Love In The Corral Conjugal Spirituality And Anti Theatrical Polemic In Early Modern Spain:

Love in the "corral" Thomas Austin O'Connor, 2000 Spanish drama provoked a serious and ongoing debate on the moral character and cultural value of such a popular form of entertainment among elites of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries At the heart of the polemic over theatrical licitness are repeated references to Christian theological tradition which systematically exalted virginity and celibacy while attempting to justify matrimony and conjugal love However the presence of women on stage and in the audience served as a catalyst for a larger debate on the role women were to play in public and private discourse This study reviews in detail the discursive history of the licitness issue and examines how specific dramatic texts both reflect and react to the many concerns raised Rhetoric and Reality in Early Modern Spain Richard Pym, 2006 Early modern Spain's insistent rhetorics of nation and kingship of a monolithic body of shared values and beliefs especially in respect of racial and gender stereotypes and of a centralized and ostensibly absolutist legislative apparatus did not map unproblematically onto the complex topography of everyday life This volume explores the extent to which these rhetorics and the ideology they helped to construct or underpin reflected or failed to reflect the realities of social economic and cultural life It sets against their typically exorbitant claims the lived messy and sometimes contradictory experience of Spaniards across a broad social spectrum both at the centre and at the margins not just of peninsular society but of the Hispanic world overseas Confronting ideology were questions of economic pragmatism executive feasibility jurisdictional competence and above all the social and political complexity of the Spain of the period Contributors TREVOR J DADSON MARGARET RICH GREER BARRY IFE ALISTAIR MALCOLM MELVEENA MCKENDRICK RICHARD J PYM HELEN RAWLINGS ALEXANDER SAMSON JULES WHICKER RICHARD J PYM is Senior Lecturer in Hispanic Studies at Royal Holloway University of London A Companion to Early Modern Hispanic Theater Hilaire Kallendorf, 2014-02-20 A panoramic state of the art handbook destined to chart a course for future work in the field of early modern Hispanic theater studies It begins in the closet with an essay on Celestina as closet drama and moves out into the court to explore intersections with courtly love An essay on the comedia and the classics demonstrates this genre's firm grounding in the classical tradition despite Lope de Vega's famous protestations to the contrary Distinct but related genres such as the autos sacramentales and the entremeses also make an appearance The traditional themes of honor and wife murder share the stage with less familiar topics like the incorporation of animals into performance This volume covers the urban space of the city in Spain and Portugal as well as uncharted territories in the New World and Japan Essays on emblems and the picaresque round out this anthology along with studies of theatrical representations of early modern innovations in science and technology The book concludes with two different psychoanalytical approaches focused on melancholy and Lacanian tragedy respectively This collection incorporates the work of younger scholars along with established names in the field to synthesize the most exciting recent work on the comedia and related forms of early modern Hispanic theatrical production Contributors include Ignacio Arellano Frederick de Armas
