The Chronology of American Literature Daniel S. Burt, 2004 If you are looking to brush up on your literary knowledge check a favorite author's work or see a year's bestsellers at a glance The Chronology of American Literature is the perfect resource At once an authoritative reference and an ideal browser's guide this book outlines the indispensable information in America's rich literary past from major publications to lesser known gems while also identifying larger trends along the literary timeline Who wrote the first published book in America When did Edgar Allan Poe achieve notoriety as a mystery writer What was Hemingway's breakout title With more than 8 000 works by 5 000 authors The Chronology makes it easy to find answers to these questions and more Authors and their works are grouped within each year by category fiction and nonfiction poems drama literary criticism and publishing events Short concise entries describe an author's major works for a particular year while placing them within the larger context of that writer's career The result is a fascinating glimpse into the evolution of some of America's most prominent writers Perhaps most important The Chronology offers an invaluable line through our literary past tying literature to the American experience war and peace boom and bust and reaction to social change You'll find everything here from Benjamin Franklin's Experiments and Observations on Electricity to Davy Crockett's first memoir from Thoreau's Civil Disobedience to Edith Wharton's Ethan Frome from meditations by James Weldon Johnson and James Agee to poetry by Elizabeth Bishop Also included here are seminal works by authors such as Rachel Carson Toni Morrison John Updike and Arthur Schlesinger Jr Lavishly illustrated and rounded out with handy bestseller lists throughout the twentieth century lists of literary awards and prizes and authors birth and death dates The Chronology of American Literature belongs on the shelf of every bibliophile and literary enthusiast It is the essential link to our literary past and present

The New Yorker, 2002 The World of William Saroyan Nona Balakian, 1998 In this work the author tells how Saroyan transformed the short story by personalizing it and by loosening the structure of the novella form He went on to bring new life to the theater and to the telling of autobiography Better than that of any recent drama critic Balakian's chapters on the theater place Saroyan's plays in the larger framework of the American theater of his time and achieve the creation of a total picture of the state of the American theater of the 1930s

Brian Howard Marie-J Lancaster, 2005 Brian Howard was expected to become one of the leading authors of his generation but instead he became a secondary character in the books of others Marie Jaqueline Lancaster's biography makes him at last the protagonist of his own highly entertaining story Packed with dishy reminiscences and extracts from Howard's letters and writings this book details the outrageous parties stunts and confrontations that were second nature to this ne'er-do-well Chronicling 30 years of waste and dereliction Lancaster captures a prototypical gay literary life perfect for anyone curious about gay history the 1920s modernism or the mystery of failed artistic promise From austere libraries in Oxford to seedy hotels in Amsterdam to darkened cinemas in Tangiers Howard lived and died precociously and most importantly as he pleased Brian Howard Portrait of a Failure is the

Of Peninsulas and Archipelagos Phrae Chittiphalangsri, Vicente L. Rafael, 2023-07-18 Comprising 11 countries and hundreds of languages from one of the most culturally diverse regions in the world the chapters in this collection explore a wide range of translation issues The subject of this volume is set in the contrasted landscapes of mainland peninsulas and maritime archipelagos in Southeast Asia which whilst remaining a largely minor area in Asian studies harbors a wealth of textual heritage that opens to inquiries and new readings From the post-Angkor Cambodia the post-colonial Vientiane to the ultra-modern Singapore metropolis translation figures problematically in the modernization of indigenous literatures criss-crossing chronologically and spatially through different literary landscapes The peninsular geo-body gives rise to the politics of singularity as seen in the case of the predominant monolingual culture in Thailand whereas the archipelagic geography such as the thousand islands of Indonesia allows for peculiar types of communication Translation can also be metaphorized poetically to configure the transference in different scenarios such as the cases of self-translation in Philippine protest poetry and untranslatability in Vietnamese diasporic writings The collection also includes intra-regional comparative views on historical and religious terms This book will appeal to scholars and postgraduate students of translation studies
