Singular Modernity:

A Singular Modernity Fredric Jameson, 2014-06-17 The concepts of modernity and modernism are amongst the most controversial and vigorously debated in contemporary philosophy and cultural theory In this intervention Fredric Jameson perhaps the most influential and persuasive theorist of postmodernity excavates and explores these notions in a fresh and illuminating manner The extraordinary revival of discussions of modernity as well as of new theories of artistic modernism demands attention in its own right It seems clear that the provisional disappearance of alternatives to capitalism plays its part in the universal attempt to revive modernity as a social ideal Yet the paradoxes of the concept illustrate its legitimate history and suggest some rules for avoiding its misuse as well In this major interpretation of the problematic Jameson concludes that both concepts are tainted but nonetheless yield clues as to the nature of the phenomena they purported to theorize His judicious and vigilant probing of both terms which can probably not be banished at this late date helps us clarify our present political and artistic situations

Robert T. Tally, 2014-06-20 Fredric Jameson is the most important Marxist critic in the world today While consistently operating at the cutting edge of literary and cultural studies Jameson has remained committed to seemingly old fashioned philosophical discourses most notably dialectical criticism and utopian thought In Fredric Jameson The Project of Dialectical Criticism Robert Tally surveys Jameson's entire oeuvre from his early studies of Sartre and formal criticism through his engagements with postmodernism and globalisation to his recent readings of Hegel Marx and the valences of the dialectic The book is both a comprehensive critical guide to Jameson's theoretical project and itself a convincing argument for the power of dialectical criticism to understand the world today Contemporary Asian Modernities Eva Kit-Wah Man, 2010 This book is a collection of selected essays presented at the International Symposium on Contemporary Asian Modernities Transnationality Interculturality and Hybridity hosted by the Humanities Programme of Hong Kong Baptist University in September 2006 As modernity has been used to describe the cultural economic and socio political conditions in the Western worlds the time in which we now live and the Asian countries where capitalistic transformation is extensively carried out are already articulating their own descriptions The essays collected here discuss the notions of contemporary Asia and modernities as they relate to the global trend of adopting capitalism They probe into questions related to modernity as well as global modernity ranging from China in particular to Asia in general As reflected in the pluriversal meanings in the title the book endeavours to make critical inquiries into the concept of modernity modernities from different perspectives

Questions of Modernity Timothy Mitchell, 2000 Well known contributors offer an illuminating look at how modernity develops in non Western contexts Modernity has always laid claim to universal certainty which meant assigning a different and lesser significance to anything deemed purely local non Western or lacking a universal expression This book makes those very non Western non universal elements the tools for fashioning a more complex rigorous and multifaceted understanding of how the modern comes about Focusing on the making of modernity outside the West eight leading anthropologists historians and political theorists explore the production of new forms of politics sensibility temporality and selfhood in locations ranging from nineteenth century Bengal to contemporary Morocco Topics include the therapeutics of colonial medical practice the multiple registers of popular film television serials and their audiences psychiatrists and their patients the iconic figure of the young widow and the emergence of new political forms beyond the grasp of civil society Contributors Lila Abu Lughod Columbia U Dipesh Chakrabarty U of Chicago Partha Chatterjee Centre for Studies in Social Sciences Calcutta Veena Das U of Delhi Nicholas B Dirks Columbia U Stefania Pandolfo UC Berkeley and Gyan Prakash Princeton U

Middlebrow Modernism Melinda J. Cooper, 2022-10-01 Eleanor Dark 1901 85 is one of Australia s most innovative 20th century writers Her extensive oeuvre includes ten novels published from the early 1930s to the late 1950s and represents a significant engagement with global modernity from a unique position within settler culture Yet Dark s contribution to 20th century literature has been undervalued in the fields of both Australian literary studies and world literature Although two biographies have been written about her life there has been no book length critical study of her writing published since 1976 Middlebrow Modernism counters this neglect by providing the first full length critical survey of Eleanor Dark s writing to be published in over four decades Focusing on the fiction that Dark produced during the interwar years and reading this in the context of her larger body of work this book positions Dark s writing as important to the study of Australian literature and global modernism Melinda Cooper argues that Dark s fiction exhibits a distinctive aesthetic of middlebrow modernism which blends attributes of literary modernism with popular fiction It seeks to mediate and reconcile apparent binaries modernism and mass culture liberal humanism and experimental aesthetics settler society and international modernity The term middlebrow modernism also captures the way Dark negotiated cosmopolitan commitments with more place based attachments to nation and local community within the mid 20th century Middlebrow Modernism posits that Dark s fiction and the broader phenomenon of Australian modernism offer essential case studies for larger debates operating within global modernist and world literature studies providing perspectives these fields might otherwise miss

Multilingualism and Modernity Laura Lonsdale, 2017-11-22 This book explores multilingualism as an imaginative articulation of the experience of modernity in twentieth century Spanish and American literature It argues that while individual multilingual practices are highly singular literary multilingualism exceeds the conventional bounds of modernism to become emblematic of the modern age The book explores the confluence of multilingualism and modernity in the theme of barbarism examining the significance of this theme to the relationship between language and modernity in the Spanish speaking world and the work of five authors in particular These authors Ram n del Valle Incl n Ernest Hemingway Jos Mar a Arguedas Jorge Sempr n and Juan Goytisolo explore the stylistic and conceptual potential of the interaction between languages including Spanish French English Galician

Quechua and Arabic their work reflecting the eclecticism of literary multilingualism while revealing its significance as a mode of response to modernity Modernist Cultural Studies Catherine Driscoll, 2010-01-03 For many scholars cultural studies is viewed as a product of postmodern criticism and as the antithesis of modernism In this brilliant work Catherine Driscoll argues persuasively that we must view what we call cultural studies as a direct continuation of the innovations and concerns of modernism and the modernists In making her case Driscoll provides a fresh take on arguments some seemingly unresolvable that pivot on modernism's desire for novelty Defining modernity as a critical attitude rather than a time period she describes the many things these ostensibly different fields of inquiry have in common and reveals why cultural studies must be viewed as a fundamentally modernist project Casting a wide net across the shared interests of modernism and cultural studies including cinema fiction fashion art and popular music Driscoll explores such themes as love and work adolescence and everyday life the significance of the everyday the popular as a field of power and the importance of representation to identity and experience in modernity
