Dreamers and Schemers Frank Bongiorno, 2022-11-01 A landmark book the first full political history of Australia In this compelling and comprehensive work renowned historian Frank Bongiorno presents a social and cultural history of Australia's political life from pre settlement Indigenous systems to the present day Depicting a wonderful parade of dreamers and schemers Bongiorno surveys moments of political renewal and sheds fresh light on our democratic life From local pubs and meeting halls to the parliament and cabinet from pamphleteers and stump orators to party agents and operatives this enthralling account looks at the political insiders in the halls of power as well as the agitators and outsiders who sought to shape the nation from the margins A work of political history like no other Dreamers and Schemers will transform the way you look at Australian politics With acuity and grace Bongiorno divines the soul of the nation All told with a cheeky eye for detail and nose for skullduggery by a historian in full archival narrative and rhetorical flight A landmark work Clare Wright Bongiorno is one of our premier historians and this is his masterwork An original take on our politics and people written with an open mind and warm Australian heart George Megalogenis Penetrating and vividly written this a political history that broadens our understanding of politics one that offers genuinely fresh insights and resists tidy generalisations From First Nations politics to the democracy sausage Dreamers and Schemers never disappoints It will stand as one of the most essential works in Australian history for decades to come Mark McKenna Shortlisted for the Australian History Prize in the NSW Premier's History Awards

Australian Patriography Stephen Mansfield, 2014-11-01 The Son's Book of the Father as Richard Freadman termed it is a rich field of relational autobiography offering a unique set of tensions and insights into modes of masculinity notions of identity and the ethics of representing another's life in writing one's own This study of modern Australian life writing by sons who focus on fathers places an emerging sub genre within its literary ancestry and its contemporary milieu Providing compelling readings of Raimond Gaita's Romulus My Father Peter Rose's Rose Boys and many others this is the first study of its kind within Australian literature

Artful Histories David McCooley, 1996 An important contribution to our understanding of autobiography its history and the Australian experience

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation Cosima Bruno, Lucas Klein, Chris Song, 2023-10-19 Offering the first systematic overview of modern and contemporary Chinese literature from a translation studies perspective this handbook provides students researchers and teachers with a context in which to read and appreciate the effects of linguistic and cultural transfer in Chinese literary works Translation matters It always has of course but more so when we want to reap the benefits of intercultural communication In many universities Chinese literature in English translation is taught as if it had been written in English As a result students submit what they read to their own cultural expectations they do not read in translation and do not attend to the protocols of knowing engagements and contestations that bind literature and society to each other The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation squarely addresses this pedagogical lack Organised in a tripartite structure around considerations of textual social and large scale spatial and historical circumstances its thirty plus essays each deal with a theme of translation studies as emerged from the translation of one or more Chinese literary works In doing so it offers new tools for reading and appreciating modern and contemporary Chinese literature in the global context of its translation offering in depth studies about eminent Chinese authors and their literary masterpieces in translation The first of its kind this book is essential reading for anyone studying or researching Chinese literature in translation

Seeking Meaning, Seeking Justice in a Post-Cold War World Judith Keene, Elizabeth Rezniewski, 2018-03-27 The challenge for historians as for individuals and nations has been to make sense of the Cold War past without recourse to the obsolete frameworks of a dichotomous world The editors of Seeking Meaning Seeking Justice in the Post Cold War World Judith Keene and Elizabeth Rezniewski have brought together contributions that address the diverse modes by which the Cold War is being assessed with a major focus on countries on the periphery of the Cold War confrontation These approaches include developments in historiography as new intellectual and cultural frame are applied to old debates Authors also consider the universal principles and moral discourses including that of human rights on which judgements have been based and judicial processes instigated and the forms of memorialisation that have sought to come to terms and perhaps achieve reconciliation with a Cold War past Contributors are Ann Curthoys Philip Deery Katherine Hite Michael Humphrey Su kyong Hwang Perry Johansson Judith Keene Betty O Neill Peter Read Elizabeth Rechniewski Estela Valverde Adrian Vickers and Marivic Wyndham

