She Answered Every Call The Life Of Public Health Nurse Mona Gordon Wilson 18941981:

She Answered Every Call Douglas Baldwin,1997 In the Interval of the Wave Mary

McDonald-Rissanen,2013-12-01 Taking its title from a poem by Prince Edward Island poet Anne Compton In the Interval of the Wave is a close study of diaries written by Prince Edward Island women in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Women from both rural and urban regions of the Island recorded their lives in a genre that allowed them to play with the conventions of the language they knew. For busy farm wives their quotidian language syntax and choice of topic appear simple whereas for the urban elite like Margaret Gray Lord and Wanda Wyatt the erudition of their diaries suggests a more leisured existence. Mary McDonald Rissanen argues that the initial reception of the text its physical appearance handwriting gaps and flood of words provides interesting insights for understanding the circumstances of Prince Edward Island women from times past. Intertextual readings of the diaries alongside other cultural artifacts such as paintings histories folk stories and songs embellish the idiosyncratic diary discourse. Diaries enabled women to write their voices create a subjective identity and redefine their place in the world. In the Interval of the Wave exposes lives lived and recorded in a special moment and place never far from the rhythm of the sea.

Secondary Sources in the History of Canadian Medicine Charles G.

Roland,Jacques Bernier,2010-11-22 Volume Two of this retrospective bibliography is both a continuation and an expansion of Volume One 1984. It contains references to Canadian medical historical literature published between 1984 and 1998 and also includes much additional material published prior to 1984. Finally it substantially enlarges the content of French language material. Every effort has been made to be as inclusive as possible of articles theses book chapters and books both in English and in French relating to the history of medicine. No single electronic source can replace this bibliography. The contents are divided into three sections. The first is a listing of material expressly biographical. Section two lists material under a wide variety of subject headings related to medicine and the third is a complete listing of the authors who have contributed these articles. Simply organized and easy to use this bibliography will be of value to historians archivists librarians and anyone interested in the history of medicine.

Occupied St John's Steven High,2010-10-12 In January 1941 the hulking twenty one thousand ton troopship Edmund B Alexander docked in St John's harbor carrying a thousand American soldiers sent to join the thousands of Canadian troops protecting Newfoundland against attack by Germany. France had fallen Great Britain was fighting for its survival and Newfoundland then a dominion of Britain was North America's first line of defence. Although the German invasion never came St John's found itself occupied by both Allied Canadian and American forces.

Labour in the Laboratory Peter Twohig,2005-05-04 Labour in the Laboratory is also about the ways in which health care work has been organized. Twohig reveals that many health care workers fulfilled multiple roles challenging traditional ideas of professional boundaries and exclusive control over particular tasks. Using evidence from the Maritime provinces he challenges assumptions about health care work and hospital development throughout Canada and beyond.
