Shanghai Longtang:

Shanghai Mundane Lei Ping, 2025-09-18 This book offers a new critical intervention into the studies of the paradox of Chinese socialism Centering on the unremovable Shanghai bourgeoisie and middle class the book brilliantly discovers Chinese society's persistent aspiration to bourgeois lifestyle and remarkable resistance to socialist ideology from the Mao era to the Xi era Shanghai Mundane offers a new critical intervention into the studies of the paradox of Chinese socialism Through the lens of contested state society relations the book challenges conventional China Studies by repositioning Shanghai as the key to decode the protracted ideological warfare between socialism and capitalism Based on significant archival ethnographic and theoretical evidence unearthed from the distinct cases of Shanghai bourgeoisie and middle class Lei Ping discovers the city's persistent aspiration to bourgeois lifestyle and remarkable resistance to socialist ideology throughout the entire history of the People's Republic of China Ping argues that despite the socialist remolding of capitalist industry and commerce the post 1949 Chinese state failed to eradicate bourgeois heritage in the domain of everyday life in the Mao era which ironically contributed to its controversial policy reversals in the post Mao era from Deng to Xi What lies at the heart of the major intellectual conundrum namely the survival and revival of bourgeois sentiments is what Ping calls the unremovable Shanghai mundane This captivating and provocative account sheds new light on understanding the larger questions as to the crisis ridden practices of Chinese socialism and the raison d'être of the Chinese Communist Party in the twenty first century

Shanghai Transforming Iker Gil, 2022-03-18 Over the last few years architects from around the world are discovering China as the perfect place to develop their architecture By contrast to the restrictions and limitations of European and American cities Shanghai with its seemingly boundless possibilities represents a bold new opportunity for architecture and urbanism Shanghai with the upcoming 2010 World Expo is immersed in a deep physical transformation reconsidering the relationships within the city as well as surrounding neighborhoods and investing in buildings with national and international signatures Shanghai Transforming examines this transformation focusing on a widely diverse aspects including history natural and artificial resources economy society and public perception Graphics and data along with photographs and maps provide the reader with a rich resource from which to understand and appreciate this complex process With photographs by Juan de Dios Perez and texts by Denise Scott Brown Saskia Sassen Silas Chiow Sharon Haar Xiangning Li Xiaochun Zhang Weigang Qiu Haolun Shu Philip Enquist Sol Madridejos Juan Carlos Sancho Robert Venturi Greg Girard and Jonathan Miller Middle Class Shanghai Cheng Li,2021-05-11 The United States may be headed toward a disastrous conflict with China unless Washington updates its understanding of contemporary Chinese society After four decades of engagement the United States and China now appear to be locked on a collision course that has already fomented a trade war seems likely to produce a new cold war and could even result in dangerous military conflict The current deterioration of the bilateral relationship is the culmination of years of disputes disillusionment disappointment and distrust between the two countries Washington has legitimate concerns about Beijing s excessive domestic political control and aggressive foreign policy stances just as Chinese leaders believe the United States still has futile designs on blocking their country s inevitable rise to great power status Cheng Li s Middle Class Shanghai argues that American policymakers must not lose sight of the expansive dynamism and diversity in present day China The caricature of the PRC as a monolithic Communist apparatus set on exporting its ideology and development model is simplistic and misguided Drawing on empirical research in the realms of higher education avant garde art architecture and law this unique study highlights the strong constructive impact of bilateral exchanges Combining eclectic human stories with striking new data analysis this book addresses the possibility that the development of China s class structure and cosmopolitan culture exemplified and led by Shanghai could provide a force for reshaping U S China engagement Both countries should build upon the deep cultural and educational exchanges that have bound them together for decades The author concludes that U S policymakers should neither underestimate the role and strength of the Chinese middle class nor ostracize or alienate this force with policies that push it toward jingoistic nationalism to the detriment of both countries and the global community With its unique focus this book will enlighten policymakers scholars business leaders and anyone interested in China and its increasingly fraught relations with the United States Postsocialism and Cultural Politics Xudong Zhang,2008-04-25 A sequel to Zhang s Chinese Modernism it discusses crucial issues in China in the 1990s including nationalism neo liberalism postmodernism nostalgia revisionism and the intellectual formulations and cultural politics Confucius' Courtyard Xing Ruan,2021-10-21 For more than three thousand years Chinese life from the city and the imperial palace to the temple the market and the family home was configured around the courtyard So too were the accomplishments of China s artistic philosophical and institutional classes Confucius Courtyard tells the story of how the courtyard that most singular and persistent architectural form holds the key to understanding even today much of Chinese society and culture Part architectural history and part introduction to the cultural and philosophical history of China the book explores the Chinese view of the world and reveals the extent to which this is inextricably intertwined with the ancient concept of the courtyard a place and a way of life which it appears has been almost entirely overlooked in China since the middle of the 20th century and in the West for centuries. Along the way it provides an accessible introduction to the Confucian idea of zhongyong the Middle Way the Chinese moral universe and the virtuous good life in the absence of an awesome God and shows how these can only be fully understood through the humble courtyard a space which is grounded in the earth yet open to the heavens. Erudite elegant and illustrated throughout by the author's own architectural drawings and sketches Confucius Courtyard weaves together architecture philosophy and cultural history to explore what lies at the very heart of Chinese civilization. Pioneers of Modern China

