Fatherhood in the Borderlands Domino Renee Perez, 2022-12-06 2023 Finalist Best Academic Themed Book College Level English International Latino Book Awards A contemplative exploration of cultural representations of Mexican American fathers in contemporary media As a young girl growing up in Houston Texas in the 1980s Domino Perez spent her free time either devouring books or watching films and thinking always thinking about the media she consumed The meaningful connections between these media and how we learn form the basis of Perez's slow research approach to race class and gender in the borderlands Part cultural history part literary criticism part memoir Fatherhood in the Borderlands takes an incisive look at the value of creative inquiry while it examines the nuanced portrayal of Mexican American fathers in literature and film Perez reveals a shifting tension in the literal and figurative borderlands of popular narratives and shows how form genre and subject work to determine the roles Mexican American fathers are allowed to occupy She also calls our attention to the cultural landscape that has allowed such a racialized representation of Mexican American fathers to continue unopposed for so many years Fatherhood in the Borderlands brings readers right to the intersection of the white cultural mainstream in the United States and Mexican American cultural productions carefully considering the legibility and illegibility of Brown fathers in contemporary media

Documents of the Chicano Movement Roger Bruns, 2018-01-05 This book provides original source documents from firsthand accounts to media responses to legislation regarding the Chicano movement of the 1960s through 1970s Readers will understand the key events individuals and developments of La Causa Chicanos uniting to free themselves from exploitation The 1960s was a time of the burgeoning black Civil Rights movement when society and politics were divided over the war in Vietnam and public violence became normal in the form of police response to protests and assassinations of leaders It was also a time that witnessed the beginning of a movement to secure justice and rights on behalf of Mexican

Americans and other Latinos It was the Chicano movement Documents of the Chicano Movement Eyewitness to History presents some 50 primary historical documents each prefaced by a succinct introductory essay Because the Chicano movement comprised disparate groups and leaders from across the nation the book will be divided into several sections that acknowledge these separate but connected efforts each headed by its own introduction Through its detailed coverage of approximately two decades the book highlights key topics that include the fight of farm workers to establish a union the so called Land Grant Struggle to reclaim areas of the Southwest ceded in the Treaty of Guadalupe Hildago the establishment in New Mexico of the Crusade for Justice an organization that promoted a nationalistic agenda the growth of the urban Chicano student movement and its drive for educational reform the Chicano Antiwar Moratorium protests and the eventual rise of Chicano political power with the birth of the La Raza Unida Party The breadth of primary documents include materials from archives manuscript repositories newspapers government documents public speeches and addresses first person accounts from individuals who participated directly in the Chicano movement legal decisions pamphlets and essays The documents not only tell a vivid engaging story but also provide students and researchers with valuable resources for use in other works

Stages of Life Alberto Sandoval-Sánchez, Nancy Saporta Sternbach, 2023-01-10 Latina theater and solo performance emerged in the 1990s as vibrant energetic new genres found on stages from New York to Los Angeles Many women now work in all aspects of Latina theater often as playwrights or solo performers with practitioners ranging from teenagers to grandmothers Alberto Sandoval S nchez and Nancy Saporta Sternbach have previously published a groundbreaking anthology of Latina theater Puro Teatro They now offer a critical analysis of theatrical works presenting a theoretical perspective from which to examine understand and contextualize Latina theater as a genre in its own right This is the first in depth study of the entire corpus of Latina theater based on close readings of works both published and in manuscript It considers a large body of productions and performances including works by such internationally known authors as Dolores Prida Cherr e Moraga and Janis Astor del Valle Applying feminist and postcolonial theory as well as theories of transculturation Sandoval S nchez and Sternbach show how despite cultural differences among Latinas their works share a common poetics by building upon the politics of representation identity and location In addition to covering theater this study also shows that solo performance has its own history properties structure and poetics It examines performances of Carmelita Tropicana Monica Palacios and Marga Gomez artists whose hybrid identities as Latina lesbians constitute living examples of transculturation in the making to show how solo performance has roots in and digresses from more traditional modes of theater With their Latina heritage as a unifying link these women reflect common traits patterns dramatic structures and properties that overcome regional differences Stages of Life reads these eclectic cultural productions as a unified body of work that contributes to the formation of Latina identity in America today

Performing Farmscapes Susan C. Haedicke, 2021-12-06 This book argues that the performance based work in the featured case studies contributes to the construction of food democracy where the public takes back decision making in shaping the food system It explores how contemporary artists translate scientific research about local and global agricultural issues into life stories that inform and engage their audiences and in so doing transform passive food consumers into proactive food citizens The pairing of performing and farmscapes complex webs of farmlands and storylines enables artists to use embodied practices to encourage audiences to imagine a just and sustainable agri food system and to collaborate on making it a reality The book arranges the case studies on a trajectory that moves from projects that foreground knowledge acquisition to ones that emphasize social engagement by creating conversations and coalitions between farming and nonfarming communities to a final one that pairs protest art and political activism to achieve legally binding changes in the agricultural landscape Actors and Activists
