Flash Christopher Bonanos, 2018-06-05 Winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award The first comprehensive biography of Weegee photographer psychic ultimate New Yorker from Christopher Bonanos author of Instant The Story of Polaroid Arthur Fellig s ability to arrive at a crime scene just as the cops did was so uncanny that he renamed himself Weegee claiming that he functioned as a human Ouija board Weegee documented better than any other photographer the crime grit and complex humanity of midcentury New York City In Flash we get a portrait not only of the man both flawed and deeply talented with generous appetites for publicity women and hot pastrami but also of the fascinating time and place that he occupied From self taught immigrant kid to newshound to art world darling to latter day caricature moving from the dangerous streets of New York City to the celebrity culture of Los Angeles and then to Europe for a quixotic late phase of experimental photography and filmmaking Weegee lived a life just as worthy of documentation as the scenes he captured With Flash we have an unprecedented and ultimately moving view of the man now regarded as an innovator and a pioneer an artist as well as a newsman whose photographs are among most powerful images of urban existence ever made

Photography after Photography Abigail Solomon-Godeau, 2017-03-23 Presenting two decades of work by Abigail Solomon Godeau Photography after Photography is an inquiry into the circuits of power that shape photographic practice criticism and historiography As the boundaries that separate photography from other forms of artistic production are increasingly fluid Solomon Godeau a pioneering feminist and politically engaged critic argues that the relationships between photography culture gender and power demand renewed attention In her analyses of the photographic production of Cindy Sherman Robert Mapplethorpe Susan Meiselas Francesca Woodman and others Solomon Godeau refigures the disciplinary object of photography by considering these practices through an examination of the determinations of genre and gender as these shape the relations between photographers their images and their viewers Among her subjects are the 2006 Abu Ghraib prison photographs and the Cold War era exhibition The Family of Man insofar as these illustrate Living Space Michael E. Veal, 2024-04-09 Living Space John Coltrane Miles Davis and Free Jazz from Analog to Digital fuses biography and style history in order to illuminate the music of two jazz icons while drawing on the discourses of photography and digital architecture to fashion musical insights that may not be available through the traditional language of jazz analysis. The book follows the controversial trajectories of two jazz legends emerging from the 1959 album Kind of Blue. Coltrane's odyssey through what became known as free jazz brought stylistic revolution and chaos in equal measure. Davis's spearheading of jazz rock fusion opened a door through which jazz's ongoing dialogue with the popular tradition could be regenerated engaging both high and low ideas of creativity community and commerce. Includes 42 illustrations.
