left to rot in the desert Statues stand as markers of collective memory connecting us to a shared sense of belonging When societies fracture into warring tribes we convince ourselves that the past is irredeemably evil So we tear down our statues But what begins with the destruction of statues ends with the killing of people This remarkable book is a compelling history of love and hate spanning every continent religion and era told through the destruction of 21 statues Peter Hughes original approach blending philosophy psychology and history explores how these symbols of our identity give us more than an understanding of our past In the wars that rage around them they may also hold the key to our future The 21 statues are Hatshepsut Ancient Egypt Nero Suffolk UK Athena Syria Buddhas of Bamiyan Afghanistan Hecate Constantinople Our Lady of Caversham near Reading UK Huitzilopochtli Mexico Confucius China Louis XV France Mendelssohn Germany The Confederate Monument US Sir John A Macdonald Canada Christopher Columbus Venezuela Edward Colston Bristol UK Cecil Rhodes South Africa George Washington US Stalin Hungary Yagan Australia Saddam Hussein Iraq B R Ambedkar India and Frederick Douglass US A History of Love and Hate in 21 Statues is a profound and necessary meditation on identity which resonates powerfully today as statues tumble around the world The Prophetic Call to Love and Justice Arnold H. De Graaff, 2025-06-20 Scripture s compelling message of love and justice is powerfully relevant for today The implications of the Amsterdam way of interpreting Scripture are evident throughout the book It is both a personal and timely way of speaking to our disintegrating society The Prophetic Call to Love and Justice provides a meaningful and radical yet simple way of re-connecting with the Bible As one of the founders of the Amsterdam way of interpretation Karel Deurloo stated The opportunity to learn anew and understand the language of the Bible has been taken away Often the focus is on the assumed origin and history of a text a historical literary approach or a fundamentalist view creating a fragmented moralistic and doctrinaire emphasis which has alienated many from churches Instead Deurloo and others focused on the prophetic meaning that speaks to all of us as the living word of God today This alternative is rooted in the Hebrew Scriptures Its abiding prophetic message of love and justice is reiterated in the Gospels and apostolic letters Hence the choice of subtitle Rediscovering the Old Testament It is a joyful journey of discovery finding new meaning in the Bible for our lives

Rethinking Race in Modern Argentina Paulina Alberto, Eduardo Elena, 2016-03-21 This book reconsiders the relationship between race and nation in Argentina during the twentieth and twenty first centuries and places Argentina firmly in dialog with the literature on race and nation in Latin America from where it has long been excluded or marginalized for being a white European exception in a mixed race region The contributors based both in North America and Argentina hail from the fields of history anthropology and literary and cultural studies Their essays collectively destabilize widespread certainties about Argentina showing that whiteness in that country has more in common with practices and ideologies of Mestizaje and racial democracy elsewhere in the region than has typically been acknowledged The essays also situate Argentina within the well established literature on race nation and whiteness in world regions beyond Latin America particularly other European settler societies The collection thus contributes to rethinking race for other global contexts as well

Getting to Know Waiwai Alan Campbell, 2002-09-11 Living with the Wayapi and their charismatic leader Waiwai is a serious adventure It is demanding and can turn dangerous in a moment The environment is a difficult one but beautiful and baffling in its richness And the job of learning about the people is like a journey without end Alan Campbell tells the story of these people and of the time he spent with them in an imaginative beautifully written account which looks back from a century into the future to relate a way of life that is being destroyed In doing so he addresses important and complex issues in current anthropological theory in a way which makes them accessible without sacrificing any of their subtlety
