Kane,2016-03-30 Building the Human City is a first overview of the award winning yet quite diverse works of Jesuit philosopher William F Lynch Writing from the 1950s to the mid 1980s Lynch was among the first to warn against the fierce polarizations prevalent in our culture wars and political life He called for a transformation of artistic and intellectual sensibilities and imaginations through the healing discernments and critical ironies of an Ignatian and Socratic spirituality Yet the breadth of his concerns from cinema and literature to mental health and hope to secularization and faith as well as the depth of his thought philosophical as much as theological led to little initial awareness of the overall vision uniting his writings This book while exploring that vision also argues that the spirituality Lynch proposes is more needed today than when he first wrote Condition of Indian Affairs in Wisconsin United States.
