Long Term Care And The Law:

Long-term Care and the Law George D. Pozgar,1992 This valuable handbook covers all facets of the legal environment of long term care administration in a clear non technical fashion Long-Term Care and the Law Marshall B. Kapp,2014 The law exerts a significant influence on the quality accessibility and affordability of long term care LTC services that are or that at some future time may be needed by older Americans The interaction between the legal system and the various participants involved in the provision and receipt of LTC consumers family members providers payers regulators and advocates is complex and multi faceted This chapter written for a textbook on long term care attempts to outline some of the most salient aspects of this interaction so as to equip the reader both to more fully and accurately appreciate the roles of the law and lawyers in shaping the long term care environment and to evaluate the actual impact of the legal system on those whom it seeks to benefit empower oversee or punish Specific topics covered include the sources and functions of legal authority specific forms of legal regulation pertaining to long term care legal implications of consumer driven home and community based LTC and behavioral manifestations of the regulatory environment Long-term Care Advocacy Eric M. Carlson,1999 Providing everything an attorney needs to advise elderly clients and their families about nursing residential and continuing care facilities this text offers a practical approach to issues such as selecting the best type of facility admissions policies and agreements Effective Management of Long-term Care Facilities Douglas A. Singh,2005 This outstanding new text provides a clear understanding of how the ideal long term care facility should operate and how prospective as well as currently employed nursing home administrators can hone their skills to deliver quality services cost effectively Medical Liability in Long Term Care United States. Congress. Senate. Special Committee on Aging,2004

Long-Term Care The Editors of Nolo,2022-11-29 This book discusses how to choose options for home care assisted living and nursing homes get the most out of Medicaid Medicare and veterans programs evaluate whether long term care insurance is worth the significant expense consider the special needs of loved ones with dementia or Alzheimer s and protect loved ones from elder fraud Long-Term Care in Transition David Barton Smith,2000-09-30 Long Term Care in Transition is a carefully documented case study of the changes that took place in the regulation of nursing homes in New York between 1975 and 1980 It covers the history of the regulatory offensive in New York and strategies of control and their effectiveness touching on such subjects as professional standards rate setting reimbursement criminal prosecution and consumers Invaluable reading for health care professionals involved in the management of nursing homes it concludes with some of the lessons learned from this experience for the health sector as a whole While regulations have changed since 1980 David B Smith has written a new preface which puts the study in perspective Book jacket Ethics, Law, and Aging Review, Volume 11 Marshall B. Kapp,2005-09-01 We are now engaged in a movement that de emphasizes the reliance on institutional forms of long term care for disabled persons needing ongoing daily living assistance and converges on the use of non institutional service providers and residential settings In this latest edition of Ethics Law and Aging Review Kapp and ten expert contributors help us examine the forces and potential for changing the long term care industry both positively and negatively and address this paradigm shift from the impersonal public psychiatric institutions of the 1960s and 1970s to the present day assisted living environments that have been fueled by economic social political and legal forces Most importantly this volume identifies obstacles to change and enlighten service providers advocates and key policy makers to the pitfalls that can largely interfere with positive outcomes as a result of long term care deinstitutionalization Topics explored include Community based alternatives for older adults with serious mental illness Failing consumer directed alternatives to nursing homes Ethics of Medicare privatization Long-term Care Insurance Standards United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Commerce, Consumer Protection, and Competitiveness, 1992 Long-term Care and Medicaid United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Health, 2005
