Legal Constraints on EU Member States in Drafting Accession Agreements Narin Idriz, 2022-06-22 Do Member States of the EU have a free hand in drafting Accession Treaties or are there legal constraints on their primary law making powers in this regard That is the main question this book addresses It argues that such constraints do exist and seeks to identify them thereby providing a number of insights into the nature of the EU's legal order The point of departure as well as the main focus of the study is the proposed permanent safeguard clause PSC on the free movement of persons in the Negotiating Framework for Turkey Legal provisions rules principles and norms that might constrain Member States in this regard are identified with reference to the PSC The book examines constraints on Member States stemming from three sources of EU law Association Law based on the existing legal framework built on the EEC Turkey Association Agreement Part I EU Enlargement Law comprised of past practice and existing EU rules on enlargement Part II and the foundations of EU Constitutional Law Part III which constrain Member States whenever they act within the scope of Union law both as primary and secondary lawmakers Part III reveals what the Court of Justice of the EU considers to be the essence or the very foundations of the Union's legal order which it protects against encroachment This is similar to what some constitutional courts do to protect the inner unity or basic structure of their constitutions The findings of this book can be applied to the accession of any candidate state It also sheds light on important implications for future treaty amendments and for identifying possible limits to differentiated integration

Cooperation and Enlargement: Two Challenges to be Addressed in the European Projects—2022 Ghislaine Pellat, Jovan Zafiroski, Marian Šuplata, 2023-11-10 In this book the ERECO PGV 1 network wishes to make an overview of the cooperation implemented by and in the European Union and to describe the concrete forms they have taken The issue is to analyze the internal European cooperation between economic actors politicians and EU citizens at different levels but also to focus attention on the external cooperation neighborhood policies external policies and collaborations with international institutions NATO OECD WTO etc Carrying uncompromising attention on this issue means rethinking the European project in light of today's challenges From the very beginning the EU was based on and called for forms of multinational cooperation bilateral internal and external at different levels involving economic actors public actors local authorities and civil society The frameworks for this cooperation as well as for the successive enlargements of the EU were drawn up in the context of European negotiations in particular during discussions on the European Treaties European values standards and rules are embodied in the texts of agreements resolutions and European directives and Treaties signed by all member countries They establish the functioning of European institutions and the framework of democratic life in Europe The emergence of current crises Brexit COVID 19 migration crisis non respect of rule of law rules refusal of certain member countries to apply the European Charter of Human Rights etc is questioning the project of the European Union and introduced the challenges which should be overcome by the proposal of the new project able to face the internal complexity of the Union and to answer to the pressure of a conflicting international context What remains of the European ideal affirmed in the treaties of 1957 1992 and 2007 How to re-enchant the common project Yet the European Union remains attractive to new candidate countries How do they read the integration conditions into the EU with regard to their own projects

Post-Crisis Growth and Integration in Europe E. Nowotny, P. Mooslechner, Doris Ritzberger-Grünwald, 2011-01-01 Against the backdrop of the financial crisis that unfolded in 2008 this book deals with policy challenges going forward focusing in particular on the ongoing catching up process in Central Eastern and South Eastern European CESEE countries Whilst having emerged relatively unscathed from the crisis the CESEE economies nonetheless need to adjust to the new external conditions they will encounter In this respect decision makers are faced with multiple sources of uncertainty will post crisis growth be the same as pre crisis growth What will be the future role of financial integration growth financing and exports What are the particular challenges facing monetary policy makers and the banking sector in the region On these issues and related topics the book provides a multi disciplinary assessment combining the views of high ranking central bankers and other policy makers commercial bankers and academics Economists and students of economic policy and European integration from central commercial and investment banks governments international organizations universities and research institutes will find this book of great interest and importance especially those working on Central Eastern and South Eastern Europe

Russia and the European Union Cynthia A. Roberts, 2007 Russia and the West have avoided renewed confrontation despite many post Cold War crises but illiberal trends in Russia rule out any prospect of developing a mutual agenda for closer integration Russian engagement with the leading Euro Atlantic institutions on a special but still subordinate nonmember basis remains a clever yet suboptimal substitute Such relationships as this monograph about Russia and the European Union explains tend to produce shallow collaboration symbolic summitry and costly standoffs Closer cooperation is blocked by an ongoing dispute over terms which is rooted in asymmetries in power ambivalent preferences uncertainty about the distributional costs and benefits of deeper engagement and Russia's continued unwillingness or inability to lock in the liberal domestic structures necessary to make credible commitments Moscow's renewed self confidence and geopolitical ambitions bolstered by sustained economic growth and high energy prices complicate the bargaining and further strain these special relationships which persist for lack of a realistic superior alternative

The EU - a Global Player? René Cuperus, 2006

Europeanization of Environmental Policy in the New Europe Mats Braun, 2016-04-22 Prior to the European Union EU 2004 2007 enlargement there were several predictions that this event would hamper progressive decision making within the EU on environmental policy It was believed that the new member states had adopted EU rules as a consequence of the EU's conditionality and consequently they would rather slow down the reform speed in the field after accession In this book Mats Braun offers an up to date account of how post communist member states have handled policy initiatives in the field of environmental policy after accession Using detailed case studies of how Bulgaria the Czech Republic Poland and Romania dealt with two different EU policy initiatives REACH and the Climate Energy Package he explores whether social norms and the process of socialization can help us understand why the track record of new member states in the area of environmental policy is more varied than was originally envisaged prior to enlargement

