Records of the American Catholic Historical Society of Philadelphia American Catholic Historical Society of Philadelphia, 1893 The Story of a Cannoneer Under Stonewall Jackson Edward Alexander Moore, 2019-12-02 In The Story of a Cannoneer Under Stonewall Jackson Edward Alexander Moore provides a firsthand account of the experiences of a Confederate soldier during the Civil War particularly focusing on his service in the artillery under the legendary General Stonewall Jackson Written in a vivid and engaging narrative style Moore s memoir uniquely combines a detailed depiction of battlefield dynamics with poignant reflections on camaraderie and the harsh realities of war The text offers a rich literary context it is not only a personal chronicle but also an important historical document that provides insight into the lesser known perspectives of artillery units during pivotal battles such as First Manassas and the Shenandoah Valley Campaigns Edward Alexander Moore s own experiences as a cannoneer lend authenticity to his writing reflecting the trials and tribulations faced by soldiers Coming from a military background Moore was deeply influenced by the honor and valor of service which fueled his desire to document the struggles and triumphs of his fellow soldiers His previous literary efforts and perspectives on war have culminated in this significant work which serves both as a testament to his dedication and an exploration of his complex wartime psyche This memoir is highly recommended for those interested in Civil War history

military strategy and personal narratives of American soldiers Moore's rich prose and intimate storytelling provide a compelling gateway into the life of a cannoneer offering readers a nuanced understanding of the human experiences woven into the fabric of war Whether for historians or casual readers this account stands as a significant contribution to Civil War literature

Wildwood Days Francesca Wright, 2006-03 Francesca Wright pictured here in her Santa Fe home at the age of 95 was born into abject poverty the youngest in a family of nine children in the Ozark Hills of Missouri in 1911 Her mother and siblings farmed a small parcel of depleted land while her father sought supplementary income as a painter of both structures and canvases As a child Francesca followed in her father's footsteps as he gathered bark and berries to mix for his paintings Today her acclaimed portraits and landscapes reside in prestigious art collections worldwide Wildwood Days is the true story of Francesca's childhood It is the story of her mother's tireless efforts to educate and empower her children in the face of grinding poverty and of Francesca at the age of twelve finding herself left entirely alone for four long years alone to manage her own survival as well as the crops livestock and buildings of the family farm In counterpoint to the genuine hardships the myriad delightful characters and details which Francesca recalls through the eyes of a child make for a heartwarming often quite funny and altogether uplifting read Francesca's tale ends with her fortuitous escape at age seventeen into a wider world a new beginning to a long and distinguished career
