Hostak,2023-08-15 At age three author Ruth Hostak longed for the love of her mother who abandoned her and her two older sisters to an orphanage. Seven years later they were taken back to her home with two half sisters and her mother's then boyfriend. At age sixteen Ruth quit school was unhappy at home and yearned for a stable environment. She moved out and chose to live with other family members returning to school and earning a high school diploma. Ten years later she attended the college of her dreams and graduated with honors. In Love and Forgiveness Ruth narrates her story a story illustrating dedication and perseverance and one that showed her there were no limits to what she could accomplish. As she was unsuccessful with two marriages she continued to immerse herself in a world of personal and professional growth. She learned to love unconditionally to forgive others and to fully accept herself. In this memoir Ruth shares how she learned the importance of a life devoted to something bigger than herself. During these transformational experiences she found passion and fulfillment in helping others and gratitude became her daily prayer. In the end she received the best gift she could have asked for. The last words her mother spoke to her were Ruthie I love you Love the Home You Have Melissa

Love Florence Lamm Coustier,2002 Florence Coustier grew up with an emotionally needy mother four teasing brothers and an alcoholic father who sexually abused her. Her mother believed Florence was retarded after delivering her two months premature weighing less than three pounds. Florence grew up believing that she was naturally stupid and received little attention or help from the educational system. Florence left home and moved to California in her early thirties. To stop her mother's constant pleas to return home Florence married Henry Coustier. To Florence's disappointment Henry had no idea as to any of the needs his wife might have. In her book Florence seeks answers to her never ending fear of any man who showed an interest in her and why she so longed to be loved. It wasn't until she was in her fifties that Florence finally discovered to her great surprise her resilient independent and intelligent self Fated To Love Qaisra Shahraz,Qaisra,2009 Should She