Time, Tide and History Brigid Rooney, Fiona Morrison, 2024-06-01 Time Tide and History Eleanor Dark s Fiction is the first book length edited collection of scholarly essays to treat the full span of Eleanor Dark s fiction advancing a recent revival of critical and scholarly interest in Dark s writing This volume not only establishes a new view of Dark s fiction as a whole but also reflects on the ways in which her fiction speaks to our present moment in the context of a globally fraught post pandemic Anthropocene era Above all the revisiting of Dark s fiction is mandated by a desire to recognise the ways in which it anticipates vital debates in Australian literary and national culture today about settler colonialism and its legacies and with regard to the histories condition and status of Australia's First Nations people This volume interweaves varied topical themes from formal debates about modernism historical realism and melodrama to questions about modernity's time and space about gender and cultural difference and about the specifics of built and natural environments Time Tide and History intentionally loosens the conventions of literary scholarship by including other kinds of work alongside critical and scholarly readings a written dialogue between two contemporary historians about Dark's legacy and a biographical piece on the life and role of Eleanor Dark's husband Eric Payten Dark Bringing together the interwar fiction's feminist and modernist dimensions with the historical turn of The Timeless Land trilogy the essays in Time Tide and History collectively pursue ethical and political questions while teasing out the distinctive thematic formal and aesthetic features of Dark's fiction Australia's China

Lachlan Strahan, 1996 First published in 1996 Australia's China explores the multifaceted and dynamic Australian encounter with China from the beginning of the Sino Japanese War in 1937 through the Cold War to the Australian recognition of the PRC in 1972 Going beyond conventional policy studies it traces the patterns in Australian reactions to China from the grass roots to official circles highlighting the centrality of images concerning the exotic disease sexuality the frontier and China as a paradise anti paradise In responding to China Australians revealed something of themselves and this book maps the formation of Australian conceptions of identity in the context of a cross cultural encounter which was variously cooperative enriching baffling and antagonistic But there was no single Australian conception of China Rather competing perceptions jostled in a shifting dialogue MARK TWAIN: 12 Novels, 195 Short Stories, Autobiography, 10 Travel Books, 160+

Wyndham, 2007-01-01 Eleanor Dark 1901-1985 is one of Australia's most celebrated writers of the inter-war years. Born with the twentieth century a Federation baby, she published ten novels amongst them one of the best-loved Australian stories of all time The Timeless Land. Her life spanned successive global crises: two world wars, the economic depression of the 1930s, the Cold War, each issuing its own challenges to the artist and the people's writer she thought herself to be. By far the most privileged writer of her generation, her ultimate challenge was a personal one: to unlock the gates of her world, proof of life to a society and a world in crisis. The first cross-cultural biography of this famous Australian writer, Marivic Wyndham's rich and controversial portrait of Eleanor Dark is based on extensive research of the author's public and private lives. Australia's Boldest Experiment Stuart Macintyre, 2015-06-01 In this landmark book, Stuart Macintyre explains how a country traumatised by World War I, hammered by the Depression and overstretched by World War II, became a prosperous, successful and growing society by the 1950s. An extraordinary group of individuals, notably John Curtin, Ben Chifley, Nugget Coombs, John Dedman and Robert Menzies, re-made the country, planning its reconstruction against a background of wartime sacrifice and austerity. The other part of this triumphant story shows Australia on the world stage, seeking to fashion a new world order that would bring peace and prosperity. This book shows the 1940s to be a pivotal decade in Australia. At the height of his powers, Macintyre reminds us that key components of the society we take for granted—work, welfare, health, education, immigration, housing—are not the result of military endeavour but policy, planning, politics and popular resolve. The Cambridge Companion to Australian Literature Elizabeth Webby, 2000-08-21 This book introduces, in a lively and succinct way, the major writers, literary movements, styles and genres that at the beginning of a new century are seen as constituting the field of Australian literature. The book consciously takes a perspective that sees literary works not as aesthetic objects created in isolation by unique individuals but as cultural products influenced and constrained by the social, political and economic circumstances of their times as well as by geographical and environmental factors. It covers indigenous texts, colonial writing and reading, poetry, fiction and theatre throughout two centuries, biography and autobiography and literary criticism in Australia. Other features of the companion are a chronology listing significant historical and literary events and suggestions for further reading.
