At the Waterbury Convention, A.E. Williams, Executive, Macy's, discussed the continued hope for a new edition of The Baby's Garden. "We are still looking for a publisher," he said. "We are looking for a publisher who is willing to take on a project that is not profitable in the short run but will be profitable in the long run." Williams said that the company is not in a hurry to publish the book. "We are looking for a publisher who is willing to take on a project that is not profitable in the short run but will be profitable in the long run."
