Rainforest Organizations Steve Shipp, 1997 Rainforests home to more than half of all plant and animal species on earth while covering less than six percent of the world's land area have intricate ecosystems with multitudes of animal and plant species including humans Yet deforestation of the rainforests has greatly increased in the past half century Ten thousand years ago rainforests covered an estimated 9 5 million square miles but as millions of trees are lost daily to agricultural and commercial development scientific studies project the reduction of rainforests to six million square miles by the year 2000 and 3 5 million square miles by 2050 Numerous scientific political conservationist public information and other organizations have been formed to address every aspect of rainforests over 120 worldwide can be found in this directory Each entry lists the address phone number contact person e mail or Internet address if available mission statement or goals publications and often the group's history and current projects All listed agencies and organizations readily accept gueries for information about rainforests and most invite participation in their activities and projects Using the Agricultural, Environmental, and Food Literature Barbara S. Hutchinson, Antoinette Paris-Greider, 2002-07-17 This reference provides the groundwork tools and terminology required when conducting specialized searches for information and resources pertaining to traditional and emerging fields of agriculture The editors present 16 contributions from librarians and other information workers that offer information on research resources across the academic a Agriculture and Environment for Developing Regions, 1999

World Directory of Environmental Organizations Thaddeus C. Trzyna, Elizabeth Margold, Julia K. Osborn, 1996 This is a guide to organizations worldwide concerned with conservation and natural resources The directory features descriptions of over 2600 organizations in over 200 countries profiles of over 170 intergovernmental agencies and UN programmes descriptions of over 400 international NGOs over 2000 national government and non governmental organizations full addresses and contact numbers and a bibliography of data sources North Korea in Quotation ,2005-06-30 Since the end of World War II the small country of North Korea has occupied a disproportionate amount of the world's diplomatic and military attention Its defiance of the international community has mystified and frustrated generations of leaders both in Asia and throughout the world With its closed borders and xenophobic leadership little is known about North Korea's government or its intentions leaving us to examine the words of the country's leaders and international statesmen analysts and journalists for a balanced critical assessment of North Korea and its relationship to the world The 20 categories covered here provide an overview of the breadth of issues facing the Northeast Asian country For each quote the speaker and his or her title are identified along with the original source of the quotation and its context Indexed by speaker subject and keywords
