The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their

Martens, 2024-09-19 What did violence against women and children mean for ancient audiences and how do modern audiences hear and process the meaning of violence in the texts of the Hebrew Bible The rape of Tamar the sacrifice of Jephthah's daughter babes ripped from the womb during war texts such as these are hardly fodder for Sunday School classes yet we are left with the reality that the Bible is a violent text full of war murder genocide and destruction often carried out at the behest of God The essays in this volume explore ways in which the Hebrew Bible uses and abuses women and children to make indelible points concerning the people of Israel the lived realities of the Israelite society and God's relationship to His people Where other works turn to the study of the violence itself or to the divine nature of violence this volume focuses in on the human component As a result these studies are reminders that women and children born out of trauma are at once vulnerable and valuable fragile and resilient Women Healing/Healing Women Elaine Wainwright, 2017-10-03 Women Healing Healing Women begins with a search for women who were healers in the Graeco Roman world of the late Hellenistic and early Roman period Women healers were honoured in inscriptions and named by medical writers and were familiar enough to be stereotyped in plays and other writings What emerges by the first century of the Common Era is a world in which women functioned as healers but where healing becomes a contested site for gender relations By the time the gospels are written the place of women as healers is effectively erased The book uses the historical and cultural evidence to re read the gospel texts and discover healers in a woman pouring out ointment healed women bearing on their bodies the language describing Jesus and even in women possessed by demons Christian Origins Milltown Institute of Theology and Philosophy, 2003-01-01 This book looks at the early Christian movement in the light of 1st century Judaism and under the aspects of worship belief and society Feminist Theory and the Bible Esther Fuchs, 2016-02-23 Feminist Theory and the Bible Interrogating the Sources conceptualizes contextualizes and maps a new kind of burgeoning scholarship that has grown up in recent decades This scholarship emerged in the margins of Feminist Studies and Biblical Studies and has yet to find a foothold in either one of these more established contexts In this book Esther Fuchs argues that in order to find an enduring stable place in the academe this scholarship requires a theoretical perspective Biblical Studies as a whole has not yet been sufficiently theorized as an academic field and currently consists of multiple disciplines relying for the most part on traditional scholarly discourses In this regard Feminist Biblical Studies is both a departure from and an important supplement to both Feminist Studies and Biblical Studies Critique Scandinave de la Théologie Féministe Anglo-américaine Hanna Stenström, 2007 Scandinavian Critique of Anglo American Feminist Theology is a collection of articles by scholars in various theological disciplines from five Scandinavian or Nordic countries. The articles cover a wide range of topics including feminist sexual ethics, ecofeminist theology, gender perspectives on European welfare systems, Birgitta of Sweden, and a search for Mary beyond stereotypes. As the title implies, a critical dialogue with US feminist theology is a recurrent theme throughout the book, but the essays also include constructive work from different theological perspectives. The journal also includes a bibliography that shows the diversity of Scandinavian and Nordic feminist theological research.

Empowering Memory and Movement Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza, 2014-05-01. With Empowering Memory and Movement, Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza completes a three-volume look across her influential work and career. In Transforming Vision (2011), she drew from decades of pioneering scholarship to offer the contours of a critical feminist hermeneutic. The chapters in Changing Horizons (2013) sketched out a theory of liberation. Now the consequences for a liberating praxis are elaborated in interviews and essays that chart Schussler Fiorenza's own personal and professional history as these are intertwined with the history of the worldwide movement for emancipation and full equality. Empowering Memory and Movement looks back but also looks around at challenges and potentialities on the global scene and looks ahead to an emancipatory future with a critical and wise engagement with scripture and the interpretive tradition always at the center.

Feminist Frameworks and the Bible L. Juliana Claassens, Carolyn J. Sharp, 2017-10-19. This volume on intercultural biblical interpretation includes essays by feminist scholars from Botswana, Germany, New Zealand, Nigeria, South Africa, and the United States. Reading from a rich variety of socio-cultural locations, contributors present their hermeneutical frameworks for interpretation of Hebrew Bible texts, each framework grounded in the writer's journey of professional or social formation and serving as a prism or optic for feminist critical analysis. The volume hosts a lively conversation about the nature and significance of biblical interpretation in a global context, focusing on issues at the nexus of operations of power, textual ambiguity, and intersectionality. Engaged here are notions of biblical authority and postures of dissent, women's agency, discernment, rivalry, and alliance in ancient and contemporary contexts, ideological constructions of sexuality and power, interpretations related to indigeneity, racial identity, interethnic intimacy, and violence in colonial contexts, theologies of the feminine, divine, and feminist understandings of the sacred, convictions about interdependence and conditions of flourishing for all beings in creation, and ethics of resistance positioned over against dehumanization in political, theological, and hermeneutical praxes. Through their textual and contextual engagements, contributors articulate a broad spectrum of feminist insights into the possibilities for emancipatory visions of community.

Women and Men in the Fourth Gospel Margaret Beirne, 2004-12-10. The fourth gospel presents the reader with an early Christian text in which women and men are treated as a discipleship of equals, as this term is broadly understood in the work of Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza, but qualified with respect to her discussion of the meaning of equality when applied to gender. Specifically, the gospel contains six examples of gender pairs of characters, a widely accepted Lukan feature. The members of each pair are portrayed in a parallel or contrasting faith encounter with the Johannine Jesus which is of substantial theological importance to the gospel's stated purpose John 20:31. The six pairs are the mother of Jesus 2:1-11 and the royal official 4:46-54, Nicodemus 3:1-12 and the Samaritan woman 4:4-42, the man born blind 9:1-41 and Martha 11:1-54, Mary of Bethany and Judas 12:1-8, the mother of Jesus and the beloved disciple 19:25-27, Mary Magdalene 20:11-18 and Thomas 20:24-29.

Key Theological Thinkers

Svein Rise, 2016-04-22. The 20th and 21st Centuries have been characterized by theologians and philosophers rethinking theology and revitalizing the tradition. This unique anthology presents contributions from leading contemporary theologians including Rowan Williams, Fergus Kerr, Aidan Nichols, G. R. Evans, and Tracey Rowland who offer portraits of over fifty key theological thinkers in the modern and postmodern era. Distinguished by its broad ecumenical perspective, this anthology spans arguably one of the most creative periods in the history of Christian theology and includes thinkers from all three Christian traditions: Protestant, Catholic, and Orthodox. Each individual portrait in this anthology includes a biographical introduction, an overview of theological or philosophical writing, presentation of key thoughts, and contextual placing of the thinker within 20th Century religious discourse. Overview articles explore postmodern theology, radical orthodoxy, ecumenical theology, feminist theology, and liberation theology. A final section includes portraits of important thinkers who have influenced Christian thought from other fields, not least from Continental philosophy and literature.

Have Mercy on Me

Glenna Jackson, 2002-12-01. Matthew's gospel begins and ends with the Jewish-Gentile debate, and at the heart of both the issue and the gospel is the story of the Canaanite woman. It is a story that reveals tension between Jews and proselytes in Matthew's community and responds to the question: What must one do to be a member of the community? This study focuses on the stereotype of the woman as a Canaanite, as well as Matthew's sources and the form of the story. The conclusion is that the story reflects a reinforcement of Jewish law that allows gentiles to attain membership in the Matthean community, thus continuing the Jewish tradition that allows gentiles into the faith.
