Doughnuts for God Tee Lander, 2024-01-05 Doughnuts for God is a novel set during the momentous times of the early twentieth century The horrors of World War I the fear sorrow danger and suffering were beyond anything the five young women of the Salvation Army could imagine when they committed themselves to God's service But when the United States entered the war they felt called to follow the path of their charismatic and somewhat mysterious commander Captain Flora Green confident in her leadership and God's hand on their lives They all bonded together during their service as Doughnut Dollies in the battlefields of France and afterward in hospitals caring for the influenza victims back home while each of them coped with the aftereffects of the war's impact on their lives

Choosing to Live Not to Die Kerri C. van Lanten, 2018-12-21 Choosing to Live delves deep into the loss and pain that someone experiences while making a choice to end their own life It also allows a loving daughter Jennifer to give you her perspective on losing her mom as a young teen and offers insights about Ingrid Jen's mom This book also explores the pain felt from losing a family member from cancer a brother killed in Vietnam and a sudden death of a parent It also touches on the loss felt from losing someone thru the ending of a relationship

THE WOMEN WHO MADE ME SAMEER ANZAR, 2025-07-16 Lyrical philosophical and quietly devastating this novel is a tribute to the invisible shaping of men by the women who pass through their lives It is about tenderness About staying soft And about becoming whole even in fragments

The Hidden Revelation Morson Livingston, 2015-07-10 This book The Hidden Revelation started out because of my search for knowledge and my in depth studies of various religions I realized that we are more alike than we are different through that search I realized that the major religions of the world have more similarities than differences yet we think we are so different from each other Various parts of the world practices various religions and spiritual teachings and at the core the very message some traditions and some practices are one and the same Then why do we fight in the name of religion Why do we kill in the name of religion Why do we look down at some look up at some and don't look at some at all Why do we discriminate and think we are better The basis for this book though not all encompassing seeks to highlight how the undertone of religions in the world are the same How at the core we are all seeking the same things in life which is peace love harmony contentment happiness and a connection to a power bigger than and greater than anyone of us This book shows how no matter what religion we belong too yes there are differences but the similarities far outweighs them So the question arises again Why do we fight why do we hate If we are all so alike we should be living in harmony we should be at peace we should be happy the beauty is we can all have that We just need to put our minor differences aside and connect at a heart level at a spiritual level and see God in each other Read the book and you would journey into a world where it is somewhat of a Utopia but we need that in order to see the big picture and to understand love in the Universe The settings used to describe various religions and practices also takes you on a travel and you get to picture parts of the world you may have on your bucket list Even some world class travelers who have visited some of these places might also be able to see it from another perspective If anything at all you would find at least one nugget to help improve your life and your perspective Spread love and unity Object Relations Individual Therapy Jill Savege Scharff, David E. Scharff, M.D., 2000-12-01 Emphasizing the transformational possibilities that grow out of their relational model of therapy David E and Jill Savege Scharff invite us into the territory of interactive journeys with individual patients A contemporary classic THE ECHO OF A FOOTFALL Patricia Scampion, 2019-11-19 In 1926 having cared for her sick mother on her own for some years 16 year old Mary gives birth to a baby boy in the Workhouse Abandoned by her mother unsupported by the child's father and behaving in ways the Workhouse finds difficult to manage her baby is taken from her and she is sent to the local mental hospital previously the lunatic asylum Here with the help of other inmates and encouraged by an ambitious young woman seeking her vocation as a nurse she begins a long process of discovery and development learning to read and write and then to cook and cater for the staff and patients in the institution that becomes her home Set against a backdrop of changes in attitude to and treatments for mental illness and reflecting developments in post war societal structures particularly those involving immigration from the Empire Mary's story spans over 50 years as discharged from the hospital she continues to strive to find her identity to understand where she belongs and ultimately to find her baby While the influence of the Great War on the lives of those who survived it echoes over the lives of the generations that follow Mary yearns for a caring and tolerant community to support the family she finally creates for herself Off the Top of My Head Adelaide S. McLeod, 2007-11 From award winning Boise author Adelaide McLeod comes a rollicking look at life in the west past and present Told with Scottish verve and humor these enchanting essays offer a glimpse into a life fully lived McLeod's elegant writing offers the clear voice of a masterful storyteller with a questioning mind and a sympathetic heart Dennis Held Editor and author of Betting on the Night In vignette like style Adelaide McLeod has taken events and locations from her childhood through adulthood from her back alley to the mountains of Peru and extrapolated them into real insights for both her and the reader Her ability to make a helix of the arcane around the mundane through her awareness of generational differences between value systems is most impressive Dr Wallace K Pond Psychologist and Professor at Boise State University The Road Dance John MacKay, 2022-05-01 This edition is releasing to celebrate the release of the award winning film adaptation starring Hermione Corfield Will Fletcher and Mark Gatiss and directed by Richie Adams Cinematic release set for May 2022 in UK and Irish cinemas Winner of the Edinburgh International Film Festival Audience Award 2021 Kirsty MacLeod is a beautiful young woman coveted by all the young men of her island village She dreams of America of following the setting sun west to a better life She meets the man who dreams her dreams and promises to make them come true But then the Great War breaks out and the men must leave for battle In their honour the islanders organise a grand Road Dance That night she is raped She is left with a secret that will bring shame upon her and her family and ultimately on the child she is carrying On a night of storms and sorrow she has to make her choice and it is no choice at all Gracie's Surrender Blossom Turner,2022-04-27 Helping the orphan children in Richmond just might overturn everything Gracie thought she knew including the value of love Gracie Williams has always had an adventurous streak which led her from her home in the Shenandoah Valley to Richmond Virginia where she can devote her life to the orphan children Though her beauty has brought on the advances of many men she has no plans to marry and finds suitors an unfortunate irritation she doesn't have time for much to her parents chagrin When she befriends Matthew Weston the mature and serious orphanage superintendent she confides in him and believes he shares her goals Neither are prepared for the sparks that fly Tension grows as Matthew falls in love with her yet realizes he is just another man in the long line of would be suitors A family crisis an orphan train and the plight of a sweet orphan named Emma throw the couple together in deep and meaningful ways But will this be enough for Gracie to embrace a new way of thinking and the gift of love that only true soulmates can share Second Chance Crush Brenda St John Brown,2016-07-14 My summer in Tokyo just got a lot hotter Getting a real life chance with your old high school crush doesn't happen every day But then Finn O Leary lends me five dollars and says I can buy him a coffee sometime to pay him back I don't expect to be buying him coffee in Tokyo That's what happens when your dad takes a job in Japan and drags you along for summer break If I'd known Finn would be there too I'd have been thrilled not resentful Next thing I know we're exploring the temples and tangled streets of Tokyo together sharing painful truths about my dead mother and his sketchy past But the biggest surprise Finn doesn't think he deserves me Even as we get close he holds back while I fall faster than a penny dropped from the top of Tokyo Tower Unless I can convince him to see himself the way I see him my heart is going to get crushed
