Louise Bourgeois The Space Of Memory:

Anamnesia Peter Collier, Anna Magdalena Elsner, Olga Smith, 2009 Memory has always been crucial to French literature and culture as a means of mediating the relationship between perception and knowledge of the individual coming to terms with his identity in time Relatively recently memory has also emerged as the key force in the creation of a collective consciousness in the wider perspective of French cultural history This collection of essays selected from the proceedings of a seminar on Memory given by Dr Emma Wilson at the University of Cambridge offers a fresh evaluation of memory as both a cultural and an individual phenomenon in modern and contemporary French culture including literature cinema and the visual arts Anamnesia the book's title develops the Aristotelian concept of anamnesis recollection as a dynamic and creative process which includes forgetting as much as remembering concealment as much as imagination Memory in this extremely diverse range of essays is therefore far from being presented as a straightforward process of recalling the past but emerges as the site of research and renegotiation of contradictions and even aporia

Childhood as Memory, Myth and Metaphor Catherine Crimp, 2017-12-02 A fascination with childhood unites the artist Louise Bourgeois 1911 2010 and the writers Samuel Beckett 1906 89 and Marcel Proust

1871 1922 But while many commentators have traced their childhood images back to memories of lived experiences there is more to their mythologies of childhood that waits to be explored They invite us to move away from familiar ideas whether psychological or biographical about what a child can represent and even what a child is The haunting child figures of Bourgeois Beckett and Proust echo each other as they show how imagining origins for a life for a work of art involves paradoxes that test the limits of our forms of expression Art meets literature profusion meets concision French meets English and images of childhood reveal new insights in this encounter between three great figures of twentieth and twenty first century culture Catherine Crimp holds a PhD from the University of Cambridge and is currently Lectrice d anglais at theEcole Normale Supérieure de Lyon

The Embodied Image Juhani Pallasmaa,2011-05-16 The Embodied Image The Embodied Image Imagination and Imagery in Architecture Juhani Pallasmaa All artistic and architectural effects are evoked mediated and experienced through poeticised images These images are embodied and lived experiences that take place in the flesh of the world becoming part of us at the same time that we unconsciously project aspects of ourselves on to a conceived space object or event Artistic images have a life and reality of their own and they develop through unexpected associations rather than rational and causal logic Images are usually thought of as retinal pictures but profound poetic images are multi sensory and they address us in an embodied and emotive manner Architecture is usually analysed and taught as a discipline that articulates space and geometry but the mental impact of architecture arises significantly from its image quality that integrates the various aspects and dimensions of experience into a singular internalised and remembered entity The material reality is fused with our mental and imaginative realm The book is organised into five main parts that look at in turn the image in contemporary culture language thought and the image the many faces of the image the poetic image and finally the architectural image The Embodied Image is illustrated with over sixty images in pairs which are diverse in subject They range from scientific images to historic artistic and architectural masterpieces Artworks span Michelangelo and Vermeer to Gordon Matta Clark and architecture takes in Modern Masters such as Mies van der Rohe Le Corbusier and Alvar Aalto as well as significant contemporary works by Steven Holl and Daniel Libeskind

The Archive of Development Annette W. Balkema,1998 In the current debate on art thought on time has commanded a prominent position Do we live in a posthistorical time Has objective art historical time and belief in a continual progress shifted to a more subjective experience of the ephemeral Has art history fallen away and if so what does this mean for the future of art How does a visual archive relate to artistic memory This volume investigates positions arguments and comments regarding the stated theme Philosophers and theorists explore the subject matter theoretically Curators articulate the practice of art The participants are Hans Belting Jan Bor Peter B rger Bart Cassiman Leontine Coelewijn Hubert Damisch Arthur C Danto Bart De Baere Okwui Enwezor Kasper K nig Sven L tticken Manifesta Barbara VanderLinden Hans Ulrich Obrist Donald Preziosi Survival of the Past Project Herman Parret Lex Ter Braak Camiel Van Winkel Ernst Van Alphen Kirk Varnedoe Gianni Vattimo and Kees Vuyk Transsexuality and the Art of Transitioning Oren Gozlan,2014-08-13 Winner of The American Board and Academy of Psychoanalysis ABAPsa Book Prize for 2015 Transsexuality and the Art of Transitioning A Lacanian approach presents a startling new way to consider psychoanalytic dilemmas of sexual difference and gender through the meeting of arts and the clinic Informed by a Lacanian perspective that locates transsexuality in the intermediate space between the clinic and culture Oren Gozlan joins current conversations around the question of sexual difference with the insistence that identity never fully expresses sexuality and as such cannot be replaced by gender The book goes beyond the idea of gender as an experience that gives rise to multiple identities and instead considers identity as split from the outset This view transforms transsexuality into a particular psychic position able to encounter the paradoxes of transitional experience and the valence of phantasy and affect that accompany aesthetic conflicts over the nature of beauty and being Gozlan brings readers into the enigmatic qualities of representation as desire for completion and transformation through notions of tension difference and aesthetics through examining the artwork of Anish Kapoor and Louise Bourgeois and the role played by confusion in the aesthetics of transformation in literature and memoir Each chapter of the book presents a productive take on understanding the psychoanalytic demand to sustain and consider the dilemma that the unconscious presents to the knowledge and recognition of gender Fundamentally this work understands transsexuality as a creative act rich with desire and danger in which thinking of the transsexual body as both an analytic and a subjective object helps us to reveal the creativity of sexuality Ideal for psychoanalysts psychologists psychiatrists and social workers as well as students of psychoanalysis cultural studies literature studies and philosophy Transsexuality and the Art of Transitioning offers a unique insight into psychoanalytic approaches to transsexuality and the question of assuming a position in gender
