Thomas Storrow Brown,2015-07-12 Excerpt from Brief Sketch of the Life and Times of the Late Hon Louis Joseph Papineau While a law student he was elected member of the Provincial Parliament by the county of Kent now Chambly and took his seat in 1810 entering at once the great political arena prominent in debates resolutions and every bold movement to stand shoulder to shoulder wiith its stoutest gladiators then battling with the Governor Sir James Craig in a contest so warm that members were consigned by him to prison while the office of their newspaper organ was destroyed by his soldiery Such was our Government then In 1815 he was elected for the West Ward of Montreal and continued by re elections to represent that constituency till 1837 A conciliatory policy deemed necessary by Sir George Prevost to secure the fealty of the French Canadians during the war of 1812 and continued by his immediate successors allayed political asperities that had nearly driven these Canadians to be the rebellious spirits that Sir James Craig supposed them and they proved sturdy defenders of the British flag Among those enrolled was Mr Papineau as a captain of militia It is related of him that when conducting a portion of Hull s army prisoners from Lachine a regimental band of the regulars struck up Yankee Doodle to shame the unfortunates on which Captain Papineau wheeled his company out of line declaring he would not countenance such insult When reported instead of reprimanding the captain for insubordination the Governor commended him for his humane consideration Mr Panet who for many years had presided as Speaker of the Assembly being called to the Legislative Council all eyes were turned to the young Papineau as his successor and the House in January 1815 only echoed the public voice by electing him Young in years in his twenty ninth with only four years parliamentary experience in a quiet time he was so matured by study and steady action for the post of first Commoner the highest position in the gift of his countrymen that he was preferred above all his veteran seniors and he continued to hold that position till the end of the last Parliament of Lower Canada in 1837 by continued re elections sometimes unanimous and always nearly so About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
