Shattered Night:

Shattered Bryan Dixon, 2021-10-28 It is the trying seasons of our lives that really test our character and reveals what we are made of This cliché motivational tag line sounds all well and good until you are actually in the middle of that season and feel like giving up In this nonfiction account Bryan Dixon reveals how the trying seasons of our lives are extremely personal and thus very dissimilar to anyone else's However the spiritual psychological and emotional damage that surfaces as a result of it often remains constant It was the trying season of his life that Bryan thought would break him and maybe even his family that he realized that the pain caused by such seasons are directly related to the matters of our hearts In this he claims that for the first time in his life he pursued God not because it was the right Christian thing to do but out of genuine need and desperation Bryan concluded that so many of our trying seasons are directly related to the actions of others If this is the case the only path to healing from these seasons of trials is something that Christians claim we do consistently when in reality it goes against our very human nature forgiveness When you can reflect back on the Shattered seasons of your life with a spiritual lens you will discover the truth that God truly does use our broken pieces The Dark Ellen Datlow, 2023-11-14 This award winning horror anthology is the yardstick by which future ghost fiction will be measured featuring Tanith Lee Joyce Carol Oates and others Publishers Weekly starred review Award winning anthologist Ellen Datlow praised by William Gibson as the genre's sharpest assembler of strange dark fictions is determined to prove that ghost stories still possess the power to chill modern readers to the marrow So she reached out to a list of varied and talented authors and invited them to scare the heck out of her The resulting anthology redefines the ghost story venturing beyond the accustomed tropes and into horror's true realm the unknown The Dark takes a nuanced and disquieting look at the tormented and unquiet dead the darkness in us the living and the sometimes tenuous boundary between the two Under the covers of The Dark you will find a gathering of sixteen unique ghost stories deftly penned by authors versed in the argot of the damned including Ramsey Campbell Jeffrey Ford Glen Hirshberg Kelly Link Sharyn McCrumb Lucius Shepard and Gahan Wilson This is the stuff nightmares are made of Winner of the International Horror Guild Award for Best Anthology of the Year Munsey's Magazine for ..., 1915 Munsey's Magazine, 1914 Recounting the Memories of Bangladesh's Liberation War Smruti S. Pattanaik, 2024-02-08 This book encapsulates the creation of Bangladesh with stories of some of those who made it happen from the perspectives of people who fought for recognition of Bangla as one of the state languages of Pakistan those who brought the stories of war to life as it progressed through the Swadhin Bangla Betar Kendro operations by valiant military men sacrifices of Birangonas women of valour whose contribution to the liberation of Bangladesh has often been neglected martyrs who laid down their lives for the birth of the nation and those who worked among the freedom fighters and refugees and kept their morale high The emergence of Bangladesh in 1971 shaped both the nation and its narratives that revolved around partition of the subcontinent earlier in 1947 The history of Bangladesh was rewritten from the people's perspective

The struggle of individuals and families who contributed to the liberation of Bangladesh is etched in blood and it is but natural that their perspectives would inform those interested in studying the history of liberation in a larger context More than fifty years have passed since Bangladesh was liberated Yet stories of individual suffering sacrifices and contributions illustrate how people endured the repression inflicted by the Pakistan Army on them and yet fought gallantly Three million were killed 2 million were raped and 10 million became refugees in India Bangladesh's liberation war also represents the struggle of a people to preserve their culture and identity This book captures all these and much more bringing in reminiscences of what 1971 represented to those who contributed directly to the war of liberation The book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of politics and international relations partition studies South Asian studies and refugee and diaspora studies The chapters in this book were originally published in Strategic Analysis

To Soar with the Eagles Sidney Bolick, 2002 To Soar With The Eagles is the sequel to the author's first book Mama's Boarding House picking up where Mama's Boarding House leaves off His new book follows his training as a pilot in the Royal Canadian Air Force in 1941 and his World War II service in Europe with both the Royal Air Force and the United States Army Eighth Air Force from 1942 through 1944 Returning to the United States in November of 1944 after having been shot down on a bombing mission over Germany being interned in Switzerland and escaping from there he ends the war in the Air Transport Command flying four engine transport planes on the run from California to Hawaii and the Central Pacific Islands This book is not about heroes although there are certainly some heroes in it Rather it is about ordinary young men like the author who when thrust into the maelstrom of war somehow found the courage and fortitude to face and overcome the dangers and challenges that confronted them Students of World War II and those simply curious about it will find that it was not all fighting and bloodshed For every minute spent in actual combat there were hours and days of training and preparation Some of the most interesting parts of this book are the author's descriptions of his training from learning to march in step to preparing for his first solo flight in a little Tiger Moth biplane Reading almost like a diary To Soar With The Eagles follows the author's footsteps from the afternoon in June of 1941 when he steps down from the Greyhound Bus in Ottawa Canada until he is discharged from the United States Air Force in nineteen forty six an old veteran at the age of twenty two
