Learning the Story of Scars After the axe head buried itself in his ankle my father clung to the log he was splitting squeezing his eyes like fists Twelve he logged those woods for years with his father Arkansas the great depression doing whatever they could Groaning he jerked and jerked the axe like a pump handle he screamed and went on pumping until the foot fell back hinged by the ankle white and spurting With a bandana he held it and held it while Arkansas flooded and saw his father running his own axe raised ready to kill whatever snake slashed the heel of his son I learned that scar like a tree split by lightning healed over knew my father had in him a boy who had suffered alone in a forest McDonald s evocation of nature and farming is impressively simple but suggests mystery and depth Publisher s Weekly McDonald draws upon his personal vision of West Texas offering a strong and sensitive image of the land its people its sense of space and struggle Books of the Southwest We are privy to a consciousness that encompasses Texas from the Gulf to the Caprock from oxen slow days to jet lag Rafting the Brazos makes us wish the poet could do nothing but chronicle the spirals of West Texas hawks Dallas Morning News West Texas the land and its people provide both the subject and the soul of McDonald s powerful poetry Writers at Work Billboard ,1954-10-23 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world s premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Who's who in Entertainment ,1992 Who's who in the South and Southwest ,1988 A biographical dictionary of noteworthy men and women of the Southern and Southwestern States Who's who of Emerging Leaders in America ,1993

Who's Who in America Marquis Who's Who, Inc,2002 Two Rivers Poetry Carolyn Luke Reding,2008 Rafting Rise Joe Survant,2002 Rafting Rise is a terrific book the richly detailed evocation of an entire world and an important contribution to the literature of the rural South Ted Kooser Rafting Rise has the strength of extended narrative and the quickness of lyric poetry There is a haunting visionary quality to Joe Survant s dramatic poem bringing to life a world of log rafting and floodplain dwellers along the Rough and Green Rivers in 1916 and 1917 The sections are snapshots and ballads of witness a counterpoint of voices that open a window on this long ago time and place of giant catfish and spells logjams and river witch The phrases shine and the lines sing out and the dead come back and speak again as the real enters the realm of legend Robert Morgan Joe Survant writes about turn of the century backwoods America with an uncanny sense of firsthand knowledge He knows whereof he writes and he writes with an authority that derives from a deep seated respect for the lives of river folk and trappers and the lone inhabitants of womenless shacks And for all the harsh realities of a life hacked out of such rough terrain Mr Servant never overlooks the beauty of sycamores grazing by the creek wild grapes growing in the river bottoms or a thicket lit by trumpet weed To read this book is to enter a world and to follow its narrative is to be carried on the current of a deeply compelling adventure Sherod Santos Set in the central Kentucky basins of the Rough Green and Ohio Rivers in 1916 17 Rafting Rise joins the storytelling virtues of fiction with the intensity of the poetic lyric to reach a wider audience including readers of poetry lovers of good tales and those interested in the small events of history recreated through the lives of carefully imagined characters The book s central action is the rafting of logs in winter down the rivers to the lumber mills in Evansville Indiana Servant re creates the whole fabric of the hardscrabble society that lives by this perilous trade They are tough people such as Carl Peters stranded on a raft run aground in a freezing rain walking in a figure eight all night to stay alive while his fellow rafter Tom Simpson who didn t make it lay like frozen wood in the bottom of our boat Elsewhere in love poems and poems celebrating the lush riverine landscape Servant conveys the simple sensuous moments that punctuate this hard life Here is Bill Balcom at a camp meeting eighteen and chafing for adventure on the river When I took a piece of Susie s buttermilk pie I saw her looking and when I ate I imagined her taste But none of the characters is more vivid than Sallie the female protagonist a half mad medicine woman living with her dogs in whatever shelter she can find Servant gives Sallie such a deep empathy with the countryside and its creatures that she becomes the spirit of the place But Sallie pays dearly for her empathy with nature hearing voices over which she has no power Worse she has the curse of prophecy can see the hand of death before it strikes and is as much feared as needed by the community Through these and a handful of other characters Servant fashions a verse epic of Kentucky on the eve of the entry of the United States into World War I This volume continues the experiment begun in his earlier Anne Anne Alpheus 1842 1882 winner of the Arkansas Poetry Award The Raft Kathy Fagan,1985 Brazos Valley Bliss Station Frances Hunter,1997-09-01 Poems and photographic creations of Francis Hunter
