Sinful Knights A Study Of Middle English Penitential Romance:

The Sinful Knights Andrea Hopkins,1990 The Sinful Knights is a detailed study of a small group of Middle English romances which concern themselves with the sin repentance and atonement of their heroes Despite being few in numbers the poems Guy of Warwick Sir Ysumbras Sir Gowther and Robert of Cisyle form a coherent and distinctive group and have never previously been studied in association with each other Andrea Hopkins finds that in this closely related group of texts the kind of penance experienced by the heroes and its treatment by the authors reflects archaic traditions and views at variance with the contemporary teaching and practice of the Church and that this surprising departure is largely determined by the nature of the kind of literature to which the poems belong romance Andrea Hopkins discusses the nature of romance and the extent to which the poems are entitled to be considered as such Detailed examination of the penitential romances illuminates other more important and frequently studied texts particularly Sir Gawain and the Green Knight Four Middle English Romances Harriet Hudson,2006-11-01 Sir Isumbras Octavian Sir Eglamour of Artois and Sir Tryamour are important works in a major literary development of the fourteenth century the flourishing of Middle English popular romance These four narratives were among the most popular all survive in multiple manuscripts and continued to circulate in prints through the sixteenth century All were composed in the northeast Midlands in the fifty years between 1325 and 1375 and they appear together in several manuscripts The tale the romances tell of exiled queens orphaned children and penitent fathers was one of the most prevalent medieval stories Sometimes called the Constance Eustace legend after two well known pious versions its influence can be seen in numerous romances Language and Piety in Middle English Romance Roger Dalrymple,2000 Analysis of pious formulae across a range of medieval romance illuminating their stylistic purpose Magic and the Supernatural in Medieval English Romance Corinne J. Saunders,2010 This study looks at a wide range of medieval English romance texts including the works of Chaucer and Malory from a broad cultural perspective to show that while they employ magic in order to create exotic escapist worlds they are also grounded in a sense of possibility and reflect a complex web of inherited and current ideas Book Jacket Middle English Romance and the Craft of Memory Jamie McKinstry,2015 An examination of the depiction and function of memory in a variety of romances including Troilus and Criseyde and Sir Gawain and the Green Knight The Year's Work in Medievalism, 2005 and 2006 Gwendolyn Morgan,2007-07-01 The Year's Work in Medievalism 2005 2006 is based upon but not restricted to the proceedings of the International Conference on Medievalism for those years The International Conference on Medievalism is organized by Gwendolyn Morgan for the International Society for the Study of Medievalism and for the subject volume Karl Fugelso of Towson University 2005 and Claire Simmons of Ohio State University 2006 This first volume of this double issue focuses on medievalism as a means of exploring gender issues and identity while the second examines the juxtaposition of modern to medieval society as a means of curing present ills Monstrous Fantasies Leila K. Norako,2024-08-15 Monstrous Fantasies asks why medieval romances reimagining the crusades ending in a Christian victory circulated in England with such abundance after the 1291 Muslim reconquest of Acre the last of the Latin crusader states in the Holy Land and what these texts reveal about the cultural anxieties of late medieval England Leila K Norako highlights the impact that the Ottoman victory and subsequent massacre of Christian prisoners at the battle of Nicopolis in 1396 had on intensifying the popularity of what she calls recovery romance These two episodes inspired a sense of urgency over the fate of the Holy Land and of Latin Christendom itself resulting in the proliferation of romances in which crusading English kings like Richard I and anachronistic legends like King Arthur not only reconquered Jerusalem but committed genocidal violence against the Muslims These romances which as Norako argues also influenced Geoffrey Chaucer's Canterbury Tales conjure fantasies of an ascendant global Christendom by rehearsing acts of conquest and cultural annihilation that were impossible to realize in the late Middle Ages Emphasizing the tension in these texts between nostalgia and anticipation that fuels their narrative momentum Monstrous Fantasies also explores how the cultural desires for European and Christian hegemony that recovery romances versified were revived in the wake of the so called wars on terror in the twenty first century in such films as Kingdom of Heaven and American Sniper
