

FIVE SECRETS OF Successful Investors

The investors that profit year after year aren't the smartest. They're not the most experienced. And luck has nothing to do with it.

They do, however, share a few common traits that you see in the best investors throughout history. Start adopting these traits today and watch your profits improve!

1 THEY TRADE WITH THE TREND, NOT AGAINST IT.

There is one golden rule to follow regardless of your trading style: Up or down, the market trend is your friend. 3 out of 4 stocks follow the overall trend of the market. No matter how great a stock's fundamentals, if the market is in a downtrend, buying is risky. Instead, work on building a watchlist of quality stocks while you wait for an uptrend.

2 THEY TIME THEIR TRADING.

When the market is in an uptrend, it is still important to buy a stock when it has the most potential to go higher—and a stock chart can help you do that. When institutions—big mutual funds and pension funds—accumulate a stock, it shows up on a stock's chart. That's one sign that it's a good time to buy.

3 THEY USE RULES.

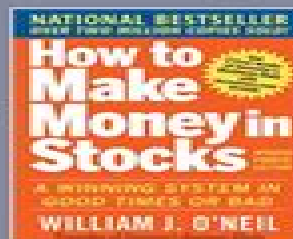

Use a set of clear-cut, actionable "if-then" rules to manage your portfolio and how you trade individual stocks.

Follow the rules instead of relying on tips, hunches or emotions. It'll give you a consistent approach to making profits and taking control of your portfolio. Most importantly, it will install DISCIPLINE.

"Follow the rules instead of relying on tips, hunches or emotions."

4 THEY KNOW THEIR INVESTING STYLE.

But where do you find good rules? If you are a growth investor, you'll benefit by following the detailed set of rules explained in How to Make Money in Stocks by William J. O'Neil. Other well-known books on growth stock investing include One Up on Wall Street by Peter Lynch and Think and Grow Rich by Napoleon Hill. Spend time researching successful investors who apply methods that fit your investing style and align with your goals.

5 THEY KEEP FOUR EMOTIONS IN CHECK.

These four emotions are responsible for bubbles, crashes and basically everything that investors aim to avoid.

FEAR and GREED work together to drive our worst buy and sell decisions.

To make matters worse, PRIDE steps in and leads us to rationalize losses.

And HOPE can make us hold on to stocks that demolish profits—if not entire portfolios.
