A close-up photograph of a woman's face, focusing on her nose and lips. She has fair skin and is wearing bright red lipstick. A silver pen is touching her lower lip. The word 'LOVE' is written in large, white, sans-serif capital letters across the top of her face, and the word 'NOT' is written in the same style across the bottom. The background is dark and out of focus.

The Major Plays Anton Chekhov, 2006-12-05 Anton Chekhov The Major Plays Ivanov The Sea Gull Uncle Vanya The Three Sisters The Cherry Orchard Let the things that happen onstage be just as complex and yet just as simple as they are in life Chekhov once declared For instance people are having a meal just having a meal but at the same time their happiness is being created or their lives are being smashed up So it is that his plays express life through subtle construction everyday dialogue and an electrically charged atmosphere in which even the most casual words and actions assume great importance in his characters' lives This principle sets his plays apart from the rest steering them clear of melodrama and draws the audience into the lives of Chekhov's colorful characters Because of his adherence to realism the playwright has been called an incomparable artist of life What makes his work great is that it can be felt and understood not only by any Russian but by anybody in the world Leo Tolstoy With a Foreword by Robert Brustein and an Afterword by Rosamund Bartlett
