Radical Christian Communities:

Radical Christian Communities Thomas P. Rausch, 2002-09-27 Throughout the centuries certain Christians chose to live out the challenges of the Gospel in communities that withdrew from the common and conventional in the world This book studies this phenomenon and focuses on a number of contemporary Christian communities lay and religious who respond to the Gospel call to discipleship in a radical way whether by being communities of peace and reconciliation of social ministry and solidarity with the poor of service to the Church or of prayer and contemplation Radical Reliaious Communities ,2025-06-30 The twenty first century has demonstrated that radicalism remains a vital analytical concept in the study of modern religion and politics However its application to earlier periods has been met with more ambivalence This volume challenges that trend by examining religio political subversives near the close of the Middle Ages as radical within their historical and intellectual contexts spanning several centuries and cultures with a focus on Central Europe In doing so it seeks to bridge entrenched geographical chronological and methodological divides fostering broader discussions on the comparative relevance of radicalism in pre modernity Transforming Faith Communities Michael I. Bochenski, 2013-03-14 Transforming Faith Communities argues for a model of being church that combines congregationalism with a constructive approach to church state relationships Congregationalism within a vision for a renewed Christendom is commended here as a viable option for Christian mission in the twenty first century world In making this case two movements are explored those inspired by sixteenth century Anabaptism and late twentieth century Latin American liberation theology Each movement is held up as a mirror to the other A continuing vision for the transformation of church and society emerges from this book as a number of contemporary resonances begin to sound These include an outline of some likely common features in the development of radical religious communities an examination of some of the factors that create world affirming Christian faith communities and many examples of effective and constructive engagement with church and society across the centuries with the concrete issues of what it really means to be a Christian community the body of Christ Radical Christianity in Palestine and Israel Samuel J. Kuruvilla, 2013-03-27 Christianity arose from the lands of biblical Palestine and regardless of its twentieth century associations with the Arab Israeli conflict to Christians around the world it remains first and foremost the birthplace of Christianity Nevertheless the size of the Christian population among Palestinians today living in Israel and the Palestinian territories is now relatively insignificant In Radical Christianity in the Middle East Samuel J Kuruvilla argues that Christian Palestinians often emply politically astute as well as theologically radical means in their efforts to prove relevant as a minority community within Israeli and Palestinian societies Examining the political background of the gradual collapse of secular Arab Nationalism to be replaced by Islamic liberation movements he reveals a trend within the Christian Palestinian Church which saw increasing politicisation in the 1980s and 1990s In the face of often restrictive Israeli policies such as land confiscation along with the First Intifada there was a drive towards setting up inter Church and faith activism with the goal of Palestinian liberation Kuruvilla charts the development of a theology of Christian liberation in particular through the work of Palestinian Anglican cleric Naim Stifan Ateek and Palestinian Lutheran Pastor Mitri Raheb From its roots in 1960s Latin America liberation theology has been adapted and contextualised within the specific situation within Israel and Palestine to produce a framework that emphasises peace and reconciliation while recognising the importance of resistance and national unity Theology has impacted Christian perceptions of Palestinians struggle with Israel the idea of a land promised to the sons of Abraham and the moral responsibilities that come with this are pitted against Israeli oppression of both Christian and Muslim inhabitants of the Holy Land and their desire for independence and justice Through this comprehensive study of the often overlooked theological political and practical position of Christians in Palestine Kuruvilla provides a new and insightful perspective on one of the most written about conflicts The Intentional Christian Community Handbook David Janzen, 2012-11-01 This is a book that we ve needed for a long long time This is a book for people who long for community and for people who ve found it for young seekers and for old radicals Like a farmer s almanac or a good cookbook it s a guide that doesn't tell you what to do but rather gives you the resources you need to find your way together with friends in the place where you are We couldn t be more grateful to have a book like this And we couldn t be happier to share it with you Shane Claiborne and Jonathan Wilson Hartgrove In the 21st century a new generation of Spirit energized people are searching for a new yet ancient way of life together David Janzen a friend of the New Monasticism movement with four decades of personal communal experience has visited scores of communities both old and new The Intentional Christian Community Handbook shares his wisdom as well as the experience of intentional Christian communities across North America over the last half century Christian Community in History Roger Haight, 2004 E F G H I J K L M NOPQRSTUVWYZ The Rise and Fall of Catholic Religious Orders Patricia Wittberg, 1994-10-25 Christ Among the Classes Tizon, Al, 2023-05-04 An examination of how Jesus addressed inequality between rich and poor and implications for Christian practice today Catholicism in the Third Millennium Thomas P. Rausch, 2016-03-24 What is Catholicism And where is the Catholic Church headed in the third millennium These two questions provide the structure for Thomas Rausch s Catholicism in the Third Millennium Here Rausch combines a faithful presentation of the tradition with a critical theological reflection and interpretation of where the Church is today and where it might be moving Catholicism in the Third Millennium offers an appreciation of the forces and movements that have shaped and continue to influence the ongoing change and development of Roman Catholicism Chief among these is the influence of the Second Vatican Council 1962 1965 in reshaping Catholicism This revised edition includes updated text from Rausch's Catholicism at the Dawn of the Third Millennium particularly the final chapter on The Unfinished Agenda of Vatican II Each chapter concludes with focus questions developed by Catherine E Clifford of St Paul s University Ottawa This experience of guided reading provides readers with a broad survey of Roman Catholic faith and practice in its contemporary context For readers who wish to compare particular passages of this volume with the Catechism of the Catholic Church an outline is provided in an appendix with references to the appropriate sections of the Catechism A second appendix offers a glossary of terms used in the book while a third appendix lists a number of basic works for further investigation of Catholic faith and life Chapters are The Church and the Council Faith and the Believing Community A Visible Church A Living Tradition Sacraments and Christian nitiation Christian Life and Discipleship Sin Forgiveness and Healing Sexual Morality and Social Justice Prayer and Spirituality The Fullness of Christian Hope and The Unfinished Agenda Includes Appendix I Outlook of Book with References to the Catechism of the Catholic Church Appendix II Glossary of Terms and Appendix III Basic Reference Works on Catholicism An Index of Names and an Index of Subjects are also included Thomas P Rausch SJ PhD is professor of theology at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles He is the author of Catholicism at the Dawn of the Third Millennium Reconciling Faith and Reason and editor of the bestselling The College Student's Introduction to Theology published by Liturgical Press Catherine E Clifford PhD is a professor of theology at St Paul s University in Ottawa Ontario The (Magic) Kingdom Of God Michael L Budde, 2019-05-20 In The Magic Kingdom of God Michael Budde offers a multidisciplinary analysis of the global culture industries increasingly powerful centralized corporate conglomerates in television advertising marketing movies and the like and their impact on Christian churches in industrialized countries Utilizing ideas from contemporary and classical

