Shanghai Diary:

Shanghai Diary Ursula Bacon, 2008-09-30 By the late 1930s Europe sat on the brink of a world war As the holocaust approached many Jewish families in Germany fled to one of the only open port available to them Shanghai Once called the armpit of the world Shanghai ultimately served as the last resort for tens of thousands of Jews desperate to escape Hitler s Final Solution Against this backdrop 11 year old Ursula Bacon and her family made the difficult 8 000 mile voyage to Shanghai with its promise of safety But instead of a storybook China they found overcrowded streets teeming with peddlers beggars opium dens and prostitutes Amid these abysmal conditions Ursula learned of her own resourcefulness and found within herself the fierce determination to survive The Extinct Scene Thomas S. Davis, 2015-12-08 In 1935 the English writer Stephen Spender wrote that the historical pressures of his era should turn the reader s and writer s attention outwards from himself to the world Combining historical formalist and archival approaches Thomas S Davis examines late modernism s decisive turn toward everyday life locating in the heightened scrutiny of details textures and experiences an intimate attempt to conceptualize geopolitical disorder The Extinct Scene reads a range of mid century texts films and phenomena that reflect the decline of the British Empire and seismic shifts in the global political order Davis follows the rise of documentary film culture and the British Documentary Film Movement especially the work of John Grierson Humphrey Jennings and Basil Wright He then considers the influence of late modernist periodical culture on social attitudes and customs and presents original analyses of novels by Virginia Woolf Christopher Isherwood and Colin MacInnes the interwar travel narratives of W H Auden Christopher Isherwood and George Orwell the wartime gothic fiction of Elizabeth Bowen the poetry of H D the sketches of Henry Moore and the postimperial Anglophone Caribbean works of Vic Reid Sam Selvon and George Lamming By considering this group of writers and artists Davis recasts late modernism as an art of scale by detailing the particulars of everyday life these figures could better project large scale geopolitical events and crises Exile and Everyday Life, 2015-05-19 Exile and Everyday Life focusses on the everyday life experience of refugees fleeing National Socialism in the 1930s and 1940s as well as the representation of this experience in literature and culture The contributions in this volume show experiences of loss strategies of adaptation and the creation of a new identity and life It covers topics such as Exile in Shanghai Ireland the US and the UK food in exile the writers Gina Kaus Vicki Baum and Jean Am ry refugees in the medical profession and the creative arts and the Kindertransport to the UK Shanghai Diary David Ellsworth, 1983

The Holocaust Paul R. Bartrop, Eve E. Grimm, 2024-05-30 A RUSA Outstanding Reference Source 2025 From genocidal campaigns to careful neutrality to valiant lifesaving efforts every country s experience of the Holocaust was different during and immediately following World War II This book profiles 50 nations and territories from around the globe examining how prewar conditions and attitudes toward Jews influenced the trajectory of that place s wartime experience and its role in the Holocaust It also explores the aftermath and lasting impact of the Holocaust in these places Each profile begins with a collection of at a glance facts about population government leaders wartime status and more All profiles begin with a brief introduction followed by information about the Jewish population in that place the prewar environment wartime experiences and the aftermath of the Holocaust This standardized format makes it easy for readers to find specific information while also helping them place events within the proper historical context A curated selection of further readings at the end of each profile and an end of volume list of books and Internet resources point readers toward materials for additional study While often conceptualized as a single event that happened the same way across all Axis or Axis occupied countries the Holocaust and reactions to it varied widely from country to country In many cases political and economic conditions in the prewar years as well as the degree of anti-Semitism in a nation influenced that country's experience of the Holocaust Even after the war countries experienced the aftermath of the Holocaust in different ways Some places such as Palestine became a beacon for Jewish refugees while others such as Brazil became a hideout for Nazi war criminals Revealing/Reveiling Shanghai

Lisa Bernstein, Chu-chueh Cheng, 2020-08-01 Revealing/Reveiling Shanghai provides international and interdisciplinary perspectives on representations of Shanghai a contested location within political discourse and cultural imagination Shanghai's complex history as a quasi colonial city and its contradictory identity as the birthplace of Communist China and the epitome of twenty first century capitalism make it an especially fascinating subject Contributors examine representations of Shanghai in film art literature memoir theater and mass media from the past one hundred years They address the ways in which texts from the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries have rewritten past and present Shanghai to reflect our own wishes and anguishes show how the city resists static interpretations and challenge notions of authentic representation and identity By revealing and questioning persistent stereotypes and constructed versions of East and West the essays offer diverse views so as to create a genuine exchange with contemporary global audiences A wide variety of texts are discussed including the films Street Angel 1937 and The White Countess 2005 and the novels The Song of Everlasting Sorrow 1996 and Shanghai Baby 1999 Gendered Encounters between Germany and Asia Joanne Miyang Cho, Douglas T.

