Foundations of Christian Music Edward Foley, 2020-07-09 In the study of Christian liturgical music the first three centuries of the Christian era are foundational Seldom however does this period receive serious attention from scholars One of the reasons for this oversight is the fluid auditory environment of this period and the inadequacy of the Western concept of music to describe this environment Foundations of Christian Music addresses this lacuna by exploring the auditory environment of first century CE Judaism and emerging Christianity until the time of Constantine d 337 Through a consideration of the text styles forms performance and settings of Jewish and early Christian worship Foundations offers an unusually rich perspective on the lyrical nature of emerging Christian worship Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore ... Johns Hopkins University. Peabody Institute. Library, George Peabody Library, 1883

Cyclopaedia of Biblical, Theological, and Ecclesiastical Literature John McClintock, 1879 Catalog Kansas State Teachers College of Emporia, 1900 Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore Anonymous, 2024-01-05 Reprint of the original first published in 1883 A Commentary on the Prayer Book, Etc Richard ADAMS (Rector of St. Thomas's, Manchester.), 1876 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1977 Russian Baptists and Orthodoxy, 1960-1990 Constantine Prokhorov, 2014-01-14 Russian Baptists and the Orthodox Church have had a difficult and at times dramatic relationship over the past century and a half However the purpose of this thesis is to examine certain internal connections between these two Christian bodies Despite the evident dissimilarity in theology church practice and traditions there is common ground which has been largely unexplored A number of features inevitably brought them together such as living in the same country over a long period of time sharing a history and national roots responding to the same civic concerns and finally until recently using the same Russian Synodal translation of the Bible This thesis explores first of all the roots of the issue of Orthodox Baptist similarities and dissimilarities in the nineteenth century The remainder of the thesis focuses on 1960 to 1990 There is a chapter analyzing the way in which in significant areas Russian Baptist theology resembled Orthodox thinking This is followed by a study of church and sacraments which again shows that Russian Baptist approaches had echoes of Orthodoxy The thesis then explores Baptist liturgy showing the Orthodox elements that were present The same connections are then explored in the area of Russian Baptist communal spiritual traditions The examination of the Bible beliefs and behaviour also indicates the extent to which Russian Baptists mirrored Orthodoxy Finally there is an analysis of the popular piety of the Russian Baptists and the way in which they constructed an alternative culture The basic views of Russian Baptists between the 1960s and 1990 have been drawn from periodicals of the Russian Baptist communities and from interviews with pastors presbyters and church members who were part of these communities This often yields insights into primary theology which in relation to many issues differs from official Baptist declarations that tend to stress the more Protestant aspects of Russian Baptist life The aim of the thesis is to show that in a period in the history of the USSR when the division between the Western world and the Soviet bloc was marked there was a strong Eastern orientation among Russian Baptists This changed when the USSR came to an end Over a number of years there was mass emigration of Russian Baptists and in addition pro Western thinking gained considerable ground within the Russian Baptist community During the period examined here however it is possible to uncover a great deal of evidence of Russian Baptists participating in Orthodox theology spiritual mentality and culture

The Singer of Tales in Performance John Miles Foley, 1995 Building on his work in Traditional Oral Epic and Immanent Art the author aims to dissolve the perceived barrier between oral and written creating a theory from oral formulaic theory and the ethnography of speaking and ethnopoetics He argues that a work's word power derives from its performance and its implied traditional context Hot Hits Jeffrey Lee Brothers, 2003-07 Til Death explores the conflict that male and females experience in relationships especially marriage Part one examines the theological and moral aspects of male female relationships Part two is a love story where differing moral values clash and its consequences
