Lux, 1962 Ancient Rome in the English Novel Randolph Faries, 1923 A fieldmouse is visited by his uncle who teaches him to work and to take the risk of dancing in the moonlight Four-handed Monsters Adrian Daub, 2014 Four Handed Monsters surveys the cultural perception of four hand piano playing in the nineteenth century As the piano became a central institution of the bourgeois household and as piano transcriptions created a stable canon of classic works four hand playing became a ubiquitous and structurally important buttress of domestic life provoking reflections in the literature philosophy journalism and the visual arts of the age The Spanish American Novel John S. Brushwood, 2014-07-03 In The Spanish American Novel John S. Brushwood analyzes the twentieth century Spanish American novel as an artistic expression of social reality In relating the generic history of the novel to extraliterary events in Spanish America he shows how twentieth century fiction sets forth the essence of such phenomena as the first Perón regime the Mexican Revolution the Che Guevara legend indigenismo and the strongman political type In essence he views the novel as art rather than as document but not as art alienated from society The discussion is organized chronologically opening with the turn of the century and focusing on novels from 1900 to 1915 that exemplify various aspects of the nineteenth century literary inheritance Brushwood then highlights the avant garde fiction influenced by Proust and Joyce of the 1920s as a precursory movement to the new Latin American novel a phenomenon that came into its own during the 1940s He then examines the boom in Spanish American fiction the period of extensive international recognition of certain works which he dates from 1962 or 1963 In each era considered the development of the novel is placed in dual perspective One view that of particularly significant novels in light of others published during the same year is a cross section of the genre at one particular moment The second view that of a panorama of novels published in intervals between significant moments in the history of the novel is more general and selective in the number of books discussed Combining the historical with the analytical approach the author proposes that the experience of a novel in which reality has been transformed into art is essential to our understanding of that reality

Suicide in Modern Literature

Josefa Ros Velasco,2022-01-01 This book analyzes the social and contextual causes of suicide the existential and philosophical reasons for committing suicide and the prevention strategies that modern fictional literature places at our disposal They go through the review of Modern fictional literature in the American and European geographical framework following the rationales that modern literature based on fiction can serve the purpose of understanding better the phenomenon of suicide its most inaccessible impulses and that has the potential to prevent suicide From the turn of the 20th century to the present debates over the meaning of suicide became a privileged site for efforts to discover the reasons why people commit suicide and how to prevent this behavior Since the French sociologist and philosopher mile Durkheim published his study Suicide A Study in Sociology in 1897 a reframing of suicide took place giving rise to a flourishing group of researchers and authors devoting their efforts to understand better the causes of suicide and to the formation of suicide prevention organizations A century later we still keep on trying to reach such an understanding of suicide the nature and nuances of its modern conceptualization to prevent suicidal behaviors The question of what suicide means in and for modernity is not an overcome one Suicide is an act that touches all of our lives and engages with the incomprehensible and unsayable Since the turn of the millennium a fierce debate about the state s role in assisted suicide has been adopted Beyond the discussion as to whether physicians should assist in the suicide of patients with unbearable and hopeless suffering the scope of the suicidal agency is much broader concerning general people wanting to die
