General Catalogue of Books Offered to the Public at the Affixed Prices by Bernard Quaritch ... ,1887 A Chronology of Translation in China and the West Sin-wai Chan,2009 This book is a study of the major events and publications in the world of translation in China and the West from its beginning in the legendary period to 2004 with special references to works published in Chinese and English It covers a total of 72 countries places and 1 000 works All the events and activities in the field have been grouped into 22 areas or categories for easy referencing This book is a valuable reference tool for all scholars working in the field of translation The Boundaries of Meaning and the Formation of Law Sharron Gu,2006-04-18 Different legal systems share some basic developmental tendencies that are rooted in the historical evolution of language and culture In this comparative history of English common law Islamic law and Chinese imperialist law Sharron Gu describes the formation of three diverse legal systems in terms of their unique linguistic environments She argues that the characteristics of each language define the nature of the common statute administrative and religious laws associated with it and set the boundaries for its legal imagination Ezra Pound and Confucianism Feng Lan,2011-11-01 In Ezra Pound and Confucianism Feng Lan offers the first study of Ezra Pound s project of establishing a Confucian humanism as an alternative to Western modernism While Pound scholars are familiar with the American poet s commitment to Confucianism the question of how Confucianism systematically shaped Pound s thoughts has not been convincingly answered Lan shows that when confronted with what appeared to him a dehumanising modern world Pound discovered in Confucianism possible solutions to issues that he encountered in language politics and religion which Western intellectual tradition as a whole had failed to provide By integrating Confucian doctrines with received ideas from Western tradition Pound developed a humanist discourse and brought it to bear on the historical conditions of his time The result was a discourse characterized primarily by the following beliefs the human mind as the source of creation the individual s moral will as the basis of truth and social order the human partnership with the world of nature the self perfectibility of human beings and their innate capability for internal transcendence in spiritual life Lan examines the strategies with which Pound reconstructed Confucianism into a systematic modern discourse focusing on his controversial translation of Confucian scriptures his rethinking of the nature of language and poetry his political theory of the individual and the state and his formulation of an unorthodox spirituality Situating Pound s works in diverse cultural historical and intellectual contexts Ezra Pound and Confucianism demonstrates that despite its frequent divergence from the Confucian canon Pound s Confucian humanism gives his poetry an ideological coherence enriches the Western humanist tradition and asserts its relevance to the historical and cross cultural development of Confucianism in modern times The Acquisition of Chinese Pinyin and Hanzi Haiwei Zhang,2025-07-11 The Acquisition of Chinese Pinyin and Hanzi focuses on the learning of Pinyin and Hanzi among learners of Chinese as a second language CSL from Egypt and the United Kingdom The objectives of this book are to explore the roles of L1 writing system background individual differences and meta linguistic awareness in the acquisition of Pinyin and Hanzi This book presents a unique comparison of the performance in learning Chinese between two groups of CSL learners using L1 scripts with different writing directions namely the right to left Arabic and the left to right English It provides a comprehensive analysis of the orthographic and phonological features of Arabic Chinese and English illustrating how L1 background and individual differences such as foreign language aptitude and experience of study abroad impact CSL learners performance in Chinese meta linguistic awareness e g phonological awareness and phonetic radical awareness and literacy skills e g Hanzi reading and writing Furthermore it examines the contribution of meta linguistic awareness to literacy skills The book also discusses the theoretical implications for understanding the significance of phonological skills for the development of literacy skills and the pedagogical considerations for designing instructional activities for Pinyin and Hanzi in the CSL classroom This book is intended for researchers graduate students and practitioners interested in CSL teaching and learning Shengren Thorsten J. Pattberg, 2012-10-01 The shengren is the single most important concept in Chinese history Since the Europeans had not anything like it but refused to hold the candle to China instead they withheld the shengren and talked about some lesser versions of Greek philosophers or Christian holy men The English soon found a slightly better translation they called the shengren sages The Germans however the descendants of the Holy Roman Empire of German Nation never had a concept for sages or sagehood In their effort to christen China the Germans called the shengren saints Few people realize how the fate of the shengren was inextricably linked to the German obsession with Holiness The European imperialists soon engaged in a fierce battle over China s most valuable possessions its names Intellectuals in the Modern Islamic World Stephane A. Dudoignon, Komatsu Hisao, Kosugi Yasushi, 2006-09-27 Incorporating a rich series of case studies covering a range of geographical areas this collection of essays examines the history of modern intellectuals in the Islamic world throughout the twentieth century The contributors reassess the typology and history of various scholars providing significant diachronic analysis of the different forms of communication learning and authority While each chapter presents a separate regional case with an historically and geographically different background the volume discloses commonalities similarities and intellectual echoes through its comparative approach Consisting of two parts the volume focuses first on al Manar the influential journal published between 1898 and 1935 that inspired much imagination and arguments among local intelligentsias all over the Islamic world The second part discusses the formation transmission and transformation of learning and authority from the Middle East to Central and Southeast Asia Constituting a milestone in comparative studies of the modern Islamic world this book highlights the range of and transformation in the role of intellectuals in Islamic societies New Approaches to Chinese Word Formation Jerome L. Packard, 2011-07-22 TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS is a series of books that open new perspectives in our understanding of language The series publishes state of the art work on core areas of linguistics across theoretical frameworks as well as studies that provide new insights by building bridges to neighbouring fields such as neuroscience and cognitive science

TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS considers itself a forum for cutting edge research based on solid empirical data on language in its various manifestations including sign languages It regards linguistic variation in its synchronic and diachronic dimensions as well as in its social contexts as important sources of insight for a better understanding of the design of linguistic systems and the ecology and evolution of language

TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS publishes monographs and outstanding dissertations as well as edited volumes which provide the opportunity to address controversial topics from different empirical and theoretical viewpoints High quality standards are ensured through anonymous reviewing

Chinese Public Diplomacy Falk Hartig, 2015-08-27 This book presents the first comprehensive analysis of Confucius Institutes CIs situating them as a tool of public diplomacy in the broader context of China's foreign affairs The study establishes the concept of public diplomacy as the theoretical framework for analysing CIs By applying this frame to in depth case studies of CIs in Europe and Oceania it provides in depth knowledge of the structure and organisation of CIs their activities and audiences as well as problems challenges and potentials In addition to examining CIs as the most prominent and most controversial tool of China's charm offensive this book also explains what the structural configuration of these institutes can tell us about China's understanding of and approaches towards public diplomacy The study demonstrates that in contrast to their international counterparts CIs are normally organised as joint ventures between international and Chinese partners in the field of education or cultural exchange From this unique setting a more fundamental observation can be made namely China's willingness to engage and cooperate with foreigners in the context of public diplomacy Overall the author argues that by utilizing the current global fascination with Chinese language and culture the Chinese government has found interested and willing international partners to co finance the CIs and thus partially fund China's international charm offensive This book will be of much interest to students of public diplomacy Chinese politics foreign policy and international relations in general
