

the JONES SISTERS

ARRANGEMENTS BY
Tedd Smith

 Singing We Go

These vibrant teenagers have been singing together since early childhood. You might say that singing comes naturally for Gail, Phyllis, and Cheryl. Though they are young, they have had numerous opportunities to expand their musical horizons, particularly through the medium of radio. For several years they made their home in Liberia where their father, Reverend Howard Jones, served as evangelist with the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association. They were heard weekly on their own broadcast called SINGTIME — a program designed especially for the youth of Africa. Currently they are residing with their parents in Oberlin, Ohio, where Phyllis attends high school and Gail and Cheryl attend college.

This joyful new recording by the Jones Sisters makes favorite hymns sparkle anew. And the youthful fervor of their voices seems to illuminate every note they sing. You are sure to find their singing style very likable.

The girls are accompanied by Todd Smith. Little needs to be said about Mr. Smith's ability. He is one of the finest keyboardists in the field on several occasions today. Todd Smith has been playing with the Billy Graham Team since 1964.
