Singing The Mozart Requiem:

Singing the Mozart Requiem Ingrid Wendt, 1987 Requiem, K. 626 Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, Franz Xaver Süssmayer, Friedrich Brissler, 2008-07-24 SATB soli SATB Chorus Piano ISMN 979 0 800001 14 7 Mozart's Requiem Christoph Wolff, 1994 When was the score of the Requiem completed is a question that everyone has asked but Wolff goes on to ask Where do the technical and stylistic premises for the Requiem lie and to what extent could these be taken into account after Mozart's death This question is rich in implications central to the uniqueness of the work and virtually undiscussed in the Mozart literature Thomas Bauman co author of Mozart's Operas Mozart's Requiem C. R. F. Maunder, 1988 When Mozart died in 1791 he left unfinished the score of his Requiem At the request of his widow the work was completed by Mozart's pupil and assistant Franz Xaver Süssmayer Unfortunately Süssmayer was a musician of limited technique and ability his poor orchestration has frequently been criticized and considerable controversy has surrounded the question of whether the movements missing from Mozart's autograph were entirely Süssmayer's work or whether he might have based them on Mozart's sketches or oral instructions This book is an intensive new study of the background to the Requiem and the music itself Maunder who after many years research has recently completed a new edition of the Requiem that attempts to be more faithful to Mozart's original intentions presents detailed arguments concerning the authenticity of the doubtful movements the editorial decisions he faced in preparing the new edition the settings by other composers that may have influenced Mozart and the problems of performance practice He concludes that Süssmayer probably did write the disputed movements but may have used a now lost Mozart sketch in composing the Agnus Dei This fascinating new study of one of classical music's best loved works will interest a wide range of music students and scholars and general readers Musical Times and Singing Class Circular, 1898 A Manual of Music Wilber M.
