When Lit's 1997 album, My Own Worst Enemy, was released, it was a surprise to many because the band, which had been playing since 1988, had never released a full-length album. The album was a success, and the band's popularity grew. This album, A Place In The Sun, is a follow-up to their previous work and features a mix of new and old songs. The album is produced by Peter Dinklage and Lit, and mixed by David Navaro. It is a testament to the band's enduring talent and their ability to evolve their sound over time.