Unexpected Destinations Wesley Granberg-Michaelson, 2011-06 From Billy Graham to a Trappist monastery from Capitol Hill to the helm of the Reformed Church in America Wesley Granberg Michaelson's personal pilgrimage has covered the length and breadth of Christianity in America Now drawing upon forty years of his own spiritual journals this elder statesman of the church crystallizes his wide ranging experiences into a sharp lively memoir Unexpected Destinations reveals a unique encounter with evangelical piety Catholic contemplative spirituality Reformed theology Pentecostal practice and ecumenical efforts an encounter that dares to envision unity between all these strands of Christianity It provides fresh historical insights into the evangelical subculture of the 1970s sheds new light on how denominations today grapple inwardly with such issues as homosexuality and missional renewal and poignantly relates the joy and pain of one man's spiritual life Australia's Religious Communities Philip J. Hughes, Margaret Fraser, Stephen Breck Reid, 2012 An essential reference on Australia s religious groups with the latest information from the Australian 2011 Census Church leaders and everyone interested in the changing profile of Australia's profile will find this invaluable. This book describes the changing profile and participation in each religious group In-Between God Stephen Pickard, 2011-12-28 In Between God explores three important areas for contemporary Christianity theology community and discipleship Part One inquires into the rhythms of faith as it interacts with themes of uncertainty and doubt the nature of theological discourse the task of systematic theology evangelism and the various ways in which theology is done Part Two discusses the importance of place in relation to the church and themes of innovation undecideability and new forms of monastic community Part Three addresses themes in discipleship simplicity mysticism the passions and pilgrimage A red thread connecting these essays is the character of the triune God who is the energy and life in between all things Church for Every Context Michael Moynagh, 2014-04-15 The first comprehensive textbook on the theology and methodology of Fresh Expressions one of the most important developments within the contemporary church Political Protest and Cultural Revolution Barbara Epstein, 1993-09-03 From her perspective as both participant and observer Barbara Epstein examines the nonviolent direct action movement which inspired by the civil rights movement flourished in the United States from the mid seventies to the mid eighties Disenchanted with the politics of both the mainstream and the organized left and deeply committed to forging communities based on shared values activists in this movement developed a fresh philosophy and style of politics that shaped the thinking of a new generation of activists Driven by a vision of an ecologically balanced nonviolent egalitarian society they engaged in political action through affinity groups made decisions by consensus and practiced mass civil disobedience The nonviolent direct action movement galvanized originally in opposition to nuclear power with the Clamshell Alliance in New England and then the Abalone Alliance in California leading the way Its influence soon spread to other activist movements for peace non intervention ecological preservation feminism and gay and lesbian rights Epstein joined the San Francisco Bay Area s Livermore Action Group to protest the arms race and found herself in jail along with a thousand other activists for blocking the road in front of the Lawrence Livermore Laboratory She argues that to gain a real understanding of the direct action movement it is necessary to view it from the inside For with its aim to base society as a whole on principles of egalitarianism and nonviolence the movement sought to turn political protest into cultural revolution The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story

Episkope Roger Standing, Paul Goodliff, 2020-07-10 In Episkope Standing and Goodliff together with experienced church leaders drawn from across the churches establish the common foundations that inform our conversations about translocal ministry and map present models and experience of ecclesial oversight Building on these shared insights a variety of themes are explored that might help the selection training and deployment of translocal ministry be fit for purpose in the changing cultural context that faces twenty first century Christian communities — Decoding the Church Howard A. Snyder, Daniel V. Runyon, 2011-09-22 Using the genetic code as a model this provocative book will provide you with theological analysis biblical principles and practical applications for understanding the structure and mission of today s church and how it can transform the world
