Suffering, Obedience And The Origin Of Sin Man Kei Ho, 2010-04 This book explores the meaning of obedience based on the biblical teaching from the book of Hebrews that Jesus Christ as the Son has to learn obedience from his suffering The author delves into the various issues surrounding the nature of obedience and weaves them into a discourse on the efficient cause of the sin of the first parents He draws them together into an assertion that the fall of the first parents in the Garden of Eden is not a possible outcome it is an inevitable outcome Dr Man Kei Ho holds a Ph D from University of Wales in theology and has served as visiting lecturer at seminaries and universities in Hong Kong Philippines and China Currently he is teaching theology at the Chinese School of Theology at Tyndale Seminary in Toronto Prior to his theological training he spent over 20 years working as an engineer in high tech industries He is a registered professional engineer in the Province of Ontario Canada Sin and Obedience in the Life of the Christian Donald Lee Collins, 1957 Romans (Baker Exegetical Commentary on the New Testament) Thomas R. Moo, 1996-09-30 Paul's letter to the Romans has been called the quintessence and perfection of saving doctrine Perhaps the most challenging and thoroughly doctrinal book of the entire New Testament Romans deals with many issues that are basic to Christian theology and practice In The Epistle to the Romans respected New Testament scholar Douglas Moo provides a superb study of Paul's letter to the Roman Christians and restates the enduring message of Romans for Christians today Originally written for the Wycliffe Exegetical Commentary series this work has been substantially expanded and adapted for the NICNT series it now treats the entire book of Romans rather than the first half Based on the English text but bringing into the discussion the underlying Greek at every point this commentary focuses both on theological meaning and on contemporary significance Moo makes a contribution to the continuing debate regarding Paul's teaching on such