Economic Globalization and Governance Luís Brites Pereira, Maria Eugénia Mata, Miguel Rocha de Sousa, 2020-10-16 Reflecting the diverse and profound changes triggered by the latest wave of economic globalization this book highlights various governance responses at national regional and global levels The topics covered are wide ranging and include economic history and development European integration exchange rate arrangements industrial and labor economics international cooperation and multilateralism and public choice The book is divided into three parts The first part which contains contributions by Barry Eichengreen and Marc Flandreau is devoted to economic history The second part examines open economy macroeconomics with a focus on Europe including contributions by Jurgen von Hagen and Paul Krugman The third part presents contributions to international political economy and related interdisciplinary topics This Festschrift is written in honor of Jorge Braga de Macedo Professor Emeritus of Economics at the Nova School of Business and Economics and a distinguished Portuguese academic whose work has an impressive global reach The contributions written by a selection of international authors deal with his oeuvre covering the wide range of topics broached in this book as his publication record amply attests

Company Law in the New Europe Janet Dine, Marios Koutsias, Michael Blecher, 2007-01-01 This study on the potential of law to ensure the social responsibility of a company is an innovative and important study It is a topical contribution to the sociology of market economies in transition It is a unique effort to provide detailed practical guidance for the design of the company law in developing economies in general and the new Europe in particular Christian Joerges European University Institute Florence Italy This book provides comprehensive analysis of the recent enlargement of the EU shedding light on the rationale behind the EU's decisions to enlarge examining the side effects these choices have on a range of EU policies and particularly on the effect of the Acquis on candidate countries Emphasis is placed on the area of company law which occupies a central part in a country's economic planning and therefore its commercial law Past enlargements are thoroughly explained and the potential impact of the new political landscape in Europe in the wake of the popular rejection of the European Constitutional Treaty on future enlargements is evaluated A comparative methodology for commercial law drafting in transition and developing economies is put forward and the book concludes with a complete draft of a model company law for transition and developing economies The aim is to provide a template for discussion This book will be of great interest to those interested in considering the influence that the prospect of EU membership has on transition countries in general the emphasis being on laws vital to emerging market economies particularly commercial and company law

Against Islamophobia Arno Tausch, 2007 In this book the author presents optimistic socio liberal conclusions about Islam in the world system Countering some alarmist voices in the West neither migration nor Muslim culture are to be blamed for the contemporary crisis but the very nature of unequal capitalist accumulation and dependency that is at the core of the world capitalist system For one the analysis is based on current thinking on Kondratiev waves of world political development inherent in recent work by IIASA and the NATO Institute for Advanced Studies Analyses are also presented on the framework of the debate on cross national determinants of human well being in the world system While the author is cautiously optimistic about a socio liberal non interventionist policy alternative he has come to the conclusion that present patterns of global governance modeled around the neo liberal Washington Consensus and American hyperpower are doomed for failure A new socio liberal global consensus on global migration global order and global governance could emerge instead The Palgrave Handbook of Political Economy Ivano Cardinale,Roberto Scazzieri,2018-08-16 This book is a major contribution to the study of political economy With chapters ranging from the origins of political economy to its most exciting research fields this handbook provides a reassessment of political economy as it stands today whilst boldly gesturing to where it might head in the future This handbook transcends the received dichotomy between political economy as an application of rational choice theory or as the study of the causes of societies material welfare outlining a broader field of study that encompasses those traditions This book will be essential reading for academics researchers students and anyone looking for a comprehensive reassessment of political economy European Integration

Konstanty Adam Wojtaszczyk,Tadeusz Wallas,Paweł Stawarz,2023-09-08 The monographs European Integration Conditions Essence and Consequences and its follow up The Future of the European Union were compiled in the course of the project Quo vadis Unio a racja stanu Polski under the DIALOG research programme between 2019 and 2023 They are the result of contributions by Europeanists political scientists lawyers economists cultural scholars and historians who study the issues of European integration The content presented in both publications reflects the research outcomes and views of the individual authors The first monograph was designed as an attempt to summarise the integration process within the European Union to date and its legal and institutional dimension The monograph consists of four parts The State of European Integration Selected Problems of European Integration EU and National Concepts of Reforms of the European Union and Theoretical Problems of Research on European Integration We hope that the issues discussed in the monograph will attract the interest of potential readers especially academics and students involved in European studies political science economics sociology history law and cultural studies Insight into these issues may also be useful to government officials and NGO activists as well as to a wide audience interested in European issues Divergent Paths in Post-Communist Transformation O.

Havrylyshyn,2006-02-20 The most comprehensive and up to date analysis of the successes and failures of 27 countries post communism transformation Looking at life after the fall of the Berlin wall in 1989 the book examines and contrasts why some countries have virtually completed their transformation to a liberal polity and economy while others lag behind OECD Investment Policy Reviews: Slovenia 2002 OECD,2002-02-11 OECD s review of investment policy in Slovenia for 2002

Europe's Burden Alina Mungiu-Pippidi,2020 Investigates the efficacy of the European Union s promotion of good governance through its funding and conditionalities both within EU proper and in the developing world Poland in European Union Alojzy Nowak,Konstanty Adam Wojtaszczyk, Łukasz Zamecki,2016-01-22 Ukraine, The EU and Russia S.
