Over 50 and Motivated Brian E. Howard, 2017-04-01 Book Three in Motivated Series by Brian E Howard It happened It may have been a surprise or it could have been anticipated but at this point what does it matter You lost your job Or the frustrations at your current job have hit the boiling point You just can't take it anymore In either case change is inevitable But you're over the age of 50 and intellectually or intuitively you know your age could be a factor in your job search and you are right There are age related biases that exist in the job market that will work against you According to government statistics job seekers over 50 encounter more difficulty in getting new jobs and suffer notably longer unemployment than their younger counterparts But these statistics do not have to apply to you First immediately stop with the worry and negative thinking You're in a better position than you think There are employers out there that not only will hire you they are looking for you The key is to find them sell them on you and get them to hire you It's not as hard as you may think In the Over 50 and Motivated Brian E Howard will teach you a systematic approach for conducting a real world job search based on years of frontline recruiting experience helping thousands of tenured job seekers just like you He will teach you how to effectively conduct a job search in today's job market and techniques to successfully combat age biases He will show you how to get job offers and your next fulfilling career position Help is at your fingertips Speechwriting in Perspective Thomas H. Neale, Jean M. Bowers, 2003 Writing for the spoken word is a special discipline it requires that speechwriters products be written primarily although not exclusively to be heard not read Speeches are better cast in simple direct and often short sentences that can be easily understood by listeners Rhetorical devices such as repetition variation cadence and balance are available to and should be used by the speechwriter It is important for speechwriters to analyse audiences according to factors such as age gender culture profession and income level size of audience political affiliation if any and on the occasion for or purpose of the speech Most effective speeches do not exceed 20 minutes in length After researching a topic speechwriters must prepare an outline from which the speech will be developed They should strive to maintain a clear theme throughout the speech Most speeches will have a three part structure consisting of an introduction a body and a conclusion The accepted style of contemporary American public address is natural direct low key casual and conversational This puts the listeners at ease and promotes a sense of community between the audience and speaker Punctuation should reflect the sound structure of the speech reinforcing the rhythm and pace of actual speech Clarity of expression is as important a consideration in speech grammar as rigid adherence to the rules for written law This book presents the essentials of speechwriting Preface Speechwriting in Perspective A Brief Guide to Effective and Persuasive Communication Thomas H Neale Public Speaking and Speechwriting Selected References Jean M Bowers Index
