design and production of mantles wrappers Torah scroll binders and the Torah ark curtain and valance including the text of inscriptions marking the circumstances of donation The Oxford Handbook of Jewish Studies Martin Goodman,Jeremy Cohen,David Sorkin,2002 This volume on Jewish studies presents surveys of today s interests and directions in the humanities and social sciences It covers the main areas taught and researched as part of Jewish studies in universities throughout the world especially in Europe the US and Israel The Jews of the Middle East and North Africa in Modern Times Reeva Spector Simon,Michael Menachem Laskier,Sara Reguer,2003-04-30 Despite considerable research on the Jewish diaspora in the Middle East and North Africa since 1800 there has until now been no comprehensive synthesis that illuminates both the differences and commonalities in Jewish experience across a range of countries and cultures This lacuna in both Jewish and Middle Eastern studies is due partly to the fact that in general histories of the region Jews have been omitted from the standard narrative As part of the religious and ethnic mosaic that was traditional Islamic society Jews were but one among numerous minorities and so have lacked a systematic treatment Addressing this important oversight this volume documents the variety and diversity of Jewish life in the region over the last two hundred years It explains the changes that affected the communities under Islamic rule during its golden age and describes the processes of modernization that enabled the Jews to play a pivotal role in their respective countries in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The first half of the book is thematic covering topics ranging from languages to economic life and from religion and music to the world of women The second half is a country by country survey that covers Turkey Syria Lebanon Israel Palestine Iraq Iran Afghanistan Yemen Egypt the Sudan Libya Tunisia Algeria and Morocco Streets of Memory Amy Mills,2010 Esra Ozyllrek author of Nostalgia for the Modern State Specularism and Everyday Politics in Turkey Jewish Studies at the Crossroads of Anthropology and History Ra'anana S. Boustany,Oren Kosansky,Marina Rustow,2011-01-24 Over the past several decades the field of Jewish studies has expanded to encompass an unprecedented range of research topics historical periods geographic regions and analytical approaches Yet there have been few systematic efforts to trace these developments to consider their implications and to generate new concepts appropriate to a more inclusive view of Jewish culture and society Jewish Studies at the Crossroads of Anthropology and History brings together scholars in anthropology history religious studies comparative literature and other fields to chart new directions in Jewish studies across the disciplines This groundbreaking volume explores forms of Jewish experience that span the period from antiquity to the present and encompass a wide range of textual ritual spatial and visual materials The essays give full consideration to non written expressions of ritual performance artistic production spoken narrative and social experience through which Jewish life emerges More than simply contributing to an appreciation of Jewish diversity the contributors devote their attention to three key concepts authority diaspora and tradition that have long been central to the study of Jews and Judaism Moving beyond inherited approaches and conventional academic boundaries the volume reconsiders these core concepts reorienting our understanding of the dynamic relationships between text and practice and continuity and change in Jewish contexts More broadly this volume furthers conversation across the disciplines by using Judaic studies to provoke inquiry into theoretical problems in a range of other areas The Image of an Ottoman City Heghnar Watenpaugh,2004-09-01 This urban and architectural study of Aleppo a center of early modern global trade draws upon archival and narrative texts architectural evidence and contemporary theoretical discussions of the relation between imperial ideology urban patterns and rituals and architectural form The first two centuries of Ottoman rule fostered tremendous urban development and reorientation through judiciously sited acts of patronage Monumental structures endowed by Ottoman officials both introduced a new imperial architecture from Istanbul and incorporated formal elements from the local urban visual language By viewing the urban and social contexts of these acts tracing their evolution over two centuries and examining their discussion in Ottoman and Arabic sources this book proposes a new model for understanding the local reception and adaptation of imperial forms institutions and norms Arab Dress. A Short History Yedida Stillman,2003-08-06 This richly illustrated volume is a historical and ethnographic study of one important aspect of Arab and Islamic material culture clothing While in part descriptive its principal focus is on the evolution and transformations of modes of dress over the past 1400 years throughout the Middle East North Africa and for the Middle Ages Islamic Spain Arab clothing is treated as part of an Islamic vestimentary system and is discussed within the context of the social religious esthetic and political trends of each age In addition to the five historical chapters three chapters are devoted to major themes of Arab costume history the dress code for non Muslims the important socio economic and political institution of luxury fabrics and garments of honor and the most well known and frequently misunderstood institution of veiling The Unknown History of Jewish Women Through the Ages Rachel Elijor,2023-05-22 The Unknown History of Jewish Women On Learning and Illiteracy On Slavery and Liberty is a comprehensive study on the history of Jewish women which discusses their absence from the Jewish Hebrew library of the People of the Book and interprets their social condition in relation to their imposed ignorance and exclusion from public literacy The book begins with a chapter on communal education for Jewish boys which was compulsory and free of charge for the first ten years in all traditional Jewish communities The discussion continues with the striking absence of any communal Jewish education for girls until the late nineteenth and early twentieth century and the implications of this fact for twentieth century immigration to Israel 1949 1959 The following chapters discuss the social cultural and legal contexts of this reality of female illiteracy in the Jewish community a community that placed a supreme value on male education The discussion focuses on the patriarchal order and the postulations rules norms sanctions and mythologies that in antiquity and the Middle Ages laid the religious foundations of this discriminatory reality To Tell Their Children Rachel L. Greenblatt,2014-02-26 This book offers an examination of Jewish communal memory in Prague in the century and a half stretching from its position as cosmopolitan capital of the Holy Roman Empire 1583 1611 through Catholic reform and triumphalism in the later seventeenth century to the eve of its encounter with Enlightenment in the early eighteenth Rachel Greenblatt approaches the subject through the lens of the community's own stories stories recovered from close readings of a wide range of documents as well as from gravestones and other treasured objects in which Prague's Jews recorded their history On the basis of this material Greenblatt shows how members of this community sought to preserve for future generations their memories of others within the community and the events that they experienced Throughout the author seeks to go beyond the debates inspired by Yosef Hayim Yerushalmi's influential Zakhor Jewish History and Jewish Memory often regarded as the seminal work in the field of Jewish communal memory by focusing not on whether Jews in a pre-modern community had a historical consciousness but rather on the ways in which they perceived and preserved their history In doing this Greenblatt opens a window onto the roles that local traditions aesthetic sensibilities gender social hierarchies and political and financial pressures played in the construction of local memories

Topographies of Memories Anita Bakshi, 2017-11-09 This book explores new approaches towards developing memorial and heritage sites moving beyond the critique of existing practices that have been the traditional focus of studies of commemoration Offering understandings of the effects of conflict on memories of place as manifested in everyday lives and official histories it explores the formation of urban identities and constructed images of the city Topographies of Memories suggests interdisciplinary approaches for creating commemorative sites with shared stakes The first part of the book focuses on memory dynamics the second on Nicosia the divided capital of Cyprus and the third on physical and material world interventions Design practices and modes of engagement with places of memory are explored making connections between theoretical explorations of memory and forgetting and practical strategies for designers and practitioners
