Love At First Site A Novel:

Love at First Site J. Carl Cinquino, 2018-08-17 Love at First Site is my analysis of the emotions which go into looking at a photo of someone or meeting them socially and how one can feel as a result However I don't stop there As you read deeper into the book you will read about relationships which become closer and more intense No longer are they just in the mind of the writer but now they have entered the world of experience As a teacher and student I became familiar with many different types of poetry And though I admire the works of writers like Sylvia Plath John Berryman Hart Crane and Wallace Stevens as well as all of the Romantic poets young and old my major influences might be poets like Edgar Lee Masters and Edgar Arlington Robinson While the difficult poets I have mentioned above seem to think naturally in metaphor and thus the density and complexity of their work I do not have that gift My poems tend to be more prosaic which is not to say they are not poems and my main goal is help the reader experience beauty and loss the two main ingredients that one of my favorite poets Edgar Allan Poe advocated

My Comic Book Mind Series Gabriel Zeldis, 2014-02-10 I remember the things I felt at that bar in the mountains The music was over Some songs played on the jukebox The tears welled within me The dusty road outside I had my whole life ahead of me a vision of the indescribable future Tears fell within Mountain life was different but it fit me A ship set sail on a lonely river What was love anyway Complicated There was no one that could hurt me again I imagined just scars Scars and a desire to make something out of my life My cabin was just a shadow in the night And I was supposed to believe I didn't know Jesus I poured shots and beers that night to the locals Some who had hearts and some whose hearts had escaped them I'll never forget the songs that played on the jukebox The moon cast weary shadows and eyes met eyes in the smoky bar Smoke rising All I could think of was having a fire for myself in my shell of a cabin outside by the river A river that always ran

Surviving the Evacuation, Book 22: Letters from Yesterday Frank Tayell, 2024-11-01 Nova Scotia has been abandoned New York has fallen The war for the Americas has begun Bill Wright's final evacuation is underway A route to the bastions in the Pacific Northwest has been mapped out Supply dumps have been created and the first batch of evacuees have already departed For those still waiting to leave there's little to do and less to eat so it was inevitable that some might turn to theft and murder With spies discovered in their midst and another attack by the Atlantic pirates imminent it will take all of Bill's cunning to prevent this evacuation from becoming a rout After the outbreak most people either hid in their homes or fled towards safety Maggs and Etienne opted to go to work For over thirty years they'd helped keep the electricity flowing in northern Quebec As long as the power remained on there was a chance the stay at home order could be obeyed and the outbreak stopped The nuclear exchange ended that hope In the chaos that followed they were separated but even as she fled Maggs left a letter for husband saying where she'd gone Childhood is already a distant memory for Jay Between helping run the orphanage and the attached chicken farm he barely has time to sleep let alone dream When he does get a few hours free he spends them scavenging among the ruins On one such looting expedition he and Heppy find a year old letter left by Maggs for her missing husband Though the chance of finding either of the missing couple is slim both Jay and Heppy have buried too many not to feel compelled to search for them Everyone deserves a chance to join the evacuation and to survive
