Simurgh A Journey In Search Of The Truth:

Simurgh Azar Aryanpour, 2004-04-22 Simurgh is a free adaptation of The Conference of the Birds a Persian classic written in late 12th century by a mystic poet named Attar. All the birds of the world gather before Hoopoe to seek her advice in finding their divine king. Hoopoe informs them that they could unite with the King Simurgh on a very distant mountain but the journey would be extremely hazardous. Only through love, faith and self denial the pilgrims could achieve their goal. Thousands of birds give up their familiar world to search for Simurgh with Hoopoe. After traveling seven treacherous continents only thirty birds reach the promised mountain and realize that Simurgh is none other than themselves. While maintaining the spirit of the original work, Simurgh presents a more informative and enticing story for contemporary readers. Ten primary birds have been revised and twenty more carefully studied and added to the characters for the purpose of diversity. The seven Spiritual Valleys of the original narrative have been replaced with the seven continents of the world for simplification. Simurgh is a philosophical adventure tale that combines fantasy with fact, humor with wisdom and novelty with spirituality. The story's universal appeal goes beyond all ages.

The Literature of the Iranian Diaspora Sanaz Fotouhi, 2015-04-03 The 1979 Revolution in Iran caused the migration of millions of Iranians, many of whom wrote and are still writing of their experiences. Formed at the junctions of Iranian culture, English language and Western cultures, this body of work has not only formed a unique literary space offering an insightful reflection of Iranian diasporic experiences and its shifting nature but it has also been making a unique and understudied contribution to World Literatures in English as significant as Indian, African and Asian writing in English. Sanaz Fotouhi here traces the origins of the emerging body of diasporic Iranian literature in English and uses these origins to examine the socio-political position and historical context from which they have emerged. Fotouhi brings together, introduces and analyses for the first time a significant range of diasporic Iranian writers alongside each other and alongside other diasporic literatures in English While situating this body of work through existing theories such as postcolonialism Fotouhi sheds new light on the role of Iranian literature and culture in Western literature by showing that these writings distinctively reflect experiences unique to the Iranian diaspora Analysing the relationship between Iranians and their new surroundings by drawing on theories of migration narration and identity Fotouhi examines how the literature borne out of the Iranian diaspora reconstructs maintains and negotiates their Individual and communal identities and reflects today s socio political realities This book will be vital for researchers of Middle Eastern literature and its relationship with writings from the West as well as those interested in the cultural history of the Middle East Iran in Stories : 13 Folk Legends That

 CaptivatingLegends Attar and the Persian Sufi Tradition L. Lewisohn,C. Shackle,2006-11-22 Farid al Din Attar d 1221 was the principal Muslim religious poet of the second half of the twelfth century Best known for his masterpiece Mantiq al tair or The Conference of Birds his verse is still considered to be the finest example of Sufi love poetry in the Persian language after that of Rumi Distinguished by their provocative and radical theology of love many lines of Attar s epics and lyrics are cited independently of their poems as maxims in their own right These pithy paradoxical statements are still known by heart and sung by minstrels throughout Iran Afghanistan Tajikistan and wherever Persian is spoken or understood such as in the lands of the Indo Pakistani Subcontinent Designed to take its place alongside The Ocean of the Soul the classic study of Attar by Hellmut Ritter this volume offers the most comprehensive survey of Attar s literary works to date and situates his poetry and prose within the wider context of the Persian Sufi tradition The essays in the volume are grouped in three sections and feature contributions by sixteen scholars from North America Europe and Iran which illustrate from a variety of critical perspectives the full range of Attar s monumental achievement They show how and why Attar s poetical work as well as his mystical doctrines came to wield such tremendous and formative influence over the whole of Persian Sufism Global Civilization Majid Tehranian,Daisaku Ikeda,2003-05-23 Global Civilization emerged from a series of conversations between two peace advocates of Japanese and Iranian origin It covers the encounters between Buddhist and Islamic civilizations from the 7th century to the present For all their cultural differences Buddhism and Islam share a surprising number of intrinsic similarities The topics discussed include such diverse subjects as the nature of religious faith today global ideological terrorism religious fanaticism and universal human rights Ikeda and Tehranian two important representatives of their respective faiths propose dialogue as the most effective method of conflict resolution at interpersonal intra national and international levels It is a call for tolerance for dialogue and for peace Warring Souls Roxanne Varzi,2006-05-31 DIVAn Enlightenment S. Frederick Starr,2013-10-06 The forgotten story of Central Asia s enlightenment its rise fall and enduring legacy In this sweeping and richly illustrated history S Frederick Starr tells the fascinating but largely unknown story of Central Asia s medieval enlightenment through the eventful lives and astonishing accomplishments of its greatest minds remarkable figures who built a bridge to the modern world Because nearly all of these figures wrote in Arabic they were long assumed to have been Arabs In fact they were from Central Asia drawn from the Persianate and Turkic peoples of a region that today extends from Kazakhstan southward through Afghanistan and from the easternmost province of Iran through Xinjiang China Lost Enlightenment recounts how between the years 800 and 1200 Central Asia led the world in trade and economic development the size and sophistication of its cities the refinement of its arts and above all in the advancement of knowledge in many fields Central Asians achieved signal breakthroughs in astronomy mathematics geology medicine chemistry music social science philosophy and theology among other subjects They gave algebra its name calculated the earth's diameter with unprecedented precision wrote the books that later defined European medicine and penned some of the world's greatest poetry One scholar working in Afghanistan even predicted the existence of North and South America five centuries before Columbus Rarely in history has a more impressive group of polymaths appeared at one place and time No wonder that their writings influenced European culture from the time of St Thomas Aquinas down to the scientific revolution and had a similarly deep impact in India and much of Asia Lost Enlightenment chronicles this forgotten age of achievement seeks to explain its rise and explores the competing theories about the cause of its eventual demise Informed by the latest scholarship yet written in a lively and accessible style this is a book that will surprise general readers and specialists alike

Nationalism, Islam and World Literature Mohamed-Salah Omri, 2006-09-27 The writer and politician Mahmud al Mis'adi is a figure of prime importance in the development of North African literature and cultural politics since the last war This fascinating book covers both his essays and fiction written between the 1930s and 1990s which challenge the boundaries between the sacred and irreligious in the Islamic world In addition it also examines Arabic literature and its relationship to the West

Words, Not Swords Farzaneh Milani, 2011-05-16 A woman not only needs a room of her own as Virginia Woolf wrote but also the freedom to leave it and return to it at will for a room without that right becomes a prison cell The privilege of self-directed movement the power to pick up and go as one pleases has not been a traditional right of Iranian women This prerogative has been denied them in the name of piety anatomy chastity class safety and even beauty It is only during the last 160 years that the spell has been broken and Iranian women have emerged as a moderating modernizing force Women writers have been at the forefront of this desegregating movement and renegotiation of boundaries Words Not Swords explores the legacy of sex segregation and its manifestations in Iranian literature and film and in notions of beauty and the erotics of passivity Milani expands her argument beyond Iranian culture arguing that freedom of movement is a theme that crosses frontiers and dissolves conventional distinctions of geography history and religion She makes bold connections between veiling and foot binding between Cinderella and Barbie between the figures of the female Gypsy and the witch In so doing she challenges cultural hierarchies that divert attention from key issues in the control of women across the globe