Khoo Choy Lee, 2005. Amongst the Chinese exists great cultural variety and diversity. The Cantonese care more for profit than face and are good businessmen whereas Fujian R n are frank blunt and outspoken but daring and generous. Beijing R n are more aristocratic and well mannered having stayed in a city ruled by emperors of different dynasties. Shanghai R n are more enterprising adventurous and materialistic but less aristocratic having been at the center of pre war gangsterism. Hainan R n are straightforward blunt and stubborn. Hunan R n are more warlike and have produced more marshals and generals than any other province. Pioneers of Modern China is a fascinating book that paints a vivid picture of the unique cultural characteristics and behavior of the Chinese in the various provinces. Using leaders in the modern history of China such as Sun Yat Sen Chiang Kai Shek Mao Zedong Zhou Enlai Deng Xiaoping Jiang Zemin Hu Jintao and Wen Jiabao as representatives it offers an in depth look into the psyche of the Chinese people. It also pays tribute to writers painters and kungfu experts who have helped to develop the country socially and artistically. Kinesthetic City SanSan

Kwan, 2013-02-07. Kinesthetic City uses choreography as subject and method to explore how movement through particular spaces at precise moments can illuminate the communities in those places and times. It examines the simultaneous persistence and mobility of the idea of Chineseness as it travels across a transnational network of Chinese cities. Visions of Dystopia in China's New Historical Novels Jeffrey C. Kinkley, 2014-11-18. The depiction of personal and collective suffering in modern Chinese novels differs significantly from standard Communist accounts and many Eastern and Western historical narratives. Writers such as Yu Hua Su Tong Wang Anyi Mo Yan Han Shaogong Ge Fei Li Rui and Zhang Wei skew and scramble common conceptions of China's modern development deploying avant garde narrative techniques from Latin American and Euro American modernism to project a surprisingly un Chinese dystopian vision and critical view of human culture and ethics. The epic narratives of modern Chinese fiction make rich use of magical realism surrealism and unusual treatments of historical time. Also featuring graphic depictions of sex and violence as well as dark raunchy comedy these novels reflect China's recent history re presenting the overthrow of the monarchy in the early twentieth century and the resulting chaos of revolution and war the recurring miseries perpetrated by class warfare during the dictatorship of Mao Zedong and the social dislocations caused by China's industrialization and rise as a global power. This book casts China's highbrow historical novels from the late 1980s to the first decade of the twenty first century as a distinctively Chinese contribution to the form of the global dystopian novel and consequently to global thinking about the interrelations of utopia and dystopia East Asia Modern Peter Rowe,2005-08-15 Peter G Rowe s East Asia Modern is a timely comparative analysis of urban growth in this rapidly evolving part of the globe Cities Surround The Countryside Robin Visser,2010-04-12 Explores the cultural significance of the explosive growth of Chinas cities during the past three decades through interpretations of Chinese fiction cinema visual art architecture and urban design SARS Stories Belinda Kong,2023-12-18 In SARS Stories Belinda Kong delves into the cultural archive of the 2003 SARS pandemic examining Chinese language creative works and social practices at the epicenters of the outbreak in China and Hong Kong As the COVID 19 pandemic has highlighted issues of anti Asian racism and sinophobia Kong traces how Chinese people navigated the SARS pandemic and created meaning amid crisis through cultures of epidemic expression From sentimental romances and Cantopop songs to raunchy sex comedies and crowdsourced ghost tales unexpected and minor genres and creators of Chinese popular culture highlight the resilience and humanity of those living through the pandemic Rather than narrating pandemic life in terms of crisis and catastrophe Kong argues that these works highlight Chinese practices of community care and love amid disease She also highlights the persistence of orientalism in anglophone accounts of SARS index patients and global reporting on COVID era China Kong shows how the Chinese experiences of living with SARS can reshape global feelings toward pandemic social life and foster greater fellowship in the face of pandemics Building Globalization Xuefei Ren,2011-04-15 From the years 2004 to 2008 Beijing and Shanghai witnessed the construction of an extraordinary number of new buildings many of which were designed by architectural firms overseas Combining ethnographic fieldwork historical research and network analysis Building Globalization closely scrutinizes the growing phenomenon of transnational architecture and its profound effect on the development of urban space Roaming from construction sites in Shanghai to architects offices in Paris Xuefei Ren interviews hundreds of architects developers politicians residents and activists to explore this issue She finds that in the rapidly transforming cities of modern China iconic designs from prestigious international architects help private developers to distinguish their projects government officials to advance their careers and the Chinese state to announce the arrival of modern China on the world stage China leads the way in the globalization of architecture a process whose ramifications can be felt from Beijing to Dubai to Basel Connecting the dots between real estate speculation megaproject construction residential displacement historical preservation housing rights and urban activism Building Globalization reveals the contradictions and consequences of this new global urban frontier The Urban Housing Handbook Eric Firley,Victor Deupi,2023-07-25 THE URBAN HOUSING HANDBOOK An insightful and revealing look at the intersection of housing and urban design In the newly revised Second Edition of The Urban Housing Handbook Eric Firley and Victor Deupi deliver a vital design and analysis tool for housing practitioners students and researchers The book outlines the characteristics of 30 of the most notable housing types from around the world studied against a background of increasing densification Each of

