Perspective on Interfaith Dialogue Daniel S. Brown,2013-01-30 Communication theory provides a compelling way to understand how people of faith can and should work together in today s tumultuous world In A Communication Perspective on Interfaith Dialogue fifteen authors present their experiences and analyses of interfaith dialogue and contextualize interfaith work within the frame of rhetorical and communication studies While the focus is on the Abrahamic faiths these essays also include discussion of Hinduism and interracial faith efforts Each chapter incorporates communication theories that bring clarity to the practices and problems of interfaith communication Where other interfaith books provide theological political or sociological insights this volume is committed to the perspectives contained in communication scholarship Interfaith dialogue is best imagined as an organic process and it does not require theological heavyweights gathered for academic banter As such this volume focuses on the processes and means by which interfaith meaning is produced to generation three outstanding American Jewish directors William Wyler Sidney Lumet and Steven Spielberg advance a tradition of Jewish writers artists and leaders who propagate the ethical basis of the American Idea and Creed They strive to renew the American spirit by insisting that America must live up to its values and ideals These directors accentuate the ethical responsibility for the other as a basis of the American soul and a source for strengthening American liberal democracy In the manner of the jeremiad their films challenge America to achieve a liberal democratic culture for all people by becoming more inclusive and by modernizing the American Idea Following an introduction that relates aspects of modern ethical thought to the search for America s soul the book divides into three sections The Wyler section focuses on the director s social vision of a changing America The Lumet section views his films as dramatizing Lumet s dynamic and aggressive social and ethical conscience The Spielberg section tracks his films as a movement toward American redemption and renewal that aspires to realize Lincoln s vision of America as the hope of the world The directors among many others perpetuate a New Covenant that advocates change and renewal in the American experience Full Bloom Francesca
