Shanghai Escapist:

Shanghai Escapist Robert M. Liu, 2000-10 A must read for those with strong interest in the history of the Cultural Revolution upheavals in 1960s 70s China This is a novel about oppression and misery about struggle and survival about escape and escapism about hope and despair about love and sex It is a work of great realism and brilliant description It rings so shockingly true that you can't even tell fiction from reality It may very well be a real life story Hollywood in China Ying Zhu, 2022-04-12 China surpassed North America to become the world's largest movie market in 2020 Formerly the focus of exotic fascination in the golden age of Hollywood today the Chinese are a make or break audience for Hollywood's biggest blockbusters And movies are now an essential part of China's global soft power strategy a Chinese real estate tycoon who until recently was the major shareholder of the AMC theater chain built the world's largest film production facility Behind the curtains as this brilliant new book reveals movies have become one of the biggest areas of competition between the world's two remaining superpowers Will Hollywood be eclipsed by its Chinese counterpart No author is better positioned to untangle this riddle than Ying Zhu a leading expert on Chinese film and media In fascinating vignettes Hollywood in China unravels the century long relationship between Hollywood and China for the first time Blending cultural history business and international relations Hollywood in China charts multiple power dynamics and teases out how competing political and economic interests as well as cultural values are manifested in the art and artifice of filmmaking on a global scale and with global ramifications The book is an inside look at the intense business and political maneuvering that is shaping the movies and the U S China relationship itself revealing a headlines grabbing conflict that is playing out not only on the high seas but on the silver screen Shanghai's Dancing World Andrew David, 2010-11-03 Drawing upon a unique and untapped reservoir of newspapers magazines novels government documents photographs and illustrations this book traces the origin pinnacle and ultimate demise of a commercial dance industry in Shanghai between the end of the First World War and the early years of the People's Republic of China Delving deep into the world of cabarets nightclubs and elite ballrooms that arose in the city in the 1920s and peaked in the 1930s the book assesses how and why Chinese society incorporated and transformed this westernized world of leisure and entertainment to suit its own tastes and interests Focusing on the jazzage nightlife of the city in its golden age the book examines issues of colonialism and modernity urban space sociability and sexuality and modern Chinese national identity formation in a tumultuous era of war and revolution Shanghai's Dancing World Andrew Field, 2010 It was thanks to its cabarets that Old Shanghai was called the Paris of the Orient No one has studied the rise and fall of those cabarets more extensively than Andrew Field His book is packed with fascinating information and attests on every page to his understanding of Shanghai's history LYNN PAN author of Sons of the Yellow Emperor Contending for the "Chinese Modern" Xiaoping Wang, 2019-05-15 In Contending for the Chinese Modern Xiaoping Wang studies the writing of fiction in 1940s China Through a practice of political hermeneutics of fictional texts and social subtexts it explores how social modernity and literary modernity intertwined with and interacted upon each other in the development of modern Chinese literature. It not only makes critical reappraisal of some renowned modern Chinese writers but also sheds fresh lights on a series of theoretical problems pertaining to the issue of plural modernities in which the problematic of subjectivity, class consciousness and identity politics are the key words as well as the concrete procedures that it employs to undertake the ideological analysis. The manuscript signifies a new paradigm in studies of modern Chinese literature.

Re-envisioning the Chinese Revolution Ching Kwan Lee, 2007. A comprehensive study of contemporary memories of China's revolutionary epoch from the time of Japanese imperialism through the Cultural Revolution. This volume examines the memories of a range of social groups including disenfranchised workers and rural women who have often been neglected in scholarship.

Michael Chabon's The Escapist: Amazing Adventures Michael Chabon, 2018-02-13. In the fictional world of the Pulitzer Prize winning novel The Amazing Adventures of Kavalier & Clay, the Escapist, the epitome of Golden Age superhero, was conceived. This anthology is a collection of the hero's history and his exploits created by an all-star cast of comic book luminaries. The Escapist and his associates are heroes to all who languish in oppression's chains. They roam the globe performing amazing feats to foil diabolical evildoers. From preventing a prison break and attack on Empire City to facing a demonic horde in Japan to crushing a galactic takeover in the year 2966 and to surfacing a sunken submarine from 300 fathoms, the Escapist brings hope and liberation. As the history of his creators Joe Kavalier and Sam Clay was chronicled in The Amazing Adventures of Kavalier & Clay, now a multitude of the Escapist's adventures are collected here along with the patchwork publishing history of the character. This volume also contains the adventures of the Escapist's associate Luna Moth. The stories and art within are by amazing talent like Brian K. Vaughan, Saga, Y. The Last Man, Kyle Baker, The Fifth Beatle, Eduardo Barreto, Batman, Howard Chaykin, American Flagg, Star Wars, Gene Colan, Daredevil, Howard the Duck, Matt Kindt, Pistolwhip, Kevin McCarthy, Circuit Breaker, Bill Sienkiewicz, Elektra, Assassin, Jim Starlin, Captain Marvel, and of course Michael Chabon. Containing a total of twenty-six tales along with two never before collected stories, this volume also contains six never before published stories as well as a robust gallery of pinups celebrating the world of the Escapist from artists including Brian Bolland, Judge Dredd, J. Elie, Jones, Lady Killer, Mike Mignola, Hellboy, Eric Wight, My Dead Girlfriend, Jae Lee, Before Watchmen, and more.

Animated Encounters Daisy Yan Du, 2019-02-28. China's role in the history of world animation has been trivialized or largely forgotten. In Animated Encounters, Daisy Yan Du addresses this omission in her study of Chinese animation and its engagement with international forces during its formative period, the 1940s-1970s. She introduces readers to transnational movements in early Chinese animation, tracing the involvement of Japanese, Soviet, American, Taiwanese, and China's ethnic minorities at socio-historical or representational levels in animated filmmaking in China. Du argues that Chinese animation was international almost from its inception and that such border-crossing exchanges helped make it Chinese and subsequently transform the history of world animation. She highlights animated encounters and entanglements to provide an alternative to current studies of the subject characterized by a preoccupation with essentialist ideas of Chineseness and further questions the long held belief that the forty year period in question was a time of cultural isolationism for China due to constant wars and revolutions China's socialist era known for the pervasiveness of its political propaganda and suppression of the arts unexpectedly witnessed a golden age of animation Socialist collectivism reinforced by totalitarian politics and centralized state control allowed Chinese animation to prosper and flourish artistically In addition the double marginality of animation a minor art form for children coupled with its disarming qualities and intrinsic malleability and mobility granted animators and producers the double power to play with politics and transgress ideological and geographical borders while surviving censorship both at home and abroad A captivating and enlightening history Animated Encounters will attract scholars and students of world film and animation studies children's culture and modern Chinese history
