Looking White People In The Eye Gender Race And Culture In Courtrooms And Classrooms:

Looking White People in the Eye Sherene Razack,1998-01-01 Examining the classroom discussion of equity issues and legal cases involving immigration and sexual violence Razack addresses how non white women are viewed and how they must respond in classrooms and courtrooms Gender, Development, and Diversity Caroline Sweetman,2004 This collection focuses on implications for development goals of poverty alleviation and human rights In particular critiques from Southern women challenge development organisations for their inadequate and inappropriate policy and practice with gender inequality as a key concern Colonial Discourse and Gender in U.S. Criminal Courts Caroline Braunmühl,2012 The occurrence in some criminal cases of cultural defenses on behalf of minority defendants has stirred much debate This book is the first to illuminate how cultural evidence i e evidence regarding ethnicity is actually negotiated by attorneys expert lay witnesses and defendants in criminal trials Caroline Braunmühl demonstrates that this has occurred overwhelmingly in ways shaped by colonialist and patriarchal discourses common in the Western world She argues that the controversy regarding the legitimacy of a cultural defense has tended to obscure this fact and has been biased against minorities as well as all women from its inception in the very terms in which the question for debate has been framed This study also breaks new ground by analyzing the strategies and the failures in which colonialist and patriarchal constructions of cultural evidence are resisted or more commonly colluded in by opposing attorneys witnesses and defendants themselves The constructions at hand emerge as contradictory and unstable belying the notion that cultural evidence is a matter of objective information about another culture rather than as Braunmühl argues of discourses that are inevitably normatively charged Colonial Discourse and Gender in US Criminal Courts moves the debate about cultural defenses onto an entirely new plane one based upon the understanding that only in depth empirical analyses informed by critical rigorous theoretical reflection can do justice to the irreducibly political character of any discussion of cultural evidence and of its presentation in court Coloniality and Racial (In)Justice in the University Sunera Thobani,2021-11-01 Coloniality and Racial In Justice in the University examines the disruption and remaking of the university at a moment in history when white supremacist politics have erupted across North America as have anti racist and anti colonial movements Situating the university at the heart of these momentous developments this collection debunks the popular claim that the university is well on its way to overcoming its histories of racial exclusion Written by faculty and students located at various levels within the institutional hierarchy this book demonstrates how the shadows of settler colonialism and racial division are reiterated in newer neoliberal practices Drawing on critical race and Indigenous theory the chapters challenge Eurocentric knowledge institutional whiteness and structural discrimination that are the bedrock of the institution The authors also analyse their own experiences to show how Indigenous dispossession racial violence administrative prejudice and imperialist militarization shape classroom interactions within the university Reclaiming the Rural Kim Donehower,Charlotte Hogg,Eileen E Schell,2012 Reclaiming the Rural moves beyond typical arguments for the preservation abandonment or modernization of rural communities analyzing how communities in the United States Canada and Mexico sustain themselves economically environmentally intellectually and politically through literate action Social Justice Education in Canada Ali A. Abdi,2023-01-03 This engaging edited collection highlights key discussions around educational inequity and related structures and sub structures Featuring a diverse array of contributors Social Justice Education in Canada balances important knowledge learning practices and possibilities emanating from and embedded in anti racist and anti oppressive education with instructive grounding examples The text confronts the idea of social justice as an abstract concept discussing suggestions for rethinking educational systems and making changes that will benefit the learning lives of all students With the aim to critically expand the emerging and increasingly active debates in this important area of educational and social development this volume strives to collectively deepen our understanding and appreciation for critical social justice education Organized into 14 chapters and featuring an epilogue written by Dr Edward Shizha the book critically deals with contemporary topical issues in education including readings on cultural racial religious Indigenous language socio economic citizenship disability ableism and immigrant refugee status realities and their interwoven learning and teaching intersections This text is an essential resource for undergraduate and graduate students of education across Canada FEATURES Designed to spark discussions and debates each chapter closes with discussion questions to encourage critical reflection Contributors move beyond the theoretical with actionable practical applications for critical social justice that can be utilized by educators and teacher educators Intersecting topical diversity is at the forefront of this volume which features contributors from different backgrounds and communities critically engaging with issues pertinent to social justice and equity in education An Educational Psychology Textbook Equity,2014-10-10 The first half of the book focuses on broader questions and principles taken from psychology per se and the second half focuses on somewhat more practical issues of teaching All parts of the book draw on research theory and practical wisdom wherever appropriate Chapter 2 is about learning theory and Chapter 3 is about development Chapter 4 is about several forms of student diversity and Chapter 5 is about students with disabilities Chapter 6 is about motivation Following these somewhat more basic psychological chapters we turn to several lasting challenges of classroom life challenges that seem to be an intrinsic part of the job Chapter 7 offers ideas about classroom management Chapter 8 ideas about communicating with students Chapter 9 about ways to assist students complex forms of thinking and Chapter 10 about planning instruction systematically The book closes with two chapters about assessment of learning

Whiteness and Postcolonialism in the Nordic Region Kristín Loftsdóttir,Lars Jensen,2016-02-11 This book examines the influence of imperialism and colonialism on the formation of national identities in the Nordic countries exploring the manner in which contemporary discourses in Nordic society are rendered meaningful or obscured by references to past events and tropes related to the practices and ideologies of colonialism Against the background of Nordic exceptionalism it explores the manner in which the interwoven racial gendered and nationalistic ideologies associated with the colonial project form part of contemporary Nordic identities An important challenge to national identities that can become increasingly inward looking Whiteness and Postcolonialism in the Nordic Region sheds light on the ways in which certain notions and structural inequalities understood as residue from the colonial period become recreated or projected onto different groups Presenting a variety of case studies drawn from Sweden Finland Norway Greenland Denmark and Iceland this book will be of interest to scholars across the social sciences and humanities conducting research in the fields of race and ethnicity identity and belonging media representations of the other and colonialism and postcolonialism

The Right to Say No Melanie Randall, Jennifer Koshan, Patricia Nyaundi, 2017-10-19 Marital rape stands at the intersection of the socio legal issues arising from both domestic violence and sexual assault For centuries women who suffered sexual assault perpetrated by their spouses had no legal recourse A man s conjugal rights included his right to have sexual intercourse with his wife regardless of whether she consented This right has been recognised in law and still is in some jurisdictions today This book emerges from the research undertaken by an innovative multi country academic collaborative project dedicated to comparatively analysing the legal treatment of sexual assault in intimate relationships with a view to challenging the legal impunity for and inadequate legal responses to this form of gendered violence

At the Limits of Justice Suvendrini Perera, Sherene Razack, 2014-09-24 The fear and violence that followed the events of September 11 2001 touched lives all around the world even in places that few would immediately associate with the global war on terror In At the Limits of Justice twenty nine contributors from six countries explore the proximity of terror in their own lives and in places ranging from Canada and the United States to Jamaica Palestine Israel Australia Guyana Chile Pakistan and across the African continent In this collection female scholars of colour including leading theorists on issues of indigeneity race and feminism examine the political social and personal repercussions of the war on terror through contributions that range from testimony and poetry to scholarly analysis Inspired by both the personal and the global impact of this violence within the war on terror they expose the way in which the war on terror is presented as a distant and foreign issue at the same time that it is deeply present in the lives of women and others all around the world An impassioned but rigorous examination of issues of race and gender in contemporary politics At the Limits of Justice is also a call to create moral communities which will find terror and violence unacceptable
