Calamity Karen R. Jones,2020-02-04 A fascinating new account of the life and legend of the Wild West s most notorious woman Calamity Jane Martha Jane Canary popularly known as Calamity Jane was the pistol packing rootin tootin lady wildcat of the American West Brave and resourceful she held her own with the men of America s most colorful era and became a celebrity both in her own right and through her association with the likes of Wild Bill Hickok and Buffalo Bill Cody In this engaging account Karen Jones takes a fresh look at the story of this iconic frontierswoman She pieces together what is known of Canary s life and shows how a rough and itinerant lifestyle paved the way for the scattergun alcohol fueled heroics that dominated Canary s career Spanning Canary s rise from humble origins to her role as heroine of the plains and the embellishment of her image over subsequent decades Jones shows her to be feisty eccentric transgressive and very much complicit in the making of the myth that was Calamity Jane Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library. MacNaughtan,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1916 edition Excerpt FURNES The first soup kitchen was a very small dark little place It was really only a small space p under an archway and cut off from J the rest of the station by a door of sacking stretched on a wooden frame The actual space within the room measured eight feet by seven feet and in this not very lordly apartment was a small stove which burned and a large one which didn t There were a few kettles and pots and a little coffee grinder too with a picture of a blue windmill on it for which I conceived an earnest hatred such as inanimate things sometimes inspire in one It was so silly and so inadequate and in order to get enough ground coffee its futile little handle had to be turned all day while the blue windmill looked busy and did nothing and was perfectly cheerful all the time With these not very useful tools to work with and it was very difficult to buy anything at 1 866 7 Furnes at that time there came a rush of work which is not unusual in war time and there was a great deal to do at the kitchen The first convoy of wounded men used to come in about 10 30 a m They arrived always in one of those road trains which are common in Belgium and which make circuits and stop at various small stations We used to hear a horn blown and then the noisy outer door of the station slammed and we knew the train load of men had arrived The sitting cases were always brought in first These were men damaged for the most part in their feet or hands or with superficial scalp wounds or frostbitten They hobbled in or were carried on men s backs or leaned against some comrade s shoulder And across the entrance hall of the station went day and night a long stream of them to pass under the archway and out at the other

World War II London Blitz Diary Vol. 2 Ruby Side Thompson,Victoria Aldridge Washuk,Adele Thompson

Aldridge,2011-11-05 This is volume two of a four volume series of diaries written in London England during World War II The first volume was comprised of 1939 1940 This volume is 1941 and are Ruby s outpourings of her experience during that year of the War Blitz bombings In this very personal and historical account in which Ruby writes about her truth of the war which she shares with no one but the diary She describes the terror she experiences night after night wondering if she will see the next day What these citizen s managed is mind boggling and is a reminder of how atrocious war really is Ruby says September 21 1941 We are hypnotized by propaganda by the impact of particular places and persons by religion by war and by ourselves by our own terrible easy suggestibility We are sheep dumb fool sheep Consider this huge derision of patriotism and of war As I looked over Kent yesterday so peaceful all the harvest in so green so quiet the sense of the folly of the war enveloped me ever more tightly and suffocating then in Blitzed London Much of London is offensive to the sight so that when one sees portions of it utterly destroyed unconsciously one is reconciled to the destruction The further I went from London the more I was convinced that war is only made by the few bad men in power for their own profit War pays the armament makers The puzzle is Why do common men obey the warlords Why Because they are hypnotized by words deluded by propaganda and patriotism Oh God What fools men are One thing I determined and that is to guard my own mind That seems the most important thing to me today to protect my mind and to keep out the crazy propaganda and all the world s false beliefs The everlasting verities those are what I want to discern and the realities and mainly the beautiful and good realities War is a reality and Hitler is a reality but neither Hitler nor war is enduring both will pass away but the grass will remain beauty will remain Ruby says This world is hell and Hitler is Satan himself The last war convinced me of the reality of the Devil this war reinforces that conviction I say men create war yes but the evil in men s hearts which creates this sort of war is the devil s evil itself This is devilish fiendish air war every casualty a civilian Oh the damn foolishness of war and the ineptitude of politicians Where will the bombs drop tonight London Berlin Athens Romford

