Long Shot Odyssey Walter Bruno,1996 Shadow Philosophy: Plato's Cave and Cinema Nathan Andersen,2014-04-16

Shadow Philosophy Plato s Cave and Cinema is an accessible and exciting new contribution to film philosophy which shows that to take film seriously is also to engage with the fundamental questions of philosophy Nathan Andersen brings Stanley Kubrick s film A Clockwork Orange into philosophical conversation with Plato s Republic comparing their contributions to themes such as the nature of experience and meaning the character of justice the contrast between appearance and reality the importance of art and the impact of images At the heart of the book is a novel account of the analogy between Plato s allegory of the cave and cinema developed in conjunction with a provocative interpretation of the most powerful image from A Clockwork Orange in which the lead character is strapped to a chair and forced to watch violent films Key features of the book include a comprehensive bibliography of suggested readings on Plato on film on philosophy and on the philosophy of film a list of suggested films that can be explored following the approach in this book including brief descriptions of each film and suggestions regarding its philosophical implications a summary of Plato s Republic book by book highlighting both dramatic context and subject matter Offering a close reading of the controversial classic film A Clockwork Orange and an introductory account of the central themes of the philosophical classic The Republic this book will be of interest to both scholars and students of philosophy and film as well as to readers of Plato and fans of Stanley Kubrick THE ODYSSEY

Hazen,1992 Why do smokers claim that the first cigarette of the day is the best What is the biological basis behind some heavy drinkers belief that the hair of the dog method alleviates the effects of a hangover Why does marijuana seem to affect one's problem solving capacity Intoxicating Minds is in the author's words a grand excavation of drug myth Neither extolling nor condemning drug use it is a story of scientific and artistic achievement war and greed empires and religions and lessons for the future Ciaran Regan looks at each class of drugs describing the historical evolution of their use explaining how they work within the brain's neurophysiology and outlining the basic pharmacology of those substances From a consideration of the effect of stimulants such as caffeine and nicotine and the reasons and consequences of their sudden popularity in the seventeenth century the book moves to a discussion of more modern stimulants such as cocaine and ecstasy In addition Regan explains how we process memory the nature of thought disorders and therapies for treating depression and schizophrenia Regan then considers psychedelic drugs and their perceived mystical properties and traces the history of placebos to ancient civilizations Finally Intoxicating Minds considers the physical consequences of our co-evolution with drugs how they have altered our very being and offers a glimpse of the brave new world of drug therapies

A Guide to Hellenistic Literature Kathryn Gutzwiller, 2008-04-15 This book is a guide to the extraordinarily diverse literature of the Hellenistic period A guide to the literature of the Hellenistic age from the death of Alexander the Great in 323 BCE to the Battle of Actium in 31 BC Provides overviews of the social political intellectual and literary historical contexts in which Hellenistic literature was produced Introduces the major writers and genres of the period Provides information about style meter and languages to aid readers with no prior knowledge of the language in understanding technical aspects of literary Greek Distinctive in its coverage of current issues in Hellenistic criticism including audience reception the political and social background and Hellenistic theories of literature Virgil's Cinematic Art Kirk Freudenburg, 2022-12-27 Through a series of close readings centered primarily on Virgil's Aeneid Kirk Freudenburg shows that the experiential effects that Virgil puts into play do serious narrative work of their own by structuring lines of sight both visual and emotive and shifting them about in ways that move readers interpellated as viewers into and out of the visual and emotional worlds of the story's characters

Poems of Charles Alan Long Charles Alan Long, 2017-05-16 This book is a compilation of poems written by inspiration by Professor Emeritus Charles Alan Long that reflect a long career of scholarship with many historical and lyrical expressions hidden by layers of research and teaching A chronology of sorts it begins in Dr Long's youth in college over sixty years ago and continued until he was 80 as a teacher professor of research museum director soldier with success in bio mathematics natural history as a philosopher critic and member of a progressive family Some current practical problems studied from the vantage of evolutionist ecologist biblical critic naturalist and offended American include the sudden rise of marijuana political rhetoric usury beyond decency and by liberals and conservatives alike the erosion of personal liberty especially of speech and universities But the poems from laments to loves to joy to pathos and death poverty to wealth nature art music and poetry itself are presented in almost musical sadness or joy The history of an intellectual's scholarly travels whereas some poems are for children some for society

some attacking evils some praising good people with merit even in deference to religions many nations and his beloved homeland The poems are in large part visits into nostalgia and sentiment Cultures of many peoples in many nations are described as are many situations in America There is of course an American core but surely this poet loves good peoples and the history of Greece France Scotland Africa Russia and other places Loves genuine for many women inspired many lovely poems a lot of romance But profound in its argument is love for the poor and unhappy people love for art nature philosophy even sports science and math even religions It becomes unified by reason his active caring and his bursts of singing Much attention is given to geography history science and nature Poetry Harriet Monroe,1948 Harbingers of Books to

Come Dave Oliphant,2009-09 The first major autobiography by a Texas poet this noteworthy account traces the life and times of a poet publisher critic and teacher from his childhood to the present day This remarkable life is examined through the works it produced 25 books in the fields of poetry fiction translation jazz history and book reviewing Proving that the literary and intellectual life in Texas far surpasses the state s stereotypes this record shows how the poet was instrumental in connecting Texas with many Latin American writers as well as with a wide world of music A Grammar of Cinepoiesis

Silvia Carlorosi,2015-09-17 Cinepoiesis or cinema of poetry strikes us as a strange combination a phrase we initially read as an oxymoron Poetry is often associated with the abstract and the evocative while cinema suggests the concrete and the visible Yet various visual media use strong and often contradictory images whose symbolic force and visual impact stimulate the public s attention Abstract and emblematic images surround us and the poetic nature of these images lies in the way they speak beyond their apparent limits and stimulate connections on a subjective level A prosaic world like the contemporary one though no longer seems to hold a place for poetry We are inundated by the need to tell and to be told the need to build our lives through narratives But it is precisely here in this contemporary landscape that the cinema of poetry attempts to establish a space for itself exchanging the productive and industrial apparatus for the poetic stimulus of a sensory experience A Grammar of Cinepoiesis is a theoretical and practical guide to the cinema of poetry to its tools and forms It examines how the language of a cinema of poetry works both in its theoretical foundations and in its modes of representation and how it takes shape in the exemplary practice of Italian authors such as Pier Paolo Pasolini Michelangelo Antonioni Federico Fellini and the more recent Franco Piavoli and Matteo Garrone
