Sacred Gardens and Landscapes Michel Conan, 2007 Studies of rituals in sacred gardens and landscapes offer tantalizing insights into the significance of gardens and landscapes in the societies of India ancient Greece Pre-Columbian Mexico medieval Japan post-Renaissance Europe and America Sacred gardens and landscapes engaged their visitors into three specific modes of agency as anterooms spurring encounters with the netherworld as journeys through mystical lands and as a means of establishing a sense of locality metaphorically rooting the dweller's own identity in a well-defined part of the material world Each section of this book is devoted to one of these forms of agency Together the essays reveal a profound cultural significance of gardens previously overlooked by studies of garden styles

Reading Malaysian Literature in English Mohammad A. Quayum, 2021-11-18 This book brings together fourteen articles by prominent critics of Malaysian Anglophone literature from five different countries Australia Italy Malaysia Singapore and the US It investigates the thematic and stylistic trends in the literary products of selected writers of the tradition in the genres of drama fiction and poetry from its beginnings to the present focusing mainly on the postcolonial themes of ethnicity gender diaspora and nationalism which are central to the creativity and imagination of these writers The book explores the works of not just the established writers of the tradition but also those who have received little critical attention to date but who are equally gifted such as Adibah Amin Edward Dorall Rehaman Rashid and Huzir Suleiman The chapters collectively address the challenges and achievements of writers in the English language in a country where English is widely used in daily life and yet marginalised in the creative domain to elevate the status of writings in the national language i.e. Bahasa Malaysia The book will demonstrate that in spite of such recurrent neglect of the medium Malaysia has produced a number of outstanding writers in the language who are comparable in creativity and craftsmanship to writers of
