

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in Heaven
hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth
as it is in heaven;
give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever.

Amen.

Matthew 6:9-13

Gould, 2017-08-31. Throughout history, Christians have prayed for the dead, both for continual growth of the faithful and for their advancement from purgatory and sometimes even for the deliverance of the unsaved from hell. Understanding Prayer for the Dead defends all three kinds of prayer. It challenges Protestants who seldom pray for the dead to begin doing so, and Roman Catholics and Eastern Orthodox who pray only for the Christian dead to include the unsaved as well. James B. Gould addresses the biblical credentials of prayer for the dead and provides a historical overview of such prayers from ancient Christianity to the current practice of the three main branches of the Church. He also discusses the logical assumptions prayer for the dead requires: that prayer is effective, that the dead are conscious, and that the afterlife involves change. It lays out a theological framework for such prayers. Prayer for the departed raises the most basic of theological questions: matters that go to the centre of God's purpose in creating spiritual beings and redeeming sinful humankind. The argument, while revisionary in some respects, is orthodox, ecumenical, and integrative, engaging a range of academic disciplines so as to be biblically accurate historically informed and philosophically reasoned Is God Listening?