McGetchin, 2016-12-14 This volume provides new insights into gendered interactions over the past two centuries between Germany and Asia including India China Japan and previously overlooked Asian countries including Vietnam the Philippines Thailand and Korea This volume presents scholarship from academics working in the field of German Asian Studies as it relates to gender across transnational encounters in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Gender has been a lens of analysis in isolated published chapters in previous edited volumes on German Asian connections but nowhere has there been a volume specifically dedicated to the analysis of gender in this field Rejecting traditional notions of West and East as seeming polar opposites their contributions to this volume attempt to reconstruct the ways in which German and Asian men and women have cooperated and negotiated the challenge of modernity in various fields Christians in the City of Shanghai Susangeline Y. Patrick, 2023-10-19 Examining the stories of diverse Christians in Shanghai this book uses the city as a model to highlight how a minority religion in a city has interacted with other religions as well as social cultural political and economic changes Susangeline Y Patrick illustrates how the history of Shanghai Christians sheds light on why and how Christians have accommodated social and political changes and gives valuable insights into multiculturalism globalization sinicization and ecclesiology The interreligious dialogues between Shanghai Christians and other traditions such as Buddhism Daoism Confucianism Islam and Judaism throughout history provide worthy reflections on the roles of Christians in a multi religious space

Between China and Japan Joshua A. Fogel, 2015-05-12 Over the past thirty five years Joshua Fogel has pioneered the study of Sino Japanese cultural and political relations understood as the intersections of the histories of these two countries This volume brings together many of his essays and reviews in this new field For a variety of reasons discussed within scholars have been reluctant to look at these two nation s historical connections either through comparative analysis or actual interactions Fogel s work has focused squarely here Among the issues addressed are Japanese scholarly views of modern China and Chinese history Chinese considerations of the Japanese language in the Ming and Qing periods the Japanese immigration to the East Asian Mainland especially to Shanghai and Harbin and more

Composing for the Revolution Joshua H. Howard, 2020-10-31 In Composing for the Revolution Nie Er and China s Sonic Nationalism Joshua Howard explores the role the songwriter Nie Er played in the 1930s proletarian arts movement and the process by which he became a nationalist icon Composed only months before his untimely death in 1935 Nie Er s last song the March of the Volunteers captured the rising anti Japanese sentiment and was selected as China s national anthem with the establishment of the People s Republic Nie was quickly canonized after his death and later recast into the People s Musician during the 1950s effectively becoming a national monument Howard engages two historical paradigms that have dominated the study of twentieth century China revolution and modernity He argues that Nie Er active in the leftist artistic community and critical of capitalism availed himself of media technology especially the emerging sound cinema to create a modern revolutionary and nationalist music This thesis stands as a powerful corrective to a growing literature on the construction of a Chinese modernity which has privileged the mass consumer culture of Shanghai and consciously sought to displace the focus on China s revolutionary experience Composing for the Revolution also provides insight into understudied aspects of China s nationalism its sonic and musical dimensions Howard s analyses highlights Nie s extensive writings on the political function of music examination of the musical techniques and lyrics of compositions within the context of left wing cinema and also the transmission of his songs through film social movements and commemoration Nie Er shared multiple and overlapping identities based on regionalism nationalism and left wing internationalism His march songs inspired by Soviet mass songs combined Western musical structure and aesthetic with elements of Chinese folk music The songs ideological message promoted class nationalism but his March of the Volunteers elevated his music to a universal status thereby transcending the nation Traversing the life and legacy of Nie Er Howard offers readers a profound insight into the meanings of nationalism and memory in contemporary China Composing for the Revolution underscores the value of careful reading of sources and the author's willingness to approach a subject from multiple perspectives

Government, Imperialism and Nationalism in China Chihyun Chang, 2013-08-06 The Chinese Maritime Customs Service which was led by British staff is often seen as one of the key agents of Western imperialism in China the customs revenue being one of the major sources of Chinese government income but a source much of which was pledged to Western banks as the collateral for and interests payments on massive loans This book however based on extensive original research considers the lower level staff of the Chinese Maritime Customs Service and shows how the Chinese government struggling to master Western expertise in many areas pursued a deliberate policy of encouraging lower level staff to learn from their Western superiors with a view to eventually supplanting them a policy which was successfully carried out The book thereby demonstrates that Chinese engagement with Western imperialists was in fact an essential part of Chinese national state building and that what looked like a key branch of Chinese government delegated to foreigners was in fact very much under Chinese government control

1919 - The Year That Changed China Elisabeth Forster, 2018-03-05 The year 1919 changed Chinese culture radically but in a way that completely took contemporaries by surprise At the beginning of the year even well informed intellectuals did not anticipate that for instance baihua a precursor of the modern

Chinese language communism Hu Shi and Chen Duxiu would become important and famous all of which was very obvious to them at the end of the year Elisabeth Forster traces the precise mechanisms behind this transformation on the basis of a rich variety of sources including newspapers personal letters student essays advertisements textbooks and diaries She proposes a new model for cultural change which puts intellectual marketing at its core This book retells the story of the New Culture Movement in light of the diversified and decentered picture of Republican China developed in recent scholarship It is a lively and ironic narrative about cultural change through academic infighting rumors and conspiracy theories newspaper stories and intellectuals hell bent on selling agendas through powerful buzzwords Daily Report, Foreign Radio Broadcasts