World War II London Blitz Diary Vol. 3 Ruby Alice Side Thompson,2012-03 This diary is the 3rd in a series of four volumes written by Ruby Side Thompson They document her experience about World War Two in England and the London Blitz The diaries are unique written from a woman s experience during war time They include Ruby s opinions written only for the privacy of her diary Her views are often ahead of her time She writes about the war in terms that would have been considered blaspheme if spoken out loud We are fortunate to have this very personal and articulate perspective of that war of seventy years ago March 4 1943 Well today March Fourth I live I still live Last night we had two bad raids The first came at eight thirty and went on until ten p m The second came at four thirty this morning and lasted until a quarter to six Our gunfire was terrific I have not heard yet what damage was done Nothing in this immediate vicinity though when Ted returned from the Home Guard he said one of their officers had come in in an extremely nervous state and said bombs had fallen in Collier Row However when the radio man came this morning about a half and hour ago he said no not Collier Row last night but nearer to Fairlop and Warley the airdromes well we ll know later Whilst the racket is going on I get very sick and retch constantly I can t help it and I can t stop it This morning I feel sore in the ribs as though somebody had kicked me If a bombardment went on for twelve or eighteen hours I think I should expire not from a direct hit but from my one bodily mechanism which will not behave properly and which I can t control no matter how emphatically my will commands it Sheer animal fear over which the soul has no control yes sure it can kill you This blasted war When oh when will it finish If there is anything in this world stupider than war I have never heard of it Men deliberately destroying mankind men deliberately destroying the entire world could there possibly be anything more insane Well I pray like mad God be merciful to me a sinner Deliver us from evil Oh deliver us from evil

World War II London Blitz Diary Ruby Alice Side Thompson,2011 Bunty's War Ida Greene,2016-08-19 Bunty s War is a story of hope and survival as seen through the diary entries of Bunty as she grows from schoolgirl to woman in World War Two England It embraces horror and hilarity fear and courage despair and determination cruelty and kindness Ida Greene brings her intimate diary entries to life beginning with carefree pre war days in England with her teenage companions in a quiet London suburb Suddenly turned upside down by the eruption of World War Two life becomes unpredictable and foreboding As she matures Bunty chronicles budding romances and humorous adventures juxtaposed with the unfolding events in the war and the ever present threat of annihilation from the skies As the book ends she meets the love of her life Will he propose

Mrs Miles's Diary Constance Miles,2013 At the outbreak of the Second World War Constance Miles was living with her husband in the pretty Surrey village of Shere A prolific correspondent with a keen interest in current affairs Constance kept a war journal from 1939 to 1943 recording in vivid detail what life was like for women on the Home Front She writes of the impact of evacuees of food shortages and the creative uses of what food there was and the fears of the local populace who wonder how they will cope She tells of refugees from central Europe billeted in village houses and later in the war of the influx of American servicemen She travels frequently to London mourning the destruction of familiar landmarks and recording the devastation of the Blitz but still finds time for tea in the Strand A woman of strong convictions Mrs Miles is not afraid to voice her opinion on public figures and her worries about the social upheavals she feels certain to follow the war But most of all her journals record an overlooked aspect of the conflict the impact on communities outside of major cities who endured hardships we find hard to imagine today It is a fascinating document that makes for compulsive reading

World War II London Blitz Diary Ruby Alice Side Thompson,2011 Imagine yourself seeing hundreds of Messerschmitt war planes overhead and hearing the explosion of bombs being dropped around you Wondering if this is the day one will fall on your house Ruby Side Thompson s personal diary was written during the terrifying World War Two London Blitz Her diary is a true and detailed account of what she experienced during that horrific time The diary chronicles Ruby s struggle to survive in the midst of a horrendous war where London is bombed nightly Ruby speaks candidly about her unhappiness enduring an unsatisfactory marriage She was the mother of seven sons two of whom were enlisted in the R A F One of which became an amputee as the result of hitting a land mine and the other son was captured and sent to a concentration camp as a prisoner of war Her tale is a mix of the commonplace and the historic as seen through her eyes The diary was an outlet for Ruby s thoughts and feelings that could not be spoken out loud however in publishing the diary it gives readers an honest and unfiltered look back at a time that may have been long since forgotten

Join Ruby on her trying journey as she tries to keep her life and family together during this difficult time in history This is volume one of a four volume series written by Ruby Alice Side Thompson
