Louis Guttman on Theory and Methodology Louis Guttman,1994 Conceptual Categories and the Structure of Reality: Theoretical and Empirical Approaches Paul M.W. Hackett,2019-01-21 In this eBook Conceptual Categories and the Structure of Reality the title very well describes the book's content Within the book's pages a selection of academics from a variety of human behaviour human social science and humanities disciplines write about their research all of which can be typified by their consideration of how categories are used to structure understanding of phenomena These authors have considered how reality may be understood through notions such as categorial and structural ontologies part whole relationships mereology the qualitative quantitative and philosophical use of the facet theory approach to research mapping sentences and declarative mapping sentence hermeneutics concepts and constructs similarities and differences The resulting collection presents the foregoing conceptual and empirical approaches to knowledge development in general chapter 1 Phillips and Wislons review of compositional syntax in bird calls chapter 2 neurobehavioral decision systems chapter 4 Foxall representations of human psychological processes chapter 5 Juan Miguel Lopez Gil Rosa Gil Roberto Garcia free associations mirroring and its relation to self and world related concepts chapter 6 Martin Kučka Radek Trnka Ale Antonín Kubná Jiříka local knowledge and going beyond the data chapter 7 Steven Phillips categorial etiologies of speech sound disorders chapter 8 Kelly Farquharson similarity of visual appearance chapter 9 Nao Nakatsuji Hisayasu Ihara Takeharu Seno Hiroshi Ito and a consideration of the seminal writing of David Oderberg's on the categorial classification of reality chapter 10 Hackett

Louis Guttman on Theory and Methodology Louis Guttman,1994 Drawing on a large number of periodicals books and unpublished papers this volume offers a representative overview of Guttman's work and demonstrates its utility for cumulative theory development in sociology psychology education statistics and other disciplines

Psychology and Philosophy of Abstract Art Paul M.W. Hackett,2016-05-25 This book examines how we perceive and understand abstract art in contrast to artworks that represent reality Philosophical psychological and neuroscience research including the work of philosopher Paul Crowther are considered and out of these approaches a complex model is developed to account for this experience The understanding embodied in this model is rooted in facet theory mapping sentences and partially ordered analyses which together provide a comprehensive understanding of the perceptual experience of abstract art

The Jews of France Today Erik Cohen,2011-08-11 Based on a national empirical survey this book presents a rich portrait of the Jews of France today An expanded translation of a French edition the book explores the demographics identity communal participation social issues and values of this community

The Perceptual Structure of Three-Dimensional Art Paul M.W. Hackett,2016-12-26 This book deals with philosophical aspects regarding the perception of spatial relationships in two and three dimensional art It provides a structural understanding of how art is perceived within the space created by the artwork and employs a mapping sentence and partial order mereology to model perceptual structure It reviews the writing of philosophers such as Paul Crowther and art theorists such as Krauss to establish the need for this research The ontological model established Paul Crowther is used to guide an interactive account of his ontology in the interpretations of the perceptual process of three dimensional abstract art to allow the formulation of a more comprehensive philosophical account The book uniquely combines structuralist and post structuralist approaches to artistic perception and understanding with a conceptual structure from facet theory which is clarified with the help of a mapping sentence and partial order mereology

Psychological and Social Measurement Mark Wilson, William P. Fisher, Jr., 2017-12-22 In this tribute to Benjamin Wright former students and colleagues recall the foundational contributions he made to the theory and practice of measurement in a career spanning over five decades Wright is recognized as the foremost proponent of the psychometric approach of Georg Rasch a Danish mathematician whose ideas continue to provoke controversy Wright's colleagues and students and students of their students are leaders in educational research and practice around the world This volume relates the extent of Wright's influence far beyond education and psychology where his work in measurement began into health care and the social sciences at large The editors and contributors all leading measurement scholars trace the development of themes in Wright's work identifying the roots of today's formative assessment methods the integration of quantitative and qualitative data and the contrast between scientific and statistical methods These previously unpublished papers reflect on Wright's lifelong passion for making measurement both more scientific and more meaningful They recount how Wright's insight energy and gregarious nature led him to produce multiple innovations in computing estimation methods model development fit assessment and reliability theory stimulating practical applications in dozens of fields serving on over 120 dissertation committees and founding several professional societies The volume includes three reprinted articles by Wright that provide insights into his early engagement with Rasch's ideas Psychological and Social Measurement will be welcomed by the broad international measurement community of professionals and researchers working in such diverse fields as education psychology health sciences management and metrology Scientists working in any field involving measurement science and technology will appreciate an inside look at this seminal figure and a new perspective on the expanding conversation across the sciences about measurement and the communication of meaningful transparent information

Mereologies, Ontologies, and Facets Paul M. W. Hackett, 2018-07-15 The assignment events objects state of beings etc to an experiential category is a fundamental activity carried out by human and by other animals So rudimentary are the processes involved in categorizing that it is indeed impossible to imagine conscious awareness to exist without the presence of categories A considerable body of writing exists on categories dating from the times of Classical philosophy Plato developed a categorical ontology and Aristotle produced one of the earliest examples of a complex understanding of basic ontologies A number of other categorially structured ontologies have been proposed including those by Lowe Westerhoff Chisholm etc The book is an edited collection of up to the moment essays that address critical aspects on the understanding of categories and categorial systems The perspectives included in the book are drawn from philosophy psychology theology divinity comparative cognition and facet theory The authors are all renowned experts in the area of their writing Topics addressed include both contemporary advances in the understanding of perennial debates and latest thinking upon how categories are employed to structure our experiences of the world we live in The book is distinct as being written by philosophers and psychologists The book is a collection of writings from selected academics at the fore of debates and understandings of categories in contemporary thought The text provides a single source for contemporary scholarship in categories No single text that brings together expositions of categorial experiences for students and academics within the above listed disciplines