Asian Ethical Urbanism: A Radical Postmodern Perspective William Siew Wai Lim, 2005-07-15 With the impending demise of modernist planning the footprints and corpses of failed modernist visions are littered everywhere A vacuum of implementable urban theories has occurred at the time when unprecedented expansion and restructuring of cities in rapidly developing economies are taking place In this collection of essays William S W Lim zeroes in on the peculiarities and dynamics of present Asian urban and architectural conditions in order to challenge and transcend the socio ecological forms and political influences generated by the current system of global capitalism Part I of this book consists of the main essay which attempts to establish baselines for an effective formulation of ethical urbanism in Asia by clarifying issues that have previously been unquestioningly bound up with Western values and discourses As an architect urbanist Lim lends a determinedly spatialist and environmental perspective to issues such as rights ethics happiness and social justice while compelling his readers to rethink previously established notions about them Part II of this book consists of three city studies on Hanoi Shanghai and Singapore completed in the last two years which attempt to match Lim's theoretical formulation with actual conditions occurring in Asia today Also included is Asian Architecture in the New Millennium a fascinating discourse on contemporary design conducted from a postmodern perspective

China's Old Dwellings Ronald G. Knapp, 2019-03-31 China's Old Dwellings is the most comprehensive critical examination of China's folk architectural forms in any language It and its companion volume China's Living Houses Folk Beliefs Symbols and Household Ornamentation UH Press 1999 together form a landmark study of the environmental historical and social factors that influence housing forms for nearly a quarter of the world's population Both books draw on the author's thirty years of fieldwork and extensive travel in China as well as published and unpublished material in many languages China's Old Dwellings begins by tracing the interest in Chinese vernacular buildings in the twentieth century Early chapters detail common and distinctive spatial components including the interior and exterior modular spaces that are axiomatic components of most Chinese dwellings as well as conventional structural components and building materials common in Chinese construction Later chapters examine representative housing types in the three broad cultural realms northern southern and western into which China has been divided Knapp completes his survey with an exploration of China's old dwellings in the context of the rapid economic and social changes that are destroying so many of them China Constructing Capitalism Michael Keith, Scott Lash, Jakob Arnoldi, Tyler Rooker, 2013-09-23 China has been growing at over ten per cent annually since 1978 but this has only come to very widespread notice in the past decade This received wisdom about China has been largely of two types both of which more or less understand China in the context of neoliberalism The more business or business studies oriented literature seems to argue that if China does not adapt the rule of clear and distinct property and contract law in short of Western institutions its economy will stall The second set of voices is more clearly from the left arguing that the Chinese economy and city is neo liberal For them China does not diverge widely from the Anglo American model that from 2008 has brought the world economy to its knees China Constructing Capitalism takes issue with these analyses The authors argue that it is not Western neo liberalism that is constructing the Chinese economy but instead that China is constructing its own version of capitalism The two central theses of their argument are economic life neo liberal economic life is individualized and disembedded while the China model is relational and situated urban change China has created a form of local state capitalism which stands in contrast to neoliberal versions of the city This book analyses China as a risk culture examining among others Chinese firms and political ties property development migrant urbanisms and share trading rooms It scrutinises the ever present shadow of the risk averse yet uncertainty creating state China Constructing
