their throats cut so their blood drained into huge buckets In Kampala the police were said to abduct Africans and keep them in pits where their blood was sucked Luise White presents and interprets vampire stories from East and Central Africa as a way of understanding the world as the storytellers did Using gossip and rumor as historical sources in their own right she assesses the place of such evidence oral and written in historical reconstruction White conducted more than 130 interviews for this book and did research in Kenya Uganda and Zambia In addition to presenting powerful vivid stories that Africans told to describe colonial power the book presents an original epistemological inquiry into the nature of historical truth and memory and into their relationship to the writing of history During the colonial period Africans told each other terrifying rumors that Africans who worked for white colonists captured unwary residents and took their blood In colonial Tanganyika for example Africans were said to be captured by these agents of c On the Trail of Capital Flight from Africa Léonce Ndikumana,James K. Boyce,2022 This volumes uses quantitative qualitative and institutional analyses to examine capital flight from Afican countries The collected chapters reveal the networks of actors that facilitate capital flight and the offshore accumulation of private wealth Peace Operations in the Francophone World Bruno Charbonneau,Tony Chafer,2014-05-09 This book critically examines peacebuilding humanitarian intervention and peace operation practices and experiences in francophone spaces Francophone Africa as a specific space is relatively little studied in the peace and security literature despite the fact that almost half of all peacekeepers are deployed or were deployed in this part of Africa during the last decade It is an arena for intervention that deserves more serious attention if only because it provides fertile ground for exploring the key questions raised in the peacekeeping and peacebuilding literature For instance in 2002 a French operation Licorne was launched and in 2003 a UN force was deployed in C te d Ivoire alongside the French force there Filling a gap in the current literature Peace Operations in the Francophone World critically examines peacekeeping and peacebuilding practices in the francophone world including but not limited to conflict prevention and resolution security sector reform SSR francophone politics and North South relations The book explores whether peace and security operations in francophone spaces have exceptional characteristics when compared with those carried out in other parts of the world and assesses whether an analysis of these operations in the francophone world can make a specific and original contribution to wider

International Intervention Mandy Turner, Florian P. Kühn, 2015-09-16 This book critically explores the practices of peacebuilding and the politics of the communities experiencing intervention The contributions to this volume have a dual focus First they analyse the practices of western intervention and peacebuilding and the prejudices and politics that drive them Second they explore how communities experience and deal with this intervention as well as an understanding of how their political and economic priorities can often diverge markedly from those of the intervener This is achieved through theoretical and thematic chapters and an extensive number of in depth empirical case studies Utilising a variety of conceptual frameworks and disciplines the book seeks to understand why something so normatively desirable the pursuit of and building of peace has turned out so badly From Cambodia to Afghanistan Iraq to Mali interventions in the pursuit of peace have not achieved the results desired by the interveners But rather they have created further instability and violence The contributors to this book explore why This book will be of much interest to students academics and practitioners of peacebuilding peacekeeping international intervention statebuilding security studies and IR in general Theories of
